

Among the Churches

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Pastor

Services were well attended all day. The pastor preached in the morning on "Tithing" and emphasized the fact that it is every Christian's duty to give one-tenth of his income to God. The congregation was very much impressed with the forceful and logical manner in which the subject was presented, many of whom expressed a willingness to put this scriptural plan into practice. In the evening J. D. Davis was the speaker.

Next Sunday morning covenant, at night sermon, fellowship and communion.

The Silver Leaf club was reorganized at the pastor's residence Tuesday night.

CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON Rev. John Albert Williams, Pastor

The Woman's Auxiliary held a largely attended meeting last Thursday at the residence of Mrs. Swain. The meeting this week is with Mrs. R. T. Walker.

Confirmation instruction is given Sunday afternoon at the 5:30 vesper services. Bishop Shaylor's visitation for confirmation will be on Palm Sunday which this year falls on March 28.

The Nation-Wide Campaign being waged by the Episcopal church is an effort to enlist every communicant and member in doing his Christian duty. Every individual who at any time has been connected with the Episcopal church is to be visited in this campaign, if the name and residence can be ascertained.

Sunday services are held at 7:30, 10 and 11 a. m. and 5:30 p. m.

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST CHURCH Rev. John Costello, Pastor.

Frozen pipes caused disappointment at the baptizing last Sunday.

The features of the rally is for all auxiliaries to raise $25.00 each in which there is a contest between the men and women of the church. Rev. J. Costello is the men's chairman and Mrs. Jennie Brown for the women. She will be assisted by Mrs. Costello.

Prof. N. B. Rogers gave a lecture last Friday evening, which was a rare treat to all who heard him.

The Mission Circle will meet Monday at 2 o'clock with Mrs. A. Johnson, 113 South Twenty-eighth avenue. The sick of the congregation number twenty-five.

The B. Y. P. U. officers for the current year are Mrs. Rounds, president; Mrs. Buntin, vice president; Miss Lily Collier, secretary; J. Crowder, treasurer, and Mrs. A. Jones, chaplain.

BEULAH BAPTIST CHURCH, COUNCIL BLUFFS, IA. Rev. S. Fants, Pastor.

Services were well attended all day Sunday.

Next Sunday, February 1, there will be a rally given for the purpose of buying a new building on South A. Baptizing Sunday at 3 o'clock at Twenty-second and Avenue A. The Rev. M. D. Johnson will fill the pulpit all day.

The sick of the church are improving.

ST. MARY'S BAPTIST CHURCH, SOUTH SIDE.

An ecclesiastic council called by the church convened at Thirtieth and Q streets at 7:30 p. m. and organized by choosing Rev. J. P. Jackson moderator and E. Cunningham clerk. Prayer was offered by Deacon Burton. The credentials of the pastors and messengers were presented. The following churches were represented: Tabernacle, Pilgrim Rest, Beulah and Wheeler. Rev. S. Fant preached the sermon and the right hand of fellowship was given. Rev. Mr. Harris made a brief talk. Rev. G. W. Brower also spoke. Prof. Rogers also delivered an address.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH. Dr. W. F. Botts, Pastor.

The pastor preached two strong sermons last Sunday. There were several additions to the church.

The funeral of Mrs. George Ousley was held at this church last Sunday afternoon. The large crowd of sorrowing friends showed the high esteem in which he was held. He came to Omaha 45 years ago and was one of the charter organizers of Zion Baptist church. Two daughters, Mrs. Ella Harper and Mrs. L. Strother survive him.

That the interest in the literary society is growing is shown in the increasing crowds every Monday.

Mrs. Perry of Atchison, Kas., and Mrs. Anna M. Chandler of Kansas

City, Mo., were pleasant visitors at service last Sunday.

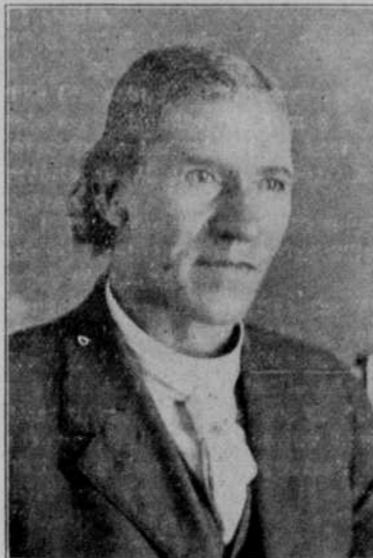

Mrs. Georgia Robinson and Miss Stanton of Des Moines, Ia., sister and cousin of Mrs. Jessie Vann, are visiting in the city.

