

SPORTING NOTES

The Swastika Raquet club, an athletic club of this city, is developing rapidly into championship material. In fact they have already such rubber-hollow-pill chasers, and "cutters" as Brown, Williams, Bentley and "Kid Randall; Misses Roberts, Johnson, Middleton and McCaw. What these cannot do with a tennis raquet, can't be done.

The Swastika club was organized in April of this year. It had 30 members to begin with. This number has increased to 50.

The club owns its lawn located at 28th avenue and Miama street. The court is well equipped and kept. The club is in constant use of the lawn and challenges any and all comers for games. Miss Rae Lee Middleton was the club's first and only president. She has been traveling in the interest of the Kaffir Chemical Laboratories, traversing many southern states.

Visit the Swastika tennis lawn at Miami street and 28th avenue.
