Drs. Singleton & Singleton, dentists, 111 South 14th street. Quality and efficiency our motto.

The low cost of living contest pulled off at the Fashion Cabret Sunday evening by Prof. Dixie Kidd, manager, and comical speler for ladies only, was some affair. The strip of Premium bacon was drawn by Mrs. Mattie Brown of 2518 Burdette street. The bucket of fresh eggs was drawn by Mrs. Lizzie Williams, 2122 Clark street.

Buy your groceries and meats at Finkenstein's. We want and appreciate your trade.

The ladies' Leap Year party held at the Fashion Cabaret Saturday evening, February 14, chaperoned by Mrs. Charles H. Harden, the able proprietress, was certainly an odd affair. You should have seen those girls in their bashful mood asking the gents for dances and treating them to supper, which consisted of chicken-a-lacking, potato chips, French peas and toast, ice cream and a long list of deserts to pick from.

Send in your subscription for The Monitor, please. It is $2.50 a year. What is it that opens every night at 8 o'clock and has something big doing Wednesday, Saturday nights and is a nice place to go after balls and shows? Why! The Fashion Cabaret, 1314 N. 24th St.—Charles H. Harden, Prop.

N. A. A. C. P. NOTES.

The Omaha Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Mrs. Jessie Hale Moss, president, met at 3:30 p. m. Sunday afternoon at Mt. Moriah Baptist church, Mrs. Moss presiding. Miss Myrtle Moore acted as secretary in the absence of Mr. H. W. Black.

A report was made of the firms that have been and are discriminating against the Negro, and the body went on record as placing their names in the records and having them read each Sunday. Two firms were specifically mentioned and the same were made a matter of record.

Much interest was shown in the discussion of the appointment of a juvenile officer to look after our future citizens—our girls and boys. The committee having this matter in charge was directed to act and report the result of their work at the next meeting.

The census of the Negro population of Omaha as reported was stated to be incorrect, it having ben noted in the daily papers that the colored population of Omaha was only about 5,000. A committee was appointed to investigate this error and have the same adjusted, if possible.

Tentative plans were made to have Dean William Pickens in Omaha to deliver one of his famous lectures in the near future.

At 5:30 p. m. the business session adjourned and Mr. Twitchell of Community Service had a songfest, when the colored singers sang as they alone can sing.

The next meeting will be held at Grove M. E. church, and it is hoped the membership will be on hand to aid in applying the principles for which this great organization stands.

ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH SECURES GOOD RESULTS

St. Philip's Episcopal church took an active part in the closing canvass last Sunday in the Nation-Wide campaign. Despite the severe cold weather a large congregation was present at the 11 o'clock service, which was rather an informal one, as the Holy Eucharist had been offered at an earlier hour. Addresses were made by Mr. John S. Hedelund, secretary of the diocesan campaign committee; Mrs. Isaac Bailey, Mr. W. G. Haynes, parish chairman; Mr. M. F. Singleton; and the Rev. John Albert Williams and an inspiring address on "Consecration" by Bishop Shaylor. At the close of the service lunch was served in the rectory to the members of the nine teams, who then returned to the church for prayers after which went to visit those in their respective districts. One hundred and eight calls were made. One hundred and eight pledges were signed for parish support and the objects of the Nation Wide campaign. and ninety-three service cards pledging some personal work for Christ. Persons not found at home will be visited later. Several candidates for confirmation were also secured. Those making the canvass were Sergeant Bailey, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. John Albert Williams, Sergeant Letcher, Mrs. William Murphy, Mrs. S. B. Cauty, Henry W. Black, Mrs. Sina Brown, Dr. John A. Singleton, Mrs. L. N. Peoples, Miss Jennie Robinson, Dillard Crawford, Mrs. W. H. Haynes, Miss Lena Paul, Augustus Hicks, Mrs. Baylis Pegg, Mrs. A. Hicks, David Morris, Mrs. E. R. West, Miss Anna Logan, Mrs. W. W. Peebles and W. G. Haynes

N. W. C. A. HOME NOTES.
The N. W. C. A. Home association met last Wednesday, Mrs. J. H. Smith presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. John Perry, who was detained at home by illness. The meeting was opened with prayer and a song service. The election of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. W. H. Mortimer, president; Mrs. Clarence Trent, vice president; Mrs. Henry W. Black, secretary; Mrs. Nate Hunter, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Martha Taylor Smith, treasurer. Three new members were added to the board: Mesdames W. F. Botts, J. S. Turner and H. W. Black. Mr. Silas Johnson was made general manager of the home. Through his influence the home now has a phone in the association's name. The number is Webster 4534. Mrs. Black told of the Old Folks' Home in Oakland, Cal., and a brief address was made by the new president.

