

THE FRANKLIN

24th & Franklin

Events and Persons

The Eureka Art Class met at the residence of Mrs. Mae Jackson, 2611 Burdette St., Wednesday, Nov. 16. This being the program meeting, all enjoyed the different selections, which were rendered by different members of the club. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Bell, 2814 Miami St.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Foote of Lincoln, Nebraska, formerly of Chicago were in the city last week for the week end, visiting Mr and Mrs. P. S. Doyall, 1619 So. 23rd St.

Mrs. Estella Perry, who has completed her course in dressmaking and tailoring at the Burgess-Nash store, is contemplating teaching after the first of the year.

Mrs. Chas. Solomon, of 2618 Maple St., met with quite a serious accident Wednesday morning, when her hand was caught in the ringer of her electric washer. Her hand was carried in the ringer up to her wrist before she was able to release it. She was given medical attention immediately, and her physician hopes that by using every precaution, the wound will not prove to be very serious. Mrs. Solomon is doing nicely at the present time.

Miss Gladys E. Brown who is a student at Kansas University is expected home for the holidays.

Mrs. J. J. Williams of Oklahoma City is now in the city. She will open a cafe at 2412 Lake Street.

The Rev. John Albert Williams left Saturday for Denver, Colo., where he is conducting an eight-day Mission for the Church of the Redeemer of that city.

Dr. R. C. Riddle has returned from a short business trip to his home in Dennison, Texas.

Mr. C. C. Brown of the Great Western Advertising Co., spent several days this week in Sioux City, Iowa on business.

Mrs. Wm. Murphy of 2705 Co. B. St., who has been confined to her room on account of illness resulting from an automobile accident sustained sometime ago, is now much improved and able to be out.

Louis LaCour, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LaCour, 2421 Maple St., left Sunday for Northern Ohio University at Ada, Ohio, where he will take a course in engineering.

Mrs. Geo. H. W. Bullock, who has been confined at the Methodist Hospital is now at her home 2518 Maple St. and is doing nicely.

What About That COLD ROOM?

Send me a post card stating the height of your oil heater stove and I will show you how my $3.00 heat sprayer will produce summer heat.— J. S. Mills, 2748 Ave. A, Council Bluffs, Ia., Phone B. 3124. On display at Williamson's Drug Store, 24th and Grant sts.

NEW YORK NEWSPAPERS SUSPEND PUBLICATION

New York, Dec. 1.—Two New York newspapers have suspended circulation. They are the New York Dispatch and the Brooklyn Long Island Informer. In both instances it is probable that the suspension is only temporary. John M. Royal was editor and business manager of the Dispatch and William McKinney, Jr., was the editor of the Informer.

LINCOLN NEWS

Mrs. Mabel Galbreath was operated on at St. Elizabeth's Hospital last Saturday at 8:00 A. M. for gall stones. She is reported to be doing nicely.

Prof. Louis W. Gregory of Washington D. C. is in the city lecturing in the interest of the Interdenominational movement.

Mrs. McClendon has joined her husband, Rev. W. A. McClendon of the A. M. E. Church.

Mrs. Pinkie Saunders has been removed to her home from the State Hospital. She is doing fine.

Mrs. A. G. Smith has improved to the extent that she has been able to attend church.

Mrs. Virginia Clark is still improving from her recent operation.

Mrs. Margaret Brown, mother of Mrs. J. T. Wright and Mrs. W. W. Moseley, is confined to her bed with illness this week.

Rev. W. A. McClendon was in his place at the A. M. E. Church Sunday for the morning and evening services. Sunday School was held as usual.

Prof. L. W. Gregory of Washington D. C. lectured to a well filled house at the A. M. E. Church Monday night, during the meeting of the N. A. A. C. P.

Thanksgiving services were observed by the several churches last Thursday. Dinners were served and the people spent the day pleasantly.

Rev. H. W. Botts gave a brief history of the origin of Thanksgiving day preceding his sermon, which was interesting and inspiring. A delicious dinner was served at the church by the committee. At night, the Mission Circle gave "The Slab-Town Convention," parts of which were comical and other parts full of philosophical ideas. The attendance was good.

Services were as usual at Mt. Zion Baptist church last Sunday. Rev. H. W. Botts preached at the morning and evening services. Next Sunday will be covenant and communion services.

Rev. J. P. Staves is still doing a good work at Morning Star Baptist Church.

PHI DELTA SORORITY HOLDS MEETING

The Phi Delta Sorority met at the home of Miss Marion Gordon, 3116 Corby St., Wednesday, Nov. 23. All of the members have enrolled in either the Home Economics, Art, or Music Department. Each of these groups will have a series of programs which will be presented at different times before the club. The Home Economics Department will have charge of the meetings during the months of December and January.

The Misses Frances D. Gordon Alice Watson, Dorothy Williams and Elizabeth Usher were initiated at this meeting. All of the girls survived their admittance to the organization. They feel sure that they are full-fledged Phi Delta members. After the strenuous work of initiation, all enjoyed the delicious repast served by the hostess. The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. H. Green, 2863 Ohio St.

WILL NOT PARDON WIFE KILLER

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 1.—Governor Morrison last week declined to interfere with the death sentence pronounced upon Claude Morehead, sentenced to be electrocuted for the murder of his wife, November 30, 1921.

Morehead beat and choked his wife to death after he had spent a Sunday in drunken reveries.

Accused His Wife
Returning to their home after the festivities, Morehead accused his wife of making some statement of which she denied. Sitting on the front porch, he struck her in the face with his hand and then hit her across the head with a chair.
