

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH.

In spite of the snowstorm, which swept the city Saturday, and still held us within its icy grip early Sunday morning, a large crowd was present at 5:30 a. m. to hear the sermon by the pastor on "The Resurrection." This was followed by baptizing. Twenty-three candidates were buried in the liquid grove, and rose to walk with Him in the newness of life. Impressive, indeed, were the entire services.

They came as the climax to a four weeks' meeting, during which time men, women and children were led into the light of His word and accepted Christ as their personal savior.

At 11 o'clock came an old-time covenant meeting. Following the morning services came the Sunday school. The children deserve great praise for the way in which they performed their parts in the Easter exercises. Befitting songs and recitations carried out the spirit of the day.

The B. Y. P. U. came next in order. A special program in keeping with the day was also carried out here.

In the evening a short sermon by the pastor was followed by the administration of the Lord's supper.

All went away at night feeling that the day had been well spent in service for the Master.

The following strangers were pleasant visitors with us Sunday: Mr. Ed Wood, Jefferson City, Mo.; Mr. R. Hickey, Atchison, Kas.; Mr. Charles Reddick, Kansas; Rev. J. Davis, Muskogee, Okla.

Ere the departure from the city of Dr. G. L. Prince, who assisted Dr. Botts in the recent revival, Mother Howard entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner in his honor. Covers were laid for 6 and all went away voting Mother Howard a delightful hostess.

The Literary society will resume its meetings on Monday nights, the pastor's Bible class and teachers' meeting on Tuesday nights and all auxiliaries resume their regular routine of work once more, since the special effort for souls is ended. Regular services next Lord's day.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Following is the program for the Booker T. Washington birthday celebration, April 15, at Pilgrim Rest Baptist church, Twenty-sixth and Franklin streets:

Song—"Tuskegee," by Tuskegee Club, led by Mrs. Young.

"Booker T. Washington as a Churchman and as a Leader," by Rev. Wm. Franklin.

Song—"Oh! Rocks Don't Fall on Me."

"Booker T. Washington as a Citizen," by Mr. S. W. Mills.

Song—"Steal Away to Jesus."

DAN WESTERGARD.

Dan Westergard, who is well known and popular, has filed for clerk of the district court and is going after it good and hard. His friends confidently affirm that he is going to take this political plum from Robert Smith, who has long cherished it as a priceless possession. Who will win, Dan or Bob? Bob's friends shout "BOB," and Dan's friends yell "DAN."

ON HONOR ROLL AGAIN.

Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Gordon, who is a junior in the High School of Commerce, holds her place on the honor roll of that school, having been awarded four 1's and 1 2 plus. Commended High grades numerically, while Central grades alphabetically.

COMMUNITY SERVICE NOTES.

The Swastika Racquet club was organized on Friday evening of last week with Miss Raylee Middleton as president, Mr. Dillard Crawford secretary, Mrs. Brownlow treasurer, Miss Madeline Craddock reporter, Mr. Robert Williams instructor and Mr. John Smith business manager.

Plans are now being made to build a double tennis court which will be ready for use with the advent of favorable weather. Many young people have become members.

Among the new activities to be instituted in community service are courses in domestic science, home nursing and physical culture. These courses promise to be quite popular as many have expressed a desire to join.

Mr. G. W. Bullock, community organizer, has been joined by his family, who have been in St. Louis, Mo., for the winter. We rejoice with Mr. Bullock for the renewed inspiration which he has received.

An interesting program of song and story is planned for next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the center. Community singing will be led by Mr. Twitchell, national song leader. Everyone is cordially invited.

THE NEGRO WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Rev. W. M. Franklin, pastor of Pilgrim Rest Baptist church, with his congregation, will hold services at the Old Folks' home Sunday, April 11, at 2:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

We wish to thank the pastor, Rev. Deas, and congregation of Grove M. E. church for the collection last Sunday, $3.35.

Mrs. R. W. Freeman still continues ill.

The Easter envelopes the association put out for the benefit of the Old Folks' home are coming in quite fast. We hope to make a favorable report to the public. It has advertised the ohme quite extensively, as we have received offerings from all over the country. Mrs. Clarence Trent is very proud of receiving a check from Mrs. Malone of St. Louis. We hope every one holding envelopes will turn them over to the person whom they received them from or mail to the home by the last of the week.

The meetings at the home are very interesting and especially when new members are coming in right along. Mrs. S. H. Phillips joined last week.

FORMER OMAHA STAGES SUCCESSFUL PLAY

Kansas City, Mo., April 8.—A successful play, "Over the Frozen Trail," was staged here at the auditorium, March 29 and 30, under the management of G. Wade Obee, under the auspices of the American Woodmen. The play received most favorable comment.

Colored Commercial Club Bulletin

A committee from the club, consisting of H. J. Pinkett, James A. Clarke and Alfred Jones, called the Chamber of Commerce attention to headlines published in a recent issue of the Daily News alleging that a Negro had entered a young woman's bedroom at 3 o'clock in the morning, evidently with the intention of assault, whereas the facts were that it was a white man, who gave the name of Daly, who had been fined for disorderly conduct.

Next Sunday night at 8 o'clock a public meeting of the club will be held at St. John's A. M. E. church at which a program will be rendered and the aims and purposes of the club explained. Besides music addresses will be delivered by President Pryor and others.

Mr. Club Member, have you paid your quarterly dues? Overlooked it, eh? Didn't the secretary send you a notice?

DAUGHTER OF FORMER OMAHANS WINS PRIZE

(Special to The Monitor.) Sheridan, Wyo., April 7.—Mercedes Shute, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Shute, was awarded the first prize of $5.00 for the best essay on "Advantages of Enlistment." Mercedes is 12 years of age and in the eighth grade. Her mother, who was Miss Jean Wigginton of Omaha, is quite proud of her little daughter, who has been on the honor rolls ever since entering school. Her picture recently appeared in the army paper, "Line Back."

DAN DESDUNES WANTS INFORMATION

A stranger came to Desdunes and Clarke's real estate and insurance office, Room 203 Kaffir block, 817 North Sixteenth street, to see Mr. Clarke. "Are you any kin to Clarke," he was asked.

He answered: "Sisters and brothers I have none, but Clarke's father is my father's son."

Now what relation to Clarke was the stranger? The first boy and girl sending in a written explanation to this question will receive checks for $2.00. Write name and address plainly, phone number, if you have one. For further information phone Tyler 1035.

Are you wearing a CCC button yet? Why not?

For Commercial club news read this bulletin each week.

The Commercial club meets every Thursday night at 8:30 at the Community center.

The public meeting of the club last Thursday night brought out a fair attendance. President Pryor presided. Many valuable suggestions were made by those present. All members are requested to attend these meetings. Come out.
