MAMIE SMITH AND HER "JAZZ HOUNDS" MAKING MANY NEW RECORDS

Mamie Smith, one of the most popular colored artists of the age, has for some years been appearing on the Vaudeville Stage with her Jazz Hounds. The first phonograph record she made for the Okeh Record was "That Thing Called Love" and "You Can't Keep a Good Man Down." The record was a big hit and was followed by her "Crazy Blues" and "It's Right Here For You" This record was a tremendous success and had by far the largest sale of any colored record ever made. Since then she has made a number of records, the latest being "Dangerous Blues" and "What Have I Done". Mamie Smith is an exclusive Okeh Artist and has recently traveled all over the United States appearing in concerts with her own company of colored artists.

The General Phonograph Corp., the makers of Okeh Records, are regularly releasing records made especially for the colored race and issuing a special monthly supplement for the colored people. They feature as well as Mamie Smith, colored artists such as Gertrude Saunders who plays the lead in the latest colored production "Shuffle Along". Daisy Martin one of the most popular singers on the Vaudeville Stage and known as leading lady of the "Smart Set". Miss Martin as well as Miss Saunders are both exclusive Okeh Artists.

In this special supplement you will also find records made by Tim Bryman and his Black Devil Orchestra playing some of the most popular blues. Ray Miller and his Black and White Melody Boys, The Southland Jubilee Singers and last but not least the Norfolk Jazz Quartette. This group of singers improvised all their own groaning, moaning Blues songs. They have made the following popular Okeh Records: "Jelly Roll Blues" and "Southern Jack" "Monday Morning Blues" and "Standing On The Corner".

APPEAL

Tulsa's Colored People have not the earnest attention of the nation, because the associated press reports do not state in a manner, that will stimulate a desire to give relief, the cruel conditions that have and do exist. Official Tulsa and therefore Tulsa at large is NOT helping in proportion to the appalling need. People are without stoves, cooking utensils, quilts and bedding of all kinds—the merest necessities of existence—and ready money.

ALL THEY HAVE LEFT IS COURAGE TO FACE THE FUTURE.

Mr. James L. Fieser, Southwestern Division Manager of the Red Cross said: "Winter's approach worries the Red Cross." Unless Tulsa wishes to have a tent colony on its hands in the fall and face a more serious problem, it should speed up its reconstruction program. He sees a big job ahead here for Tulsans and that now the financial end of the undertaking is the most important feature. MONEY IS NEEDED FOR RELIEF AND NEEDED BADLY.