The sick of the church include Mr. and Mrs. Sands and Mr. Callaway. Sunday School every Sunday at 1 p. m. and B. Y. P. U. at 6:30. Covenant services next Sunday morning; preaching at night, followed by administration of Lord's Supper.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

Services were good on Sunday.

A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to come out and partake with us of our spiritual feasts. The sick of the church are: Mr. A. Floyd, Mr. Lewis M. Bonds and Mrs. Helen.

Rev. J. A. Broadnax

Reverend J. A. Broadnax, Pastor of Allen Chapel, A. M. E. Church and Past G. M. of Oklahoma, and G. M. of M. W. K. S. G. L. of Kansas and Nebraska jurisdiction of all legitimate York Rite Masons, Colored National (Compact) Prince Hall Origin.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Star Light Mission Band of Bethel Baptist church celebrated a birthday contest rally on January 25 by raising $19.05. Mother Fleming received first prize as the oldest and Fannie May Morgan received a prize for being the youngest member.

Rev. T. A. Taggart is back from Maryville, Mo., where he has been holding a revival. He preached to many souls, crowds of both races flocked to hear, and many were added to the church.

The sick of the church are: Mrs. Lucile Howard, Mrs. Simmons, Mrs. G. Gleaves, Mrs. Carrick, Mother Kelly and r. Johnny Owens.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA.

The Colored Men's Business club met at the home of Mrs. W. G. Cane, Twenty-sixth street and Second avenue, recently and plan to become incorporated in the near future.

Visitors who worshipped at Tabernacle Baptist church Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Davis and Joseph King of Evanston, Ill.; Mr. C. W. Martin who visited the Sunday school and Mr. Bishop, the county Sunday school superintendent.

The Hon. George W. Murray, congressman of South Carolina, lectured Sunday morning at Tabernacle Baptist church on "Race Ideals." He made a lasting impression upon the congregation.

Mrs. G. Manuel, who recently underwent a serious operation and had a tumor removed, is able to be out again.

The choir of Tabernacle Baptist church gave a fine musical program last Thursday evening under the direction of Mrs. Ida Giles, assisted by other faithful committees headed by Mrs. M. Morton, Mrs. Rees, Mrs. John Turner, Mrs. Emma Turner, Miss E. Alexander, Miss A. Fountain and Mrs. Bettie Hoskins. The entertainment raised $42.10. The income from all sources last week was $78.35.

Among those on the sick list are S. M. Fields, Mrs. Mattie Williams, John Tutson and George Walker.

The Rev. S. P. Jackson was a guest at the Y. W. C. A. last Monday

The county Sunday school convention was held at the First Presbyterian church last Thursday night. Among those participating and served at the banquet were the Rev. J. P. Jackson and Mesdames Wade, Morton and Alexander. The benediction was pronounced by the Rev. J. P. Jackson.

The well known evangelist and returned missionary from Europe and Africa known by the Zulus as the "Ball of Fire," Rev. S. C. Crutcher, will open an evangelistic meeting at Bethel A. M. E. church by initial services Sunday morning. Rev. Crutcher will be here for an indefinite stay. Contributions large and small will be gratefully received.

Rev. M. R. Rhonene, pastor of Bethel A. M. E., returned from Kansas City, Mo., Friday morning, where he has been on business connected with the Masonic lodge.

Sunday morning the pastor preached a fine sermon, and two persons were added to the church. Evening service was enjoyed by all. Rev. Moore preached a wonderful sermon.

The Bethel A. M. E. Sunday school with its superintendent, Mrs. E. H. Madison, and board, will serve tea and soup every Sunday in the basement, after preaching, free to all.

The Christian Endeavor is doing a great work under the leadership of the president, Mrs. Alice Carter, and her board of officers. Sunday, February 8, they will give a program at 3 p. m. Let everybody come out and help them raise $15.00. "God loves a cheerful giver."

