An animated discussion concerning the policy of daily newspapers to stress race rather than crime ensued. J. R. Lemma, chairman of the publicity committee, was appointed to take up the matter with local editors. The branch will meet next Sunday at Grove M. E. church.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The rain interfered with the egg hunt which was to have been given at the Y. W. C. A. center on Saturday, March 26, and the young people were very much disappointed. However, they assembled, and received the beautiful Easter eggs prepared for them.

The Entre Nous group of Girl Reserves with Miss Florence Jones corps scout, made dainty Easter baskets which they filled with eggs. They prepared a special basket for the Old Folks' Home and a group of girls carried it out to the home Saturday, with Easter greetings.

The Blue Triangle group of Girl Reserves held their initiation service Wednesday, March 23. They were afterwards entertained by the Blue Circle club of young men under the leadership of Mr. McClellan.

The young men are doing excellent work along literary lines and Mr. McClellan is to be commended for his earnest endeavor and patience in guiding the minds of the youths and creating an appreciation for higher ideals.

A music club was organized Wednesday, March 23, under the direction of Mrs. Florentine Pinkston for the study of the masters and their compositions and to create a higher appreciation of music as an art. Mrs. Elizabeth Allen was elected president.

The ladies of Omaha were given a rare treat Monday, March 28, by Mrs. Pauline Lynch, who presented Mrs. Zimmerman in an economic demonstration of the use of Mazola oil. Mrs. Lynch served a delicious luncheon of salad, cake and tea. The demonstration was very interesting and much enjoyed by all who attended. Many orders were taken for Mazola oil, the bonus to be given to the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. Lynch will have a demonstration in economics Monday, April 4, at 2:30 p. m. All ladies interested are invited to come to the center.

Vesper services Sunday, April 3, from 4 to 5 p. m. An interesting program will be given by the young people. All are invited.

WILLIAM MONROE TROTTER

ADDRESSES LARGE AUDIENCE IN SOUTH OMAHA
The Hon. William Monroe Trotter of Boston addressed a large audience at Bethel A. M. E. chapel, South Omaha, Neb., last Tuesday evening. He spoke of the necessity of colored people demanding their civil rights and of the enforcement of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth amendments of the articles of the Constitution. He also told of the bad conditions that exist in the contract convict camps in Georgia, where chattel slavery is carried on to a great extent, and urged that this matter be brought before the department of justice.

Mr. Trotter left Omaha for Lincoln, where he made an address at the Allen Chapel A. M. E. church Wednesday evening, March 30.

JUDGE JULIUS S. COOLEY

FOR COMMISSIONER
Julius S. Cooley, "Judge" Cooley as all call him, celebrates today his fifty-eighth birthday anniversary, and is hale and hearty.
