PROF. KERLIN WRITES NEW BOOK

New York, N. Y., Feb. 25.—"Voice of the Negro," by Prof. Robert T. Kerlin, professor of English in the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va., is the name of a new book in the hands of the publishers. It will come from the press in a short time and will be unique in contents. The book is designed particularly to be circulated among the white people of the United States and is made up completely from newspaper stories, special newspaper contributions, editorials and cartoons from seventy or more race newspapers and magazines throughout the country. The selection covers the period beginning with the Washington riot, up to the close of the year 1919, and is complete in every detail. It is calculated to have a tremendous effect in creating a better understanding of the Negro's problem of adjustment.

FIRST POPULATION ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR 1920 ARE ISSUED

Washington, Feb. 25.—The first population announcements for the 1920 census were issued Saturday night by the census bureau and were as follows:

Cincinnati, 401,158; an increase of 37,567 or 10.3 per cent.

Washington, 437,414; an increase of 103,345 or 32.1 per cent over 1910.

Cincinnati ranked as thirteenth city of the country in 1910, with a population of 363,591. Washington ranked sixteenth with a population of 331,063. Census bureau estimates of Cincinnati's population July 1, 1917, were 414,248 and Washington's on that date 369,282.

From now on, as soon as the statistics gathered by the enumerators and special agents are assembled and certified, the date will be made public, the population of the larger cities of the country being given out first. Then will follow the population of the various counties, which number more than 2,900, together with the divisions of townships, precincts and towns, with the population of each incorporated city.

NEGROES ORGANIZE.

Dispatches carry the news that the Negroes of Chicago are on the point of forming co-operative societies for buying and selling.

This is good news. They will find, as white men have found, that there is no progress without organization.

Negro labor union men are reported as backing the movement, which is also good news.

Workers everywhere will find their liberty and security only in organization, and collective bargaining. We will go further and say that the workers will find their effective unity only when they recognize that their economic interests are one. Men will not come into their own until they accept industrial democracy.—W. Va. Federationist.

WOOD WON'T WITHDRAW IN STATE FOR PERSHING

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 25.—Major General Wood, with Mrs. Wood and members of his staff, arrived in Lincoln Monday for an all-day stay. During the day General Wood met members of the Wood-for-President club and delivered an address breathing vital Americanism. According to Frank P. Corrick, state manager of the Wood campaign, the name of the general will not be withdrawn from the Nebraska primary in deference to General Pershing.

JACK JOHNSON WILL TAKE HIS MEDICINE

Laredo, Tex., Feb. 25.—Jack Johnson, former heavyweight pugilistic champion, will leave Mexico City for the United States Thursday, going directly to Chicago, where he will surrender himself to federal authorities for execution of sentence for conviction of violation of the Mann law, according to an interview in Thursday's issue of the Heraldo De Mexico of Mexico City.

PHILIPPINE REPUBLICANS INDORSE GENERAL WOOD

Manilla, P. I., Feb. 25.—Major General Leonard Wood was indorsed as the republican candidate for president and a platform urging postponement of withdrawal of American sovereignty over the Philippines until the masses of Filipinos are capable of safely exercising the franchise, was adopted at the republican insular convention here last Sunday.

ITS SHAMEFUL RECORD.

The United States continues its shameful record of lynchings, burnings at the stake, breaking into prisons to seize those awaiting trial, that they may be murdered in cold blood. Nearly all these unhappy victims are Negroes, but American citizens as truly as truly as the proudest United States senator whose peace of mind only an occasional murder in Mexico can disturb.—Our Dumb Animals.

GO INTO REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE BUSINESS

Dan DesDunes and James A. Clarke, whose advertisement appears elsewhere in this issue, have gone into the real estate and insurance business. They have taken up a new line and with the energy and ability which they have always shown in anything they undertake there is no reason why they should not succeed. The Monitor has nothing but the sincerest wishes for success for them and all others who enter any legitimate line of business. Both gentlemen stand high and are well known in the city.

JACK JOHNSON'S PETITION.

Jack Johnson, the Negro pugilist, who has been for some time a refugee in Mexico, seems to have the notion of the bad boy who thinks that if he runs away and returns after a while saying he's sorry, the heart of his correctors will be softened a bit.

The district attorney at Chicago is, however, showing no disposition to compromise or negotiate with the fugitive from federal justice, and gives him the word "unconditionally" in response to certain terms desired by Jack for his return. The pugilist asks for immunity from arrest for thirty-six hours after stepping on United States soil to arrange for bail so that he will not need to go to jail while another attempt is made to secure his discharge in the courts. Jack is desperately anxious to get back to the United States. He needs the country in his business. He wants more fights, big money-making fights, and he found France, and has later found Mexico, hard to exploit in the fight line. He is ambitious to get clear back into the limelight of the arena by fighting Dempsey.

Jack Johnson is ignorant and conceited enough to believe that he should be shown some favors on surrendering to federal authority, but the moment he is within federal jurisdiction he should be arrested, as any other man under conviction and a bail-jumper would be, and thrown into jail, his case being taken up right from the point where it was interrupted by his flight.—World-Herald.

NEGRO GOVERNMENT IN U. S. A.

The Negro controls the south. The south controls the democratic party. The democratic nation still controls the nation. The nation is conducted with regard to the limitations of the Negro in the south.