The Missionary meeting was called by the president, Mrs. Gertrude B. Rhonene, and presided over by Mrs. M. Mallett. Seven were present and spent a pleasant evening.

A number of members of the church made a happy surprise birthday party upon Brother R. V. Robinson. The party was led by Mrs. Martha Herndon and Mrs. Inis Smith. Twentythree were present and gave Mr. Robinson, who is 67 years old, a purse of $24.06.

The sick of the church are: R. V. Robinson, Mrs. Bush, Mrs. Charlie Hall, Mrs. P. J. Richardson, Mr. Fields and Mrs. Florence Frankul. Mrs. Mamuel, Mrs. Lyons and Mrs. Gren are improved.

Those who wish to consult the pastor on any matter will call at 105 North Sixteenth street. Phone Black 1763.

SIOUX CITY, IOWA

Mr. George Hicks of 1301 Hill avenue, who underwent a slight operation at St. Vincent's hospital on January 18, is able to superintendent his job again at the Metropolitan building.

Mr. and Mrs. Rasburn Curtis have moved to 510 1/2 Cook street.

Through the kindness of Miss Nettie L. Adams the Sioux City correspondent had a chance to look at the student paper, The Courier, published by Edward Waters College, Jacksonville, Fla., of which Miss Adams is an alumna. The paper shows progressive, up to the minute spirit.

Sunday, February 1 will be the second quarterly meeting. Rev. P. M. Ferris will hold his love feast in connection with prayer meeting Wednesday night the 28th.

Mrs. Mary Talbert, national president of the Federation of Women's clubs, spoke to a crowded house last Thursday night at Mt. Zion Baptist church. A feature of the meeting was a solo rendered by Mrs. Anna May Askew.

Mrs. D. C. Clay and daughter, Mrs. Brown, have returned to the city to reside after a stay in Kansas City.

Mrs. Florence Rountree entertained the ladies and their husbands at a dinner at her home, 611 Sioux street, last Friday night.

Rev. Mr. Garser of the M. E. church, South Sioux City, preached at Malone A. M. E. church Sunday night to a large and appreciative congregation.

Mrs. J. D. Anthony of the Howard Turkish Bath parlors has gone to Excelsior Springs, Mo., for a two weeks' rest.

ATCHISON, KAS.

Mrs. Courtney Scott is visiting her uncle, Dr. Grant Brown, in Wichita.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Denney entertained with a dinner Wednesday. She had as her guests Presiding Elder and Mrs. Seney, Rev. and Mrs. Billup and Rev. and Mrs. Lewis.

Miss Minerva Taylor of St. Joe is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Toney Taylor.

Mr. and rs. Byron Hanis were the week-end guests of Mrs. Hanis' mother, Mrs. Black.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Briggs were visitors in Kansas City last week.

The surprise party met at Mr. and Mrs. Wilse Covington's and had a delightful time.

Mrs. Lucy Taylor and son are confined to bed with pneumonia. We wish for them a speedy recovery.

The program given Sunday by Mrs. Moore and Miss Pater was excellent. Mrs. Jaimor of California is the guest of the Wallingford family.

The N. A. A. C. P. met at Campbell chapel and opened with a talk by Rev. White. The association is doing a great work. Why don't you join? A meeting will be held next Sunday at the Christian church.

Miss Blossie Buchanan has returned from her trip to Portland, Ore., and reports a fine time.

The funeral of Mrs. A. Wilson was held Monday at Mt. Zion church.

The sermon Sunday night by Mrs. Fattie Colman was excellent and very instructive. It was bread to the hungry soul.

Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Dovie Whiteside and Emmett Jordan were week-end guests in St. Joe.

Mrs. Rosa Loftin will leave shortly for a visit in California.

