Events and Persons

Mr. J. H. Kendrick of 1807 N. 23rd St., brother of Mrs. Mary Byers, 1154 N. 20th St., is now confined in St. Joseph's Hospital with severe throat trouble.

Mr. Wilbur Morris has just returned from a long hunting trip, bringing back much game.

The holy banns of matrimony were announced for the first time Sunday morning for Miss Ruth Johnson, the organist, and Mr. Clyde Johnson, the leading tenor of the choir of St. Benedict Roman Catholic Church, wedding date to be announced later.

Captain James Greer of the fire department, who has been detained at home for several days owing to a severe case of throat trouble is able to report for duty again.

Mrs. L. Wells, 2504 Blondo St., had as her dinner guests, Thursday afternoon Dr. S. A. Mosley and wife of St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. E. L. Dudley, of Omaha.

Miss Stringer of St. Louis, Mo., Miss Correda Tucker, Frank Tucker and Roosevelt Upchurch motored to Platte, Nebr., on a hunting trip. They were able to furnish meat for the evening meal.

The Rev. Thomas A. Taggart left Tuesday to carry on a revival in Des Moines, Ia.

Mrs. Luckett, 2881 Miami St., entertained at a Halloween frolic Monday night. The ghostly guests had a very spooky-ooky time.

The Rev. Mr. Rogers, former field secretary of the Western Convention spoke at Bethel Baptist Church Sunday at the morning and evening services.

Miss Thomas of Arkansas is the guest of Miss Lydia Owens, 23rd and U Sts.

T. S. Phillips has been detained at home by sickness this week.

The Rev. G. A. Conway and wife, who attended the Baptist convention here last week, left Monday night for their home in Platte City, Mo.

Florence Jones entertained the younger set at Hill Crest last Thursday night at a Halloween dancing party. A large number of High School lads and lasses were on hand and enjoyed themselves only as young folks can. With Jimmie Jewell at the piano and Worthington Williams at the violin, the youngsters avow they had a whole orchestra.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the church of St. Philip the Deacon gave a Halloween party last Thursday night at the residence of Mrs. C. H. Hec. 2530 Maple street, under management of the hostess and Mesdames E. Britt and Oliver Willis. A delightful evening was spent.

Have you paid your subscription to The Monitor yet. A large sum of money is due from this source and Monitor needs it. Have a heart and pay up.

Count Wilkinson, the suave, versatile and genial editor of The New Era, one of our local contemporaries is sporting a nifty, new, rubber-lined waterproof overcoat. He says business is good, thank you.

The Girls' Friendly society of the Church of St. Philip the Deacon held a delightful Halloween party last Saturday afternoon at St. Philip's rectory. The girls to the number of twenty-five made a pretty picture in their artistic tissue paper dresses and in the language of one of them they had barrels of fun.

Miss Lorena Watts, formerly of Omaha, is now a senior at West High in Minneapolis. She passed examination with an average of ninety-seven per cent, the second highest average of thirty-five seniors, who were new to West High. Miss Watts hopes to complete a four-year course in three years.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hardiman of 2408 N. 25th St., entertained at 10 o'clock breakfast, Mrs. B. A. Bostic, Rev. T. S. Saunders and Dr. J. N. C. Coggins, of Washington, D. C., Monday morning. Dr. Coggins is secretary of the board of temperance, prohibition and public morals in the Methodist church.

Miss Frances Gordon entertained at a Halloween party Saturday afternoon complimentary to her music pupils. The house was beautifully decorated and the children enjoyed a delightful afternoon playing games.

GUEST AT ST. PHILIP'S RECTORY

Mrs. Helen Hagan-Williams was the guest of Mrs. John Albert Williams at St. Philip's rectory during her recent visit to the city. She left Tuesday for Des Moines, Ia., where she gave a recital Wednesday night, going thence directly to her home at Morristown, N. J. Helen Hagan, as she is known to the musical world, was married something over a year ago to Dr. Jno. R. Williams, a successful physician of Morristown. Since her marriage she appears but rarely in recitals.

We were glad to see so many strangers in our congregation. Come again you are always welcome. Don't fail to come next Sunday morning and hear the pastor's sermon on "The Surrender of Abraham" and Rev. Mr. Harris at the night service. Rev. Mr. Harris is a student of modern science.

Shops for Shoppers

We've got to have shoes for ourselves and school children. For the best leather built shoes and best prices, go to the Family Shoe store.

For genuine hardware, paints, glass furniture and home furnishings go to Dolgoff's Furniture and Hardware Stores. They cover part of two blocks.

For that nifty shirt and dressy hat at the best prices in town, go to the Washington Shirt and Hat Co., 302 N. 16th St. in the Securities Bldg. Their goods and prices can't be beaten.

North 24th Street has another bright spot. The Jerusalem Trading Company, manufacturers and importers of oriental garments and fancy work, has opened for business at 1708 N. 24th St. The same location the Levine Realty Co. was. One's eyes are easily attracted by the fancy garments on display in this novel shop.

The Diamond Theatre offers a great treat for its patrons next Wednesday and Thursday in "The Secret Sorrow," a full Colored cast photo play.

Now for those choice records you have been waiting for so long. They are at Sol Lewis' Music Shop Now. He has a new shipment of the latest Black Swan records of a great variety. Also a big offering in Victor records. Included in the Black Swan are two of Mamie Smith's biggest hits. See ad and make selection.

SOUTH SIDE

The Peoples Bargain Store whose nifty ad appears on page two of this paper is the cheapest grocery in South Omaha. Their prices are attractive, their goods the best quality and they are convenient.

The Leader is true to its name. It leads in quality of goods and prices. It's under new management and the boys are progressive and tasteful. They solicit your business and will go the length to please. The Leader is directly opposite the Postoffice.

Petersen-Michaelson Hardware Store is easily one of the largest and best equipped stores of its kind in Omaha. Their prices are right and their goods sustain their reputation.

The Q St. Pharmacy is the best equipped Drug Store on South Side. Drugs and prescriptions, candies, tobacco products—refreshments are their specialty. They have music too. It's the one live spot on West Q St.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

ONLY by good service and tasteful surroundings in any business can we hope to attract and satisfy the customer. NO ONE appreciates this fact more fully than I. Neither can we hope to bring about this result without proper equipment and experienced workmanship. I have spent both money and years providing all these things, until now I have a shop that is not excelled by any and equalled by few. My business is equipped with every convenience a modern barber shop could have. The latest electrical appliances for hair cutting, shaving, massaging, shampooing and scalp treatment will be found here. I carry for use or sale every toilet article in the barber line including Bonicilla Facial Cream.

I desire to announce that I have recently acquired the capable services of Mr. F. D. Houston the well known and highly esteemed Tonsorial Artist who is now with my staff. He needs no introduction. He is capable, clean, and efficient and gratefully solicits your patronage. One visit will convince you.
