MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, Pastor.

The recital given at the Mt. Moriah Baptist church Thursday was a grand success in every way. Mr. H. R. Ethridge, the Chicago tenor singer, has made a place for himself in the hearts of those who heard him. He will be here again on his return from Europe. Mrs. Silas Johnson accompanied him at the piano and did her part as she really can. Mrs. M. Duncan and Mrs. M. H. Wilkinson recited and pleased their hearers.

We shall be moving into our new church home at Twenty-fourth and Ohio streets by the first Sunday in May, and our revival meeting starts shortly after that date. Let us move up.

There is quite a deal of sickness among the members of the society. Mrs. Simmons, Father Cassilly, infant of Mrs. Simmons and three of the Pryor children are all on the sick list, but are improving.

The society gave a social and dance at the residence of Mr. John Murray, 2608 Blondo street, last Monday night. All who were there report a pleasant time.

Our dance, given in Frenzer hall was not the success we had hoped, but the inclement weather and "flu" were both against us. Watch for announcement immediately after Easter.

Mrs. Grant Strotter of Douglas, Wyo., is with us a few days, having come to attend the burial of her brother.

Recent visitors here were Mrs. B. G. Watson of Port Dodge, Mrs. E. Wilson of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mr. J. King of Chicago.

Miss Laura Askew, who has been ill was able to attend services last Sunday.

Sunday night, February 15, Presiding Elder, Rev. Thomas B. Stovall, delivered a lecture on "How Can a Busy Man Keep Abreast With the Times" to a large audience. The duet rendered by Mesdames Boyd and Wright was a pleasing feature.

The second quarterly conference was held Monday evening, February 16. All the departments of the church are in a healthy and prosperous condition.

Mr. Edward Askew is ill at his home, 216 West Sixth street.

Mrs. Anna May Askew's high soprano is missed in the Malone A. M. E. church.

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. Mary Knight at her home on West Sixth street Tuesday, February 17.

Mr. George Hicks, 1301 Hall avenue, has fully recovered from his operation.

The morning choir, under the leadership of Miss Nellie Adams Lewis, is rendering excellent music.

Mr. Major Moore, who has been seriously ill for more than two months past was agreeably reminded of the high esteem in which he is held as an old and highly respected loyal citizen, when on last Monday night, February 16, which was his birthday, a large number of friends from both the Baptist and A. M. E. churches, gathered at his residence, 2226 O street, and as a suitable reminder of the high esteem in which he is held presented him a purse of $20, besides a beautiful and delicious pink and white birthday cake decorated with candles. Mr. Moore was enthused with gratitude and thanked all for the kind remembrance. Mrs. Mamie Griffin was leader of the affair and Mrs. Pracilla Ross baked the cake.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA.

There is a great deal of sickness in the city and especially among the members of the A. M. E. church of which the Rev. Matthew R. Rhonenee is the faithful and efficient pastor. Despite this fact the evangelistic services which are being conducted by the Rev. S. C. Crutcher have been well attended.

The following pastors and their congregations will be present at the quarterly meeting Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the A. M. E. church: Rev. P. Jackson, Rev. W. C. Williams, Rev. J. A. Broadnax, Rev. T. B. Wall will preach Wednesday night the rest of the week.

The church aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Ellen Rodriguez, 730 North avenue, Friday afternoon, February 27.

Tabernacle Baptist church is taking a new life, as the pastor has outlined a vigorous campaign of work which all members are readily adopting. The following officers have been elected and installed as the pastor's cabinet: D. M. Nixon, Leroy Jordan, W. C. Carter, I. J. Caldwell, John Hemmitt, Albert Bowen's trustees; Mrs. G. Mannel, secretary; D. M. Nixon, treasurer; Mrs. Irene Kenner, assistant secretary; Albert Fields, I. J. Caldwell, D. M. Nixon, building committee; George Manuel, Nathan Turner, Mary Morton, Ella Henderson, Lucinda Wright Tillie Reese, Georgia Sublet, Irene Kenner, L. R. Hogan, Emma Turner and Fred Stone, finance committee.

Among those on the sick list are Mrs. Joe Reese and Mr. Hill, Mrs. Letha Honey and Miss Dovie Hall of Brookfield, Mo., who is visiting relatives.

Recent visitors here were Mrs. B. G. Watson of Port Dodge, Mrs. E. Wilson of Philadelphia, Pa., and Mr. J. King of Chicago.

Miss Effie Aycox, Schulenberg, is here at the bedside of her sick grandmother, Mrs. Lovie Simpson.

Miss Katherine Robinson, after spending several weeks visiting relatives and friends here, left last week to make her home in Los Angeles, Cal. Mr. Elcoe Cole and brother of Warrenton were in town last Saturday.

Prof. T. P. Poole, East Bernard, is at home again.

Mrs. C. L. Rhone sold $33.10 worth of her crop of sweet potatoes last week, and has more to sell.

Mrs. Leola Butler is in the city. Mrs. Luey Cockrill will go to Austin this week for medical attention at the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Metz Phillips are in Quana.

The following persons sent in subscriptions for The Monitor: Rev. R. D. Henderson and Dr. Hall Davis, La Grange.

Our sick: Mesdames McKenzie, Lovie Simpson, Polie Smith, Mattie Poole, Jennie Breeding, Clementine Riley, India Aycock and Mr. E. Barfield.

All the churches had good services Sunday.

Rev. A. W. Keath of this city and Rev. B. E. Simpson of Jacksonville made a trip to Houston last week on church business.

Mrs. L. M. Strain is very ill at this writing.

Rev. S. M. Bolden is recovering after a long spell of illness.

Mesdames Lulu Johnson, Laura Brown and Martha Crawford are on the sick list.

There was a group meeting of the M. E. churches of the Palestine district under the leadership of Rev. B. R. Booker as district superintendent. All the preachers responded, and the meetings were good.

Rev. W. A. C. Hughes and Rev. J. W. Haywood of New Orleans, La., were here and did much to make the meetings interesting.

The influenza epidemic is prevalent here.

Mr. A. G. Howard was in Jacksonville recently on business.

Mr. W. M. Gause has opened a furniture store here, and is doing well. We hope he will be successful. The Monitor agent wants all who are in arrears to pay up, so that he may feel free to leave the paper at your homes.

Rev. A. M. Mason, pastor of the M. E. church here and at Ellinger, held regular services at the latter place last Sunday.

Rev. R. S. Slaughter of the A. M. E. church preached at Bethlehem Sunday.

Rev. S. A. Tillman held very instructive services in all departments of Ebenezer Baptist church Sunday. Collection, $29.00.

Miss Effie Aycox, Schulenberg, is here at the bedside of her sick grandmother, Mrs. Lovie Simpson.