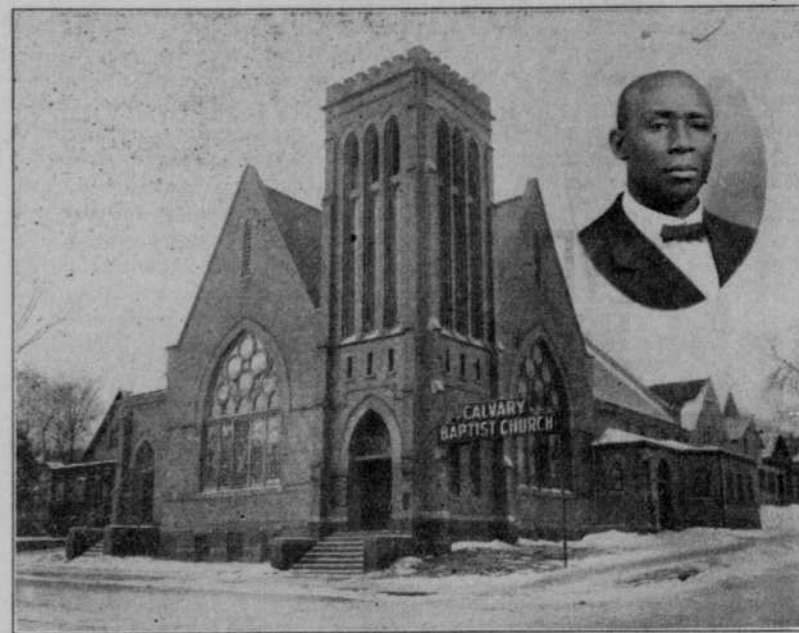

PALESTINE TEXAS

Rev. B. E. Simpson of Jacksonville was in the city last week on business.

Sunday was a beautiful day. All the churches had appreciative audi-

"ON TO CALVARY"

Slogan of Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church in Its Great Financial Drive.

The above is a cut of the Calvary Baptist church (white), 25th and Hamilton streets, erected in 1900. This building has been purchased by contract by the Pilgrim Rest Baptist church (colored) at a cost of $35,000. Fifteen thousand dollars of the purchase price is to be paid before entering the building.

Eleven thousand dollars is to be raised by the congregation and friends by May 1st. We are therefore asking every reader of this paper and the public at large to give us your moral and financial support in the raising of this eleven thousand dollars. Below you will find a coupon which you will please fill in, sign and return with the amount you will give for this purpose.

Please do not lay this aside, but give it your immediate attention. All contributions will be acknowledged in the columns of this paper. Watch this fund grow. Address all communications to

REV. W. M. FRANKLIN, Pastor Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church
Residence Address, 1318 North 26th St., Omaha, Neb.

Enclosed please find $..... as a donation on purchase price of Calvary Baptist Church, Omaha, Neb.

Name

Street Number.....

City..... State.....

Hear Henry A. Ethridge

Dramatic Tenor at
MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH, 26th AND FRANKLIN
Thursday Night, February 12. Admission 40 Cents

PROGRAM

- (a)—"Thank God for a Garden"..... Del Reigo
- (b)—"Nita Gitana"..... DeKoven
- (c)—"Star"..... Rogers
2. Recitation..... Mrs. Mary Duncan
- (a)—"Romanza, "Non E Ver"..... Mottae
- (b)—"Recitative and Aria, "Vesti La Guibba," from Opera Pagliacci..... Leon Cavallo

INTERMISSION

- (a)—"Three Shadows"..... H. Burleigh
- (b)—"Bye and Bye" (Spiritual).....
- (c)—"Young Warrior".....
5. Recitation..... Mrs. M. H. Wilkinson
- (a)—"Call Me No More"..... Cadman
- (b)—"Vale"..... Russell

ences. Rev. F. B. Wallace of St. Paul's M. E. church preached good sermons morning and evening.

Rev. Mr. Washington, presiding elder of the A. M. E. church, held his first quarterly conference at Grant Chapel, January 18 and 19. Rev. M. Cowen had everything ready and all reports were complete. Rev. Mr. Washington preached to a large audience Sunday night.

The educational board of the Baptist church met at St. Mark's Baptist church Monday with a full attendance. All reports were good.

The C. M. E. church, the West Union church and the Pilgrim Rest church are all progressing nicely.

Rev. Mr. Barnes of Grapeland and Rev. Mr. Henry of Corsicana were in the city last week.

Mr. Charley Mass died on the 16th of this month. His body was shipped to Graceland for burial. Many of his friends attended the funeral.

Mrs. Lulu Johnson is improving slowly. Rev. S. M. Bolden is still improving after a long sick spell.

