YOU CAN HELP

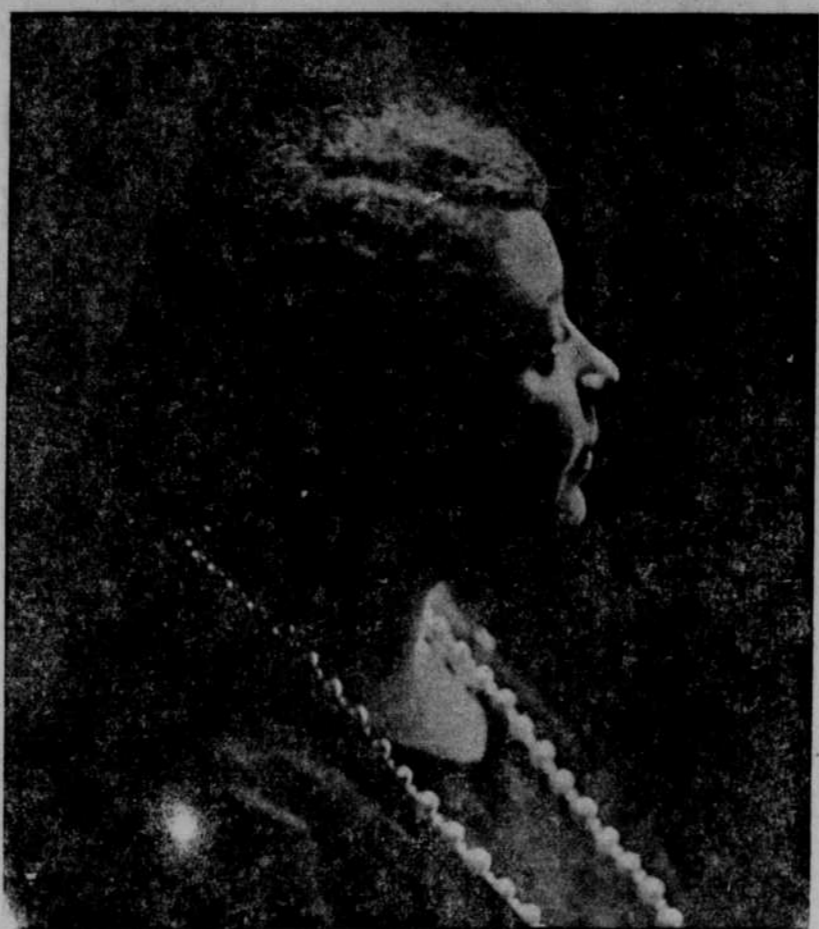

YOU have experienced some irregularity in receiving your paper during the last several weeks. No one regrets this more than we. This delay has been due to things over which we have no control. However, there is one thing that would help tremendously in assuring prompt delivery of your paper as well as rendering a great help to improve it. That is prompt attention to your obligation to The Monitor. Watch your label and when you see that your subscription has expired, kindly send your money into the office or call the office and inform us when to send a collector for it. This will go a long way toward the improvement of both paper and service.

THE MONITOR has striven for many years at a tremendous sacrifice to furnish you with a clean, high class paper, one which is a credit rather than a reflection on the community. There is a certain amount of expense incident upon the publication of any paper which must be met promptly when it comes from the press. If our subscribers don't pay, we have it to do. We know you don't want anybody footing your bills. We are not able to do it. You don't want us to do it. Now we are making this appeal to you to see whether YOU owe anything and if so, come in or call Jackson 3224 and some one will call on you.—Business Manager.

SHOE PINCHES ON OTHER FOOT

IT is somewhat amusing to hear some German authority recently, complaining to France that the presence of her black troops on German soil is a menace to civilization and boldly asked France to dispose of them. While he was thus speaking, Marshal Foch was saying on the rostrum of Howard University, "France shall never forget the costly sacrifices made by her Colored soldiers." It is therefore less to be wondered at than it is to be laughed at, when we reflect on the great world conflict of 1914-18 in which there was nothing too cruel, nothing too barbarous, nothing too uncivilized to the German so long as it killed a human being. It will hard-

We are expecting all of the Methodist pastors and their congregations to be with us upon this occasion; we are expecting to have a great day. Thanksgiving day was one of the best in the history of the church. Our 11 o'clock service was an old time Pentecostal shower. The dinner under the management of Sister Clark and her cabinet of helpers was a surprising success. They went over the top and then some. M. L. Hunter, distributing agent for the DeLite Coffee and Tea Co., supplied us free of charge with his products, for which we feel very grateful. We hope he will be able to place his products in all Negro homes in the city.

LEAVES $50,000 ESTATE
 (Special to the Monitor)
 Oak Ridge, N. C., Dec. 1—The will of Jefferson Lowe, prominent farmer of this place, who died several weeks ago, was probated in Greensboro, N. C., last week.

The estate is estimated at $50,000, $8,000 of which is cash. His real estate amounted to 469 acres. One of the queer provisos of the will decreed that anyone trying to break it was to receive one dollar and no more.
