Mr. J. H. Johnson entertained a party of seven in honor of his "21st" birthday. The Center was beautifully decorated in May flowers and oriental vases. A beautiful curly headed brown skin doll seated in a chair formed the center piece for the table, which was artistically decorated in fruits. The color scheme was pink and green.

Veal services at the "Y" Sunday, May 29, from 4 until 5 P. M. A dinner will be served from 1 to 6 P. M. at the "Y." Come and enjoy yourself.

The Garden Club has many flowers decorated the boxes with beautiful flowers, which adds to the beauty of the Center.

(Continued from Page One.) will awaken will be a feeling of mirth. It is hard for some people to understand how such silly measures have their conception—but the explanation is simple enough. The introduction of this bill will put Mr. Caraway solid with a certain ignorant and bigoted element of his constituency, away down the muddy roads of Arkansas, and will bring him many votes which may insure his tenure in office, and so keep his name on poor Uncle Sam's pay roll. We say "poor Uncle Sam" advisedly, because our good Uncle tries so hard and spends so much money in his efforts to provide legislators who are supposed to give the country wise and practical laws, and Oh, how he is imposed upon sometimes.

Read the above bill again and you will see that it is just a joke and not such a good one at that. We could have coached Mr. Caraway and made it much more laughable. The bill as it stands, provides for times of peace and contains three sections. It ought to contain one more section to cover war times, and the added section should provide that all members of the white race be discharged from service and none but Negroes be admitted to the Army and Navy of the United States during war times, which would ship all the Negroes to the front and kill them off by the millions. In the minds of some Members of Congress, what an ideal dream! Why did he not include this provision in his bill? While he was making a joke, why didn't he make a good one? As we have said before, it is a short bill and its life will be even shorter.
