COLORED AMERICANS DANCE AT HOTEL ASTOR

New York, Nov. 3.—Something is always happening to upset the smug assurances of race theorists that "it can't be done." Twenty Negro couples were among the guests of the America's Making Carnival and Dance at the Hotel Astor, Forty-fourth street and Broadway, Friday evening, October 27th.

Thirty-six racial and national groups were represented in an unprecedented and myth-destroying get-together. The program was a mixture of special entertainment and social dancing. The great Louis Chalf and his Russian dancers, the Erzie Sisters and Dolly Sisters, Finnish, English, Carpath-Russian and Swedish folk dances provided unique entertainment for those who did not dance. But Negroes can dance and did. The magnificent grand ball room provided a pretty setting for this group with its charming women handsomely gowned, its men suave and graceful. They were, as the America's Making program courageously asserted and demonstrated—apart of OUR AMERICA.

Among the Negro guests were: Dr. and Mrs. W. E. B. DuBois, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kinckle Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pace, Mr. and Mrs. Gerold F. Norman, Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. James Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elzy, Dr. and Mrs. George A. Kyle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Johnson, Mrs. Daisy Tapley, Mrs. Charles W. Joyce, Mrs. Ella P. Harrison, Miss Minnie Brown and Miss Louise Lattimer.

CHARLES L. GILPIN COMING TO THE BRANDEIS

An important attraction is announced for the Brandeis theatre for three nights commencing Thursday, November 9th, matinee Saturday, when Adolph Klauber will present the greatest dramatic novelty of the past decade, Eugene O'Neill's unusual play, "The Emperor Jones", with Charles S. Gilpin, the astonishing actor, who rose from obscurity to world-fame in one night, in the title role.

The play is built upon somewhat different lines than the usual run of dramatic offerings. It is in eight scenes, laid in the West Indies, and depicts the adventures of an ex-Pullman porter, who flees through a dense forest to escape the vengeance of the ignorant black natives he has plundered. During the action of the play, the emperor passes through all the human emotions beginning in a humorous vein, the scenes graduate from expressions of slight alarm and bewilderment, to the depths of desperation and despair. Mr. Gilpin's art is said to carry his audience breathless and tense, throughout the unfolding of the story.

The presentation will be made in this city with the same attention given to every detail as during its entire season's run at the Princess theatre, New York and extended runs in Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago.

"I don't want anybody to misunderstand me. If you had a hundred dollars in your pocket and good clothes on your back, and had to associate constantly with a tramp who had nothing, you wouldn't like it, well that's the reason why the white man doesn't like you."

CHARLES S. ELGUTTER DENOUNCES LYNCHING

Charles S. Elgutter, candidate for municipal judge, more than ten years ago denounced the brutality of lynching and burning at the stake. He demanded that the power of the United States be exercised through the federal courts in punishing those found guilty of such brutality against citizens of the United States and those entitled to protection under treaty.

Charles S. Elgutter long ago anticipated the provisions of the Dyer Bill now pending in congress.

Read all about it in his book "A Citizen of the United States", which may be found in the Omaha Public Library, and filed in the Congressional Library at Washington.

Charles S. Elgutter's plea was endorsed by members of congress and by officials of the state department at the time.

THE ST. PAUL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Twenty-sixth and Seward Streets Russell Taylor, Pastor Services Sunday were in keeping with the World's Temperance Sunday Program. Attendance was fair. The interest in the matter under discussion was excellent.

The Adult Bible Class under the leadership of Mr. H. J. Pinkett is growing very much in interest. Knowledge of the Bible is a worthy asset to anyone, it matters not what vocation they are following. We trust that more will take advantage of the superior instruction being given in this class.

The sermon topics next Sunday will be as follows: 11 a. m., "And Shall Teach Men to Sow," 8 p. m., "The Message to the Church in Thyatira, or the Woman, Jezebel, Who Brought Spiritual Discredit Upon the Church."

The Christian Endeavor topic is, "Better Thinking," Phil. 4:4-8. This is the monthly consecration meeting and will be led by the pastor. The hour is 7:15 and we trust that each Endeavorer may be present on that date.

ACTIVITIES OF STATE BAPTIST MISSIONARY

Rv. M. H. Wilkinon, Baptist state missionary, was in Fairbury Friday and Beatrice Sunday. He is spending this week preaching at Morning Star Baptist church, Lincoln, in a financial effort at which every colored church in the city is represented each night. He leaves for South Sioux City, Neb., Friday, November 10, which is a new field. Club leaders at Morning Star are Mesdames Adair, Gurley and McCurley and Messrs Hodges and Hawes.

OUR BOYS MAKING GREAT SHOWING AT FOOTBALL

The Central High School has five of our boys playing on the first and second teams and they are all doing excellent work. Ledrue Galloway, Martin Thomas and Charles Ennis are on the first team and George McKee and Worthington Williams are on the second. Galloway, full-back on the first, is the acknowledged star of that strong aggregation, and Thomas and Ennis are close seconds. Williams as quarter-back and McKee as half-back of the second have starred in every game this season. Neither the first nor the second team has been defeated this season.

LAYMEN ATTEND DINNER

Messrs Sergeant Bailey, Charles W. Dickerson and W.G. Haynes were laymen from the Church of St. Philip the Deacon who attended the dinner given at the University Club last Friday night in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Bishop Shaylor's ordination to the priesthood. Dr. W. W. Peebles was also to have attended, but was unavoidably detained. About 250 of the leading laymen of the Episcopal Church were in attendance. Dr. W. H. Beck of St. Martin's church was chairman, and ringing speeches were made by Chancellor C. S. Montgomery and Bishop Shaylor.

N. A. A. C. P. HOLD ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

The Omaha branch of this organization met in the St. Paul Presbyterian church, 26th and Seward streets, last Sunday afternoon and was opened in due form by the president, H. W. Black. The principal business in hand was the reading of the report by the officers and heads of committees for the past year.

A very detailed and voluminous report was given by the president, showing his activities in many lines. Attorney Walsh, chairman of the legal redress committee; Rev. Russell Taylor, chairman of the executive committee; Mrs. Cooper, chairman of the program and place of meeting committee; and Mr. Garrett, chairman of the auditing committee, also gave favorable reports.

The treasurer's report by Mr. H. L. Anderson showed much diligence in its keeping and indicated a balance on hand.

On next Sunday, November 5, the Branch will meet at St. John's A. M. E. church at which time and place the annual election of officers will occur.

The rule making only those who are financial at twelve o'clock on the day of election was suspended, so that opportunity will be given for any who chance to be present and not paid up, to do so immediately after the opening of the meeting on the above date.

BIBLE SCHOOL STARTED

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 2.—A bible seminary, said to be a branch of the Florida Lincoln College, of Jacksonville, Florida, has been established at 3109 Pine street, here. A bible congress was held at this institution last week. Congressman L. C. Dyer, author of the Anti-Lynching Bill, was the principal speaker at the Thursday night session.