Prohibition was adopted by the southern states because it is dangerous for the Negro to drink. If he drinks he becomes savage or may become savage. The south defended itself against the liquor traffic not because the southern adult did not want to drink, but because he could not allow the Negroes to drink.

Woman suffrage probably will be adopted, but it had to win against the south. The south is opposed to extension of suffrage because that involves the Negro vote, which is not cast, but which must always be suppressed. Extensions of suffrage are inimical to sections which must maintain restrictions of suffrage.

We probably will not get universal military training because the south is afraid to train and arm Negroes. Congressmen from the south say they will not put arms in the hands of blacks. If that is their reason for opposing universal training we have a whole system of national defense dependent upon the limitations of black people submerged below the citizenship line. We are not blaming the south. It is of no use to blame the south and it is probably unjust. The north, given the southern problems, might behave in the same fashion. But we are being ruled by Negroes to a very considerable extent and in very important matters.

The southern Negro governs by the limitations of his citizenship. His incapacity is an applied test of American legislation. If proposed legislation does not fit him it is opposed.

One nonvoting southern Negro has more influence upon the course of the United States in many essential particulars than ten voting northern citizens.

He is powerful in his powerlessness.—Chicago Tribune.

WONDERFUL ADVENTURES AND ENVIABLE ARMY RECORD OF OMAHA COLORED ELEVATOR MAN.

Once, in Arizona, Sergeant Bailey, with a detachment of soldiers, in command of Lt. J. B. McDonald, was in the mountains, when a shot came from behind a rock and wounded one of the men. Then came a voice in the Apache tongue: "I am Gar! Let any man come and take me who dares!" Lieutenant McDonald called for volunteers and Sergeant Bailey and Corporal Richard Miller stepped forward. The lieutenant ordered them up the hill. Gar's first bullet grazed the left side of Bailey's head, and his right arm was sticking from the edge of his rock for another shot, Bailey, an expert shot himself, fired and broke the outlaw's arm. Gar fled, and, in the dense underbrush and rocks, made good his escape.

"He was killed a few months later," said the sergeant-elevator operator. "He had sent word to an Apache girl to meet him at a certain water hole on a certain night. The girl feared for her life and betrayed him. Sixty men ambushed themselves at the hole. In the moonlight he made an easy shot. Many bullets pierced his body and that was the end of Gar."

Read Record to Regiment. On the occasion of Sergeant Bailey's final discharge, the colonel read to the whole assembled regiment the record of his services. Every one of his discharges bore the legend, "Character, excellent."

Among other things, the colonel stated that Sergeant Bailey was recommended for the certificate of merit by Lt. C. P. Johnson for his services in the campaign against Kid, a White Mountain Apache Indian in June, 1887. In 1888 he was with General Corbin, settling the Moqui Indian troubles at Keene's canyon, Arizona, and was on the expedition against the Ute Indians in Montana in 1908.

When the Apaches went on a rampage in Arizona he carried dispatches from Fort Thomas to Fort Apache, a distance of 130 miles, in 17 hours.

He qualified as an expert marksman for six years, expert rifleman three years and sharpshooter for five years.

He was a corporal, sergeant and first sergeant from November 1, 1887, to April 15, 1903, when he was appointed drum major. In 1908 he was appointed regimental sergeant quartermaster under which rank he was retired in 1909.

Sergeant Bailey was born in Parker county, Texas, September 9, 1860. When he retired from the army he selected Omaha as his home.

"I had visited Omaha at the time of the Trans-Mississippi exposition and other times and thought it was the best place I knew to live," he says.

He is married and lives at 2816 Pratt street, where he owns his home. He is prominent in the affairs of colored people. He is president of the Greater Omaha Republican club and the Round Table club.—Omaha Bee.

THE MONITOR'S PRESS DAY.

THE Monitor goes to press Wednesday of each week at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. To insure publication in the current week's issue news items and articles must reach our office by Tuesday night. One form, that is to say, one chase, the iron frame in which one page of the type is "locked up" to go on the press is held open for emergency advertisements, the copy for which cannot be obtained before Wednesday morning, until noon Wednesday. Now and then we can get late news on that page, but ordinarily not. Copy, therefore, that reaches our office Wednesday later than 10 o'clock in the morning stands a slim chance of getting in that week's issue. Frequently copy reaches us Wednesday afternoon or Thursday and some irate individual calls up to know "Why isn't my item in this week's issue?" Too late, dear friends, that's all. Get your news in on time.

That corns and bodily ease are incompatible is the most trite of truisms. That of the two bodily ease is the most to be desired, likewise needs no proving. Therefore, eliminate the corn. That you can do it by using needs only a single trial to demonstrate the fact to the most skeptical. Try it and you will be convinced, because the corn will be gone. Don't think that because various "Corn Cures" have not succeeded, CORNEASE will fail you also. If it does you get your money back. At druggists or by mail, 25 cents.

CORNEASE!

NILE QUEEN

Kashmir Chemical Co. Chicago, Ill. Spangfeld, Ill.

Gentlemen

Nile Queen preparations have done wonders for my hair and skin. I tried nearly every thing to clear my complexion of pimples, liver spots and blackheads without success, until I found Kashmir Nile Queen. Now my skin is so smooth and healthy as can be and my hair has grown so long and glossy my friends all admire it. I wish all our women would try Nile Queen!

Very truly yours
