We hope that the persons receiving the Monitor and reading it will not be so ungrateful as to refuse to consider the financial end of it. It costs money to run it, the same as other publications. I have met a host of race pride people who have paid and who have given THE MONITOR a boost, while others flatly refuse to consider it, and say, "I did not order it; there is nothing in it," when the correspondent here is trying his level best to serve the people. I say again, give me your local news on time. Ads are to be paid for. I no doubt overlook some of the news that is given me, but that is not my intention. Give THE MONITOR a chance as you do other papers.

Shops for Shoppers

Indian Summer will not last all winter. Better put in your winter coal now. Cold weather is coming. Call the Consumers' Coal and Supply Co., Doug. 0530 and let them fill your coal bin.

For high-class pure drugs, toilet articles, cigars, and candies and Harding's Ice Cream go to Reid-Duffy Pharmacy, 24th and Lake Sts.

Tuchman Bros., 24th and Lake Sts. will fill your bread basket without emptying your pocket book. That is the tender spot. They exchange big profits for big volume. This is good business.

We've got to have shoes for ourselves and school children. For the best leather built shoes and best prices, go to the Family Shoe store.

For genuine hardware, paints, glass furniture and home furnishings go to Dolgoff's Furniture and Hardware Stores. They cover part of two blocks.

Music in the air. Why not put it in every home while it can be done for a song? Schmoller and Mueller Piano Co., 16th and Dodge Sts. can sell you any kind of instrument from a mouth harp up to a pipe organ and at any price or terms you may wish.

It's time to select that Christmas present for your wife or best friend. Nothing pleases the ladies better than jewelry. Larsen's Jewelry Store 204 1-2 N. 16th St., has a full line of articles especially suited to presents. You can buy on time.

Every proud man appreciates a good fitting garment. He'll patronize a place where he can get a good fit. Well the Glasgow Tailors 310 S. 15th St., guarantee this very thing. They will do it too, for prices from $22.50 up to $50.00.

For that nifty shirt and dressy hat at the best prices in town, go to the Washington Shirt and Hat Co., 302 N. 16th St. in the Securities Bldg. Their goods and prices can't be beaten.

The Barber business is a science. Not everybody who professes to know it or who follows it can satisfy. P. M. Harris has learned this and set about to perfect the trade. He has acquired the services of an expert workman in the person of F. D. Houston. If they don't please, they don't want your money. P. M. H. Barber Shop, 4911 S. 26th St.

Petersen-Michaelson Hardware Store is easily one of the largest and best equipped stores of its kind in Omaha. Their prices are right and their goods sustain their reputation.

The Q St. Pharmacy is the best equipped Drug Store on South Side. Drugs and prescriptions, candies, tobacco products—refreshments are their specialty. They have music too. Its the one live spot on West Q St.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON

The usual services were held last Sunday with good congregations present. In the afternoon at 4 o'clock, John Andrew, infant son of Dr. and Mrs. John Andrew Singleton was baptized, the sponsors being Dillard Simpson and Mrs. Bessie McDaniels. This is the third generation of the Singleton family to be baptized by Father Williams who baptized the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Singleton, their children and five of their grandchildren. This is a unique experience for any pastor.

The services next Sunday will be at the usual hours, 7:30, 10 and 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. At the 11 o'clock service Dr. L. E. Britt will deliver a brief address on the fight on cancer which the medical profession is waging against this malady.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

ONLY by good service and tasteful surroundings in any business can we hope to attract and satisfy the customer. NO ONE appreciates this fact more fully than I. Neither can we hope to bring about this result without proper equipment and experienced workmanship. I have spent both money and years providing all these things, until now I have a shop that is not excelled by any and equaled by few. My business is equipped with every convenience a modern barber shop could have. The latest electrical appliances for hair cutting, shaving, massaging, shampooing and scalp treatment will be found here. I carry for use or sale every toilet article in the barber line including Bonicilla Facial Cream.

I desire to announce that I have recently acquired the capable services of Mr. F. D. Houston the well known and highly esteemed Tonsorial Artist who is now with my staff. He needs no introduction. He is capable, clean, and efficient and gratefully solicits your patronage. One visit will convince you.
