OMAHA, NEBRASKA

All kinds of theories have been advanced as to the reason underlying the unrest and riots that have prevailed and are prevailing in this country. Some say that housing conditions are to blame; others, industrial conditions.

But after giving these reasons careful consideration I have come to the conclusion that a great deal of this kind of reasoning is unsound and that this condition has been brought about entirely by a mental state and can only be remedied by increasing racial consciousness by a development of greater racial appreciation in the group of which we are a part.

A careful study of the history and achievements and the literature of our people should be encouraged. Pictures and works of art by and for our people should adorn our walls.

This is my reason for engaging in art business distributing calendars, pictures, post cards and bronze statuettes.

Among our religious pictures can be found:

Jesus Died for Both, Heavenward, True Son of Freedom, Star of Victory, Our Colored Heroes, The Colored Man no Slacker, The Eighth Regiment's Welcome Home, True Blue, O'ward, Emancipation Proclamation, Clinging to the Cross, Inspiration, The Little Shepherd, Mother's Joy, Protecting Angel, Good Luck, Booker T. Washington, Mamma, I Love You, Beacon Light.

Holiday Post Cards, Frederick Douglas and Booker T. Washington, Paul Laurence Dunbar and Bishop Allen, in bronze.

These pictures, 16x20, can be had for 35 cents each. In paper mache frames, ready to hang on the wall, 60 cents each.

Bronze figures at $3.00 each or $5.00 a pair.

Special price to agents. No samples. Send today for information. These pictures are beautifully portrayed and sell at sight.

Funeral services for Victor Williams who was drowned at Carter Lake Monday, June 7th, were held at Jones & Reed's chapel Wednesday afternoon, the Rev. Charles E. Brown, rector of St. Martin's, South Omaha, officiating in the absence of Fr. Williams. Representatives of the Boy Scouts' Executive Council were present and paid a tribute to his memory. The body was taken to Buncheon, Mo., by his brother for burial.

The following letter has been received from Scout Headquarters.

Omaha, Neb., June 10, 1920.

Scout Master A. T. Reed, Troop Committee and Scouts' Troop 23.

Dear Fellow Scouts:

The Executive Board of the Omaha Local Council, Boy Scouts of America, desires you to know that we join you in sympathy for the friends and relatives of our deceased Assistant Scout Master, Victor Williams. While we realize that Troop 23 has received a severe blow through Mr. Williams' death, it is our hope that all of you will continue to be faithful to your Scout Oath and Laws and to do everything which will make your Troop so successful that it will be a living monument to the memory of our departed friend.

Sincerely yours,

WALTER D. HEAD,

President Omaha Local Council Boy Scouts of America.

GUY M. HOYT, Scout Executive.
