YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION INAUGURATES CAMPAIGN

Mass Meeting to Be Held Sunday Afternoon in Interest of Colored Center — Entire Budget Totals $70,000—$9,000 for Colored Branch

The Young Women's Christian association is arranging for a mass meeting in the interests of the colored center, Twenty-second and Grant streets Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at Grove M. E. church. Under the leadership of Miss Mae C. Hawes, a worker from the national headquarters of the Y. W. C. A., New York City, the colored people of the city are being organized to participate in the budget campaign of the Y. W. C. A. for $70,000, scheduled for November 9. At Sunday's meeting there will be no solicitation of funds nor a collection taken, as this meeting has merely been arranged in order that the public may become better informed regarding the work the Y. W. C. A. is doing for the women and girls of the city.

The speakers at Sunday's meeting will include Miss Hawes, who will speak on the work of the Y. W. C. A.; Mrs. Esther M. Copper, a candidate for the legislature, and Robert Smith, clerk of the district court. Mrs. J. Alice Stewart will be the presiding chairman.

The Y. W. C. A. has purchased a bungalow at Twenty-second and Grant streets for use as a recreation center the formal opening of which will take place as soon as alterations have been completed and the furnishings installed.

The campaign is for $70,000, which amount is in excess of any single amount before asked for by the association. When asked why the association had increased its budget for 1921 Mrs. Gilmore pointed out that the association has suffered financially owing to increased prices and therefore are obliged to meet a budget deficit. The difference between the association's income and its required budget for 1921 is $42,000. There are bills to be met for current running expenses totaling $4,000. The equipment at Camp Brewster cost the association $8,000, and the equipment for the boarding residence opening in January, 1919, $1,000. The sum of $6,000 is needed to meet the deficit for current running expenses for the residence. The association must raise $8,800 to cover the cost of the property and equipment of the same to house the colored center.

Mrs. Gilmore's associates on the campaign executive committee are: Mrs. W. E. Rhodes, special gifts; Mrs. Edward Johnson, lists; Mrs. Frank Judson, women's teams; Mrs. Henry Wyman, publicity; Mrs. T. W. Carmichael, speakers and meetings.

The Y. W. C. A. has done a creditable piece of work during the past year, showing an increase over that of two years previous. One of the most notable increases is in the cafeteria, where during the past eight months 347,815 meals have been served, while but 204,259 meals were served during the entire year of 1918. Owing to the increase in equipment the summer camp, Camp Brewster, has accommodations for 250 girls this summer, and during the summer had a registration of 2,843 young women and girls. Many of this number spent the entire summer at the camp, while others went to the camp for weekends.

The board of directors of the association is most gratified with the work of the employment department, since it was reorganized in April, 1920, with two fulltime workers. This department has made the following placements since April: Business, 240; home, 156; workers in hospitals, hotels, institutions, restaurants and the like, 120, making a total of 517 placements. The work of this department is free to both employer and employee.

Under the direction of the industrial extension department, regular work is being planned weekly at Bemis Bag Co., Swift and Co., Cudahy, Armour and Morris Packing companies.

Mrs. Carrie Ada Campbell, general secretary, reports an enrollment of 700 girls in the girls' work department, an increase of more than 100 over 1918. For the fall 1920 the educational classes have an enrollment of 320 girls.

A recreation leader has been engaged and is assisting with club work at South Side recreation center and in the girls' work and industrial departments.

UNIQUE ASSOCIATION TO MEET AT CAPITOL

The Association For the Study of Negro Life and History Will Assemble Scholars of Race for Serious and Important Work.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 14.—On the 18th and 19th of November the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History will hold its annual meeting here. This will be a convocation of teachers throughout the United States now giving attention to research and instruction in this field. The management of the Association is endeavoring to make this meeting one of the most representative ever assembled.

The purpose of this organization is to collect sociological and historical documents, to publish books on Negro life and history, to promote studies in this field through clubs and schools and finally to bring more harmony between the races by interpreting the one to the other.

The reports of the work accomplished by the Association during the past year will be made, further plans for the more successful prosecution of the work will be devised, and a number of instructive addresses will be delivered by the most distinguished men of the country.

Among the speakers will be A. B. Hart, professor of History at Harvard University; Franz Boas, professor of Ethnology, Columbia University; L. Hollingsworth Wood, president of the Urban League; Oswald Garrison Villard, editor of the Nation, and Col. Robert T. Kerlin of the Virginia Military Institute. These addresses will cover every phase of Negro life and history.

During the past year the Association has succeeded in extending the circulation of the Journal of Negro History, stimulated research in this long neglected field and published a number of informing works of a serious scientific nature. How this movement may be more successfully promoted so as to direct attention to this large group of population in this country and abroad will be one of the important questions before the association.

The association was organized in Chicago, September 9, 1915, incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia, October 4, 1915, brought out the Journal of Negro History January 1, 1915 and since that time has extended its circulation into all parts of the world. The important results have been to direct the attention of investigators to the study of the Negro and to secure for the race a hearing in circles sometimes considered quite exclusive.

The movement needs a decided increase in revenue to extend the work by employing trained investigators and adequate funds for publishing the results of their researches. To this end the co-operation of all is earnestly solicited. Persons not in a position to make large contributions can support the movement to the extent of an active membership fee of $3 a year or can give a subscription to the Journal of Negro History, which is only $2 a year.

WOMEN PROTEST DISFRANCHISEMENT

(By Associated Negro Press)
COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 21.—The appeal of thirty-two Negro women from the decision of the Richland county board of registration was dismissed when brought before Judge Marcellus S. Whaley of the Richland county court on the ground his court was without jurisdiction in the matter.

This case, which has attracted considerable attention, grew out of the attempt of a large number of Negro women to enter their names on the registration books.

They held that when they applied to register the board required them to read, not the constitution, but sections of the civil and criminal code of South Carolina. They were asked to explain the sections read. When they declined to do so the board refused to allow them to register.

WOULD WISELY USE $1,000,000

(By Associated Negro Press)
CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 21.—The Cleveland Press, a white daily, has been interviewing well known and prominent white citizens, asking the question, "What would you do with a million dollars if you suddenly became possessed of that amount?" So far, only one colored person has been interviewed, that one being Jane Hunter, founder and head of the most successful home for self-supporting colored girls in the country. Her answer was: "I would expend it all building schools and educating colored young people."

SIoux CITYAN HAS UNIQUE BUSINESS

Enterprising Man Raises Guinea Pigs Which He Sells Largely to Medical Profession Throughout Country

(Special to The Monitor)
SIoux CITY, Ia., Oct. 28.—This city boasts of a colored man who is in a unique business for one of his race. Mr. Allie Williams, residing at 317 North Fourteenth street, raises guinea pigs for the medical profession. He now has thirty-five pigs and is adding to his herd. He receives orders from coast to coast and from the gulf to the straits. He is the son of C. F. Williams, the carpet and rug manufacturer of this city.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE

For County Commissioner

Mr. Stroud has made a wonderful success of his own business, that of making road working machines. He will apply economic business methods to the county.

He is an experienced road builder, and will put all the county's roads in fine condition.

To COLORED VOTERS:

Mr. Stroud, in asking the support of colored voters, begs permission to remind the colored voters that following the TORNADO of March 23, 1913, he closed his factory, and took his entire force to the Twenty-fourth and Lake district where he aided in relief work.

Immediately following the storm, Mr. Stroud's men began the work of removing bodies of colored men that were trapped in a pool room.
