LINCOLN NEWS AND :: COMMENT ::

Mr. J .H. Malone and wife and niece of Evanston, Ill., enroute to Los Angeles, Calif., stopped over one night in the city last week.

Cecil T. Denton underwent a surgical operation seven days ago in having his tonsils taken out, is reported as improving.

Rev. I. B. Smith spent Saturday night and Sunday in Omaha on business.

Mrs. James O'Donnell is improving from her recent illness.

The Utopian Art Club will meet at Mrs. E. Bush's home on Thursday night, Nov. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Edwards celebrated their fourth anniversary of marriage last Tuesday night by going through the former wedding ceremony with the sae witnesses, serving a delicious luncheon afterwards. Rev. I. B. Smith was the contracting minister.

The Davis Woman's Club held their first meeting of the year at the home of the president, Mrs. J. W. Cooley, last Tuesday afternoon. After routine of business, refreshments were served by the hostess.

Invitations will be given out the first of the week by the Davis Woman's Club for an afternoon and evening reception Nov. 7th. This is to be given at the home of Mrs. J. E. Jeltz, 740 B street. Public is cordially invited. Come and be a booster.

The Saturday night suppers given by the Serving Club of Mt. Zion are proving a big success toward the building fund.

Services were well attended at the A. M. E. church last Sunday. Rev. W. A. McClendon preached morning and night. The Sunday School and A. E. E. Societies had nice services.

The N. A. A. C. P. and Lancaster Republican Club met at the Morning Star Baptist church Monday night.

At the Mt. Zion Baptist Church last Sunday, Sunday School had an interesting lesson. Rev. H. W. Botts conducted services morning and night, preaching most interesting sermons. The B. Y. P. U. had five lessons and a nice program, which all enjoyed.

The Utopian Art Club gave the birthday supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Moseley, 1330 Rose street, last Tuesday night. A large crowd of jolly folks went out, many of whom partook of refreshments, and spent the evening in socializing among friends. Mrs. Moseley is president of the Club, and spared no pains in trying to make things pleasant for members and friends. The affair was a big success financially, netting quite a sum for the Mt. Zion building fund.

Mt. Zion Baptist church appreciates very highly the financial aid coming from friends of the city. The Mission Society, The Utopian Art Club, and The Parsonage Sewing Club.

READ WHAT YOUR FRIENDS have to say of what Madam E. Hackley Lawson ACME HAIR GROWER has done for them.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 18, 1922. Enough can not be said of Madam E. Hackley Lawson's wonderful Hair Grower. I was very much discouraged with the many hair oils until better than one year ago I began Madam Lawson's treatment which has proven a success, for my hair was then three inches long and breaking harsh and falling with an itching scalp. But now I have an abundant growth of hair, ten inches long, with a healthful scalp, owing to the wonderful Acme Hair Grower.—MRS. A. BALDWIN, 2225 North 26th Street.

People's Candidate "BY PETITION" for COUNTY ATTORNEY

I favor Light Wines and Beer. They would do more than anything else to reduce taxes. I regard a man's home as his castle. I am NOT a member of the K. K. K.

Shall the People or the Political Ring Elect the COUNTY ATTORNEY?