NATIONAL OFFICER Y. W. C. A. VISITS CITY
Mrs. Cordelia Winn, one of the national officers of the Young Women's Christian association, is in the city in the interests of this great organization. It is ardently hoped that her presence here will result in establishing a much needed work among the young colored women of Omaha, preliminary steps towards which were made last year.

STILL AN OPEN QUESTION.
Some who witnessed the pleasing dancing recital Monday night want to know where a certain minister's children got their dancing ability. There was quite a debate among a little group as to whether this talent on their part is natural or acquired. The question is left open.

BOY SCOUT BULLETIN.
Troop 23 did its full share on tag day, having pinned over 1,000 square knots on members of the neighborhood turn. A goodly number of Scouts got turn. A goodly number of Scouts were on hand Saturday at Central High school for the mass meeting at which time they listened to a splendid lecture on Scoutism and the future plans of extending the Scout movement throughout the world, by our chief Scout executive of America, Mr. West of New York City.

Every Scout of 23 is looking forward with delight to the Father and Son banquet which will be held Wednesday, February 25, at the Community Center. Every father or guardian will be expected to be present on that night. A short but interesting program will be rendered by the members of the troop in Scouting. We have made arrangements to use the large hall downstairs for a few hours so it will be important that every father will make special effort to come out on time in order that we may begin promptly at 7:15. We want 100 per cent of the fathers or guardians to come out and learn something about Scouting.

CAMP FIRE NOTES.
The Ocowasin Group, Camp Fire Girls, met Friday, February 13, at the residence of Dorothy E. Williams. Ocowasin Group met Thursday, February 5, at the residence of Pauline and Beatrice Black. Election of officers was held. Those elected were: Alice Watson, secretary; Frances Gordon, treasurer; Irita Walker, assistant secretary; Audra Truhart, social secretary; Grace Dorsey, chairman eats committee; Ruth Jones, chairman entertainment committee, and Dorothy Williams, reporter. Mrs. L. M. Peoples, the guardian, is acting president.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to thank the members of the Society of St. Benedict for their kindly efforts, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Johnson for their courteous and able service, Miss Agnes Johnson for her song, the Western Indemnity Co. for the prompt payment of death claim, and the many who sent floral offerings and were of service to us during the sickness and death of our brother and son.

CITY WEIGHT INSPECTOR WOULD STOP SHRINKING OF BREAD LOAVES HERE

J. W. Long, city inspector of weights and measures, has brought before the city council two 10-cent loaves of white bread, one of which weighed 10 3/4 ounces and the other 11 ounces.

This was for the information of the commissioners and no present action was asked nor was any taken.

W. J. Haunter, city clerk, stated informally that when flour was $5.50 per barrel during prewar times a 16-ounce loaf of bread could have been bought for 5 cents and with flour now costing $13.50 per barrel some of the bakers are making 11-ounce loaves which retail for 10 cents.

"I am endeavoring to get the council interested in an ordinance for a standard-weight loaf of bread as they have in Chicago," Mr. Long said. "My observation has been that the 10-cent loaves have been shrinking gradually."

ANNUAL CHARITY DAY.
Princess O'Ziel chapter, O. E. S., entertained on their annual charity day, February 12, at a mid-winter picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hardison, 2216 Grant street. A delightful time was had by all present. Music and short talks by visitors was a treat to all and such a delicious lunch as was spread in real picnic style was indeed pleasing to the eye and more than satisfied each one's appetite.

PHI DELTA CLUB NEWS.
The Phi Delta club met Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. Frances Peoples. Miss Corine Thomas, February graduate of Central High, was present as a visitor. A delightful evening was spent. The members busied themselves with their needlework, all varieties being represented from hope box dollies to a cute gingham dress by one of the club mothers. The girls decided on Thursday evening for their club meeting, so that club duties will not interfere with the domestic science class. After business was discussed the members enjoyed a lovely luncheon and adjourned.

Red Cross Home Nursing Class Pass.
All members of the home nursing class who took the final examination passed with excellent grades and have received their certificates. There were fourteen members in this graduating class which started August 9, 19019, under the direction of Mrs. A. F. Leermakers.
