CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL BOYS MAKE FINE RECORD

Two race lads attending Central High school have just made another fine record. James Lewis, senior, and Worthington Williams, freshman, were the only colored lads to try out for the class debating teams in the recent class debating contest held at Central High. Both lads won first place on their respective class teams. The young men who are members of the Douglas Debating society, say that nothing helped them to win so much as did the experience gained in the Douglas Debating society.

Go to it, boys! Keep up the good work.
