Events and Persons

Henry W. Williams was detained at home last week by illness.

Doyle A. Dunhill, who has been having serious trouble with his eyes, is steadily improving.

W. H. (Bob) Robinson spent Tuesday in Lincoln on business.

Mrs. T. S. Phillips, who has been quite ill, has recovered and is able to be out again.

Rev. John Albert Williams is attending the convocation of the Episcopal Church at Beatrice this week and is one of the speakers on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gibson have returned from their wedding trip and are at home at 2619 North Twenty-eighth avenue.

Attorneys C. C. Galloway, of Kansas City, Mo., and W. A. Sanger of Oklahoma, were in Omaha this week on legal business.

Why go to the expense of preparing your Sunday dinner when you can get it at South and Thompson's for only 40 cents?

Mrs. Effie L. Dudley of 2524 North 25th St., who has been visiting with relatives and friends in Chicago, Toledo and Davenport, Iowa, has returned home, and reports having had a delightful trip.

Mrs. Estella Perry entertained Saturday afternoon, complimentary to her daughter Joy Sarah's fifth birthday, and her two sons, Nathaniel and William, who will enter the Catholic school. Forty-five guests were present.

LINCOLN, NEB.

Alonzo, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Wilfred, died at their home, 242 North 10th Street last Saturday. He was buried Monday.

Mrs. Hattie Holiday went to her home in Missouri, where she will look after some business, after which she will return to Lincoln. Mrs. Holiday cares for Rev. H. W. Botts' children.

Mrs. Beach was accompanied home by her sister, Mrs. J. A. Patrick, who after several weeks' stay in Chicago, Mo., returned home last week.

Mrs. Maggie Williams returned to Kansas City, Kans., last Friday after a few days' stay in the city.

MT. ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

There were several nights of entertainment at Mt. Zion Baptist Church last week, which ended with a rally on Sunday and the celebration of the pastor's first anniversary as pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist Church. The services were nicely carried out. The pastor preached morning and night. Rev. J. P. Staves of Morning Star Baptist Church preached in the afternoon. Rev. Staves was accompanied by a number of his members, who gave Mt. Zion quite a lift. There were large and enthusiastic congregations at the evening services. Mr. J. E. Jeltz sang a solo. The money during the rally was $117.70.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Granger were managers of a musical given at Mt. Zion last Tuesday night. The musical was quite a success.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown of Omaha, while in the city last week, gave one of their famous entertainments, which was highly enjoyed by the audience present.

Rev. I. B. Smith preached morning and night at the A. M. E. church. A fair audience was in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brown left for their home in Omaha last Saturday.

Mrs. W. M. Clark left Sunday for her home in Wichita, Kans., after a visit with her son, W. R. Clark of this city.

Mrs. R. Granger is now confined with illness.

QUIET WEDDING WRIGHT-REID

Mrs. Lizzie Reid and Mr. John L. Wright were quietly married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. G. Smith, Sunday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. Rev. I. B. Smith, the brother-in-law of the bride, officiated. Only members of the family were present. Mr. and Mrs. Wright eluded their friends, boarded the train, and spent a few hours in Fairbury as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Wilkinson, who entertained them royally. Mr. and Mrs. Wright returned home at twelve o'clock Sunday night.

Rev. Mr. Simmons left for Omaha Tuesday after some stay in that city.

Rev. J. P. Staves and his congregation are making strides in raising money to build a school.

The A. M. E. Church members are still anxiously awaiting the appearance of the pastor.

ADVERTISING ENTERPRISE GIVES CASH PRIZES

"THE REMINDER" should be in every home because of the ready information which it contains. It is therefore essential to the home as a ready reference. That you frequently meet with statements to the effect that advertisements of all description can be found in the newspapers, telephone directory and other advertising mediums, this company has no doubt. But opposition to any article for sale makes that article better. It is far from our intention to even try to "buck" the newspapers or any other reading or advertising agency. It is rather our desire to put forth a form of advertisement that will be sufficiently showy and snappy to attract the public and consequently bring results to the advertiser. With this end in view we respectfully solicit your advertising. The success which this Reminder brings to you by your aid is also success for the Reminder itself.

We are offering four prizes below, which will continue for the next thirty days. 10% from the proceeds of the first $1000.00 will be given to the Y. W. C. A.

Those selling over 50 votes $20.00 in cash; 40 votes, $15.00; 30 votes, $10.00; anyone who wishes to join. Call at our office 817 N. 16th St., Tel. Doug. 7841.

Those who sell less than the above numbers of votes will receive a fountain pencil. Fifty men and women are wanted to sell the "Classified Reminder" of Omaha and greater Omaha. Quick sellers apply at the office, between 9 and 10 A. M. and asked for Mr. Brown. Do not delay. Success awaits you in this new product. Do not overlook this opportunity to help the Y. W. C. A.