Mr. Lancaster said that his only objection to The Monitor is that its pages are too few. He would have more of it.

All who have not done so please pay your subscriptions. I send a check to The Monitor office each week so that you can get your paper.

FREMONT, NEB.

Our prospects for a good church year are splendid. Rev. Mr. Stapleton preaches good sermons and services are well attended.

The body of Mr. Dave Cunningham, an employe of the C. & N. W., who died while being conveyed to a hospital in this city, was shipped to Chicago for burial. His parents live in Jamaica.

Mr. N. S. Watts has fully recovered from his illness of two weeks.

Mrs. John Bradford is much improved at this time. She injured her foot so badly that blood-poisoning was feared for a while.

James and Byrd Thomas of Lincoln, were pleasant callers in the city. Mr. Thomas is taking a course in agriculture at the Nebraska university.

Mrs. Thomas Watts has returned from a visit in Omaha.

Mr. Bradford of Texas is in the city visiting his sister, Mrs. Bradford, and brother, D. Smith.

Mr. S. Thomas is on the sick list.

PAYS OFF FIRST MORTGAGE

The Rev. A. Wagner, pastor of the Interdenominational Peoples' Mission, has just paid off the first mortgage of $800 on their property at Twenty-sixth and Franklin streets. He is grateful to the public who assisted him in this matter. A second mortgage, which does not mature for some time, still remains against it. This he hopes to be able to meet when the proper time arrives.

ATTEND MEETING OF MASONIC RELIEF BOARD

R. H. Young, grand treasurer, and Trago T. McWilliams, grand secretary, members of the Masonic Relief Board of the Nebraska Grand Lodge, came from Lincoln last Friday to attend meeting of the board. Nat Hunter is grand master. Although the Nebraska Grand Lodge is only eight months old the relief board has on hand a fund of more than $1,300.

MISS MERRITT, FEBRUARY 3

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Philip's Episcopal Church desire to announce that the dramatic recital which was to have been given in December by Miss Helen Ricks Merritt of Iowa City, and was postponed because of the fuel ban, will be given Tuesday evening, February 3 at Columbia Hall.

—Adv.

C. M. E. Church

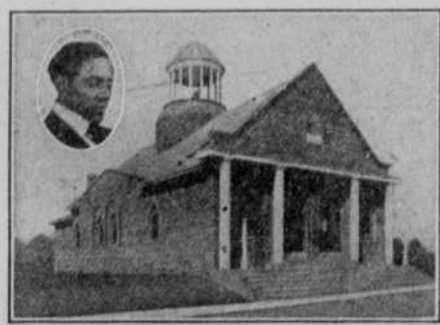

QUESTION—Where do they Worship?
ANSWER—1423 North 24th St (Upstairs)

LOOK FOR THE SIGN

Were you ever a member of this church? If so, why not come and worship with us now? We ask all members and friends of the C. M. E. Church to meet with us each Sabbath as we have a message from God for you.

A. SIMS, Pastor.

R. P. Tyler Presiding Elder, 24th and Charles Sts.

THERE'S A MESSAGE FOR YOU AT Bethel Baptist Church

29th and T Sts., South Side
SERVICES
Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.
Song service, 10:45 a. m.
Preaching services, 11 a. m.; 8 p. m.

Rev. Thomas A. Taggart, Pastor.
2120 North 27th St.

Church of St. Philip the Deacon

(EPISCOPAL)

Twenty-first Between Nicholas and Paul Sts.

REV. JOHN ALBERT WILLIAMS, PRIEST

Sunday services, 7:30, 10 and 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

COME. YOU ARE WELCOME.

CHURCH OF DIVINITY Inter-Denominational People's Mission

26th and Franklin Streets
Preaching, 11 a. m., 7:30 p. m.; Sunday school, 1:15 p. m.
Prayer and conference meeting every Thursday 8 p. m.

REV. A. WAGNER, Pastor and G. O. P.

CHURCH OF ST. BENEDICT THE MOOR

(Catholic)
MASS—8 a. m., First Sunday in every month. BENEDICTION—8 p. m., Third Sunday in every month. Services to be held temporarily in Sacred Heart Chapel, Twenty-second and Binney Streets. Everybody welcome.
REV. FRANCIS CASSILLY, S. J., Pastor.