

FIRST BUSINESS MANAGER OF MONITOR IN THE CITY

Joseph LaCour who has been absent from Omaha for the past two years studying at Howard and Columbia universities, and working for the last few months at Richmond, Va., returned home Tuesday morning much to the delight of his parents and friends. Mr. LaCour, it will be recalled, was the first business manager of The Monitor. He was then a student in the Omaha High school. Upon his graduation he entered the Nebraska State university at Lincoln, and at the outbreak of the war was enrolled as a member of student officers' training camp. The officer in charge took the position that a colored student could not train there, although a regularly enrolled student of the university. The chancellor of the university went on record as stating that this was in direct conflict with the policy of the university which admitted all qualified students to its halls and cadet corps, of which privileges colored students had availed themselves without the slightest friction or embarrassment. Mr. LaCour was then sent to Howard university. His case was taken up with the War department, which ruled that students could and should be trained at the institutions where they were enrolled. Mr. LaCour could have returned to his state university, but inasmuch as his case had already caused him much loss of time, and returning to Nebraska would result in further delay, he decided to remain at Howard.

ALLEN CHAPEL RALLY CONTINUES

Allen chapel A. M. E. church rally Sunday did not come up to our expectations as the weather has not been in our favor for five or six Sundays. However, we raised $500 and therefore the rally is yet on. Mrs.

Tennie Gilmore, Mrs. M. Carter, Mrs. S. Severe, and Messrs. W. Alston, L. Pegram and G. W. Tucker were the main captains. We thank the Rev. Oliver for the great sermon and his people for their treat donations; also the Rev. J. D. Crum for the message he brought us at 11 a. m. The rally will not end until May 30. The Rev. Mrs. Blake, woman evangelist, is firing up the camp at Allen this week and will continue until May 30. Come out. J. B. BROADNAX, Pastor.

COMMERCIAL CLUB BULLETIN.

When you see the nifty button monogrammed CCC on a man's lapel, it tells you that he is a wide-awake and progressive member of the Colored Commercial Club. Mr. Business Man, expect a visit soon from the Club's "Trade Excursionists." The Executive Committee held an interesting meeting last Thursday night with President Pryor presiding. Important business was transacted. Dan Desdunes, chairman of the municipal affairs committee, desires to call the school children's attention to the fact that they can win a prize by cleaning up the tin cans in their alley. Particulars later. Club meets every Thursday night. OCAWASIN CAMP FIRE NOTES. A short, but interesting business meeting was held last Friday afternoon at the residence of Bertha Lewis, 415 Decatur street.

LEGAL NOTICE. Notice to Non-Resident Defendant. To William Patrick, Non-Resident Defendant.

Notice is hereby given that on the 15th day of February, 1920 Anna Patrick, as plaintiff, filed her petition in the District Court of Douglas County, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which is to obtain an absolute decree of divorce from you on the grounds that you have wantonly, grossly and cruelly abandoned the plaintiff and for more than two years last past. You are further notified that on the 19th day of May, 1920, leave was given to secure service upon you by publication. You are required to answer this petition on or before the 5th day of July, 1920. ANNA PATRICK, Plaintiff.

WHITSUNDAY SERVICES AT ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH

Sunday is Whitsunday or Pentecost, a high festival of the Church. There will be special services at St. Philip's at 7:30 and 11 a. m., to which the public is invited. In the afternoon at 3 this congregation will join with all the other Episcopal churches of the city at a great public missionary meeting in the Brandeis Theatre, at which addresses will be delivered by two of the most eloquent bishops of the Episcopal Church. Bishop Morrison of Iowa will speak on "The World for Christ," and Bishop Woodcock of Kentucky on "Christ For the World." Bishop Shaylor will preside. The singing will be led by the united choirs of the city. This great meeting will be the closing service of the annual council of the diocese of Nebraska, which opens in Trinity Cathedral Friday morning at 10 o'clock and will continue through Saturday with conferences on various phases of church work by well-known experts in their respective lines. All sessions of the council are open to the public.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank the Society of St. Benedict, Miss Wetzel, teacher of Howard Kennedy school, and the many other friends for their floral offerings, and many kindnesses to us during the illness of our beloved son, grandson and relative. MRS. E. DAVIS TODD, Mother. MRS. YANCEY, Grandmother. MR. AND MRS. E. BROWN YANCEY FAMILY.

Yancey Family Again Bereaved.

Within less time than two months the grim reaper has again visited the Yancey family. This time Paul Davis, 14-year-old son of Mrs. E. Davis-Todd was the victim. Paul was from St. Benedict's school of Milwaukee, Wis., and was altar boy for St. Benedict's church of this city.

Rev. Francis Cassilly, S. J. said mass for Paul last Saturday morning at 9:00 a. m. at Sacred Heart church. Interment was in Holy Sepulcher cemetery. Several friends of Paul attended the mass.

Why not learn the Poro System? I teach hair culture, face massaging, manneuring, singeing and hair waving. Terms reasonable. Webster. 5450. Mrs. Anna Evans Jones. 1516 North Twenty-fourth street—Adv.
