

PUPILS, PARENTS' AND TEACHERS MEETING

Clarence Deadnes, violin teacher, invited the parents and friends of his pupils to attend an entertainment at the "Y" Tuesday night, the purpose of which was to gain co-operation between pupils, parents and the teacher. Mrs. James G. Jewell presided. Papers were read by Mrs. A. L. Hawkins and A. P. Scruggs, and addresses were delivered by Rev. John Albert Williams, Rev. Russel Taylor and Rev. John Adams. Mr. Deadnes told of his struggles and ambitions along musical lines. Selections were given by members of his orchestra which were much enjoyed. The members of the orchestra who took part were Masters Verney Johnson, Basil Vann, Eugene Smith, Forrest Perkins, Bill Peebles, Leonard Britt, Archie Ray, Sidney Rucker and Joseph Taylor, Margaret Dallas and Myrtle Richardson, violin; Miss Inez Batties, piano; Jetter Thompson, clarinet; Master Earl Thompson, cornet.

HAZEL HESSTON

The new prima donna, with Fred Webster's musical comedy company at the popular Gayety. Starting Sunday the company will present "The Suffragettes", the first half of the coming week.

THE MINISTERIAL ALLIANCE

At the meeting of this body Tuesday morning, the attendance was not as large as usual, though the meeting did not lack for interest.

There being no regular order of the day most of the time was given to the discussion of ways and means whereby the delinquent tendencies of our young might be checked.

The discussion resulted in the discharging of the committee, appointed sometime ago and headed by the Rev. W. C. Williams, which failed to act, and another committee, known as the Civic Committee was appointed in its stead and made a standing committee.

This committee consists of the president, the Rev. Russel Taylor as chairman, with the Revs. Dr. W. F. Botts, E. L. Hollis, Charles Simms, Frederick Divers. One of the immediate purposes of this committee will be to look up what laws we have governing the matters mentioned above and taking steps to see that they are strenuously enforced, especially in the north end where there seems to be a disposition toward laxness in this matter.

CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON

A large congregation was present last Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service which was a memorial Eucharist for the late Bishop Tuttle. An instructive address on "The Life and Labors of Bishop Tuttle" was given by the priest. At four o'clock the pastor and congregation joined with the other Episcopal congregations of the city in the union memorial service at Trinity Cathedral. Friday afternoon several members of the Girls'

Friendly Society will be formally admitted to membership with branches from other city parishes by Bishop Shaylor at Trinity Cathedral at 5:00 o'clock. This will be followed by a social gathering in Trinity parish house. Miss Inez Batties of St. Philip's branch will give a violin solo. Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Fr. Williams will speak on "The Oxford Movement and its Influence." At the request of several another confirmation class is being organized to be confirmed probably the latter part of June.

Henry B. Walthall Returns in Strong Screen Play With Mary Alden

An amazing story of self-sacrifice will be brought to light in the Warner Brother's production, "Parted Curtains" which will be the feature attraction at the Gayety next week until Thursday. Henry B. Walthall, the well-known character actor, and Mary Alden, the famous mother of the Rupert Hughes story, "The Old Nest," are featured players.

Fred Webster's musical comedy company will be seen in conjunction with the pictures, thus constituting the biggest amusement value in Omaha, bar none.

TENNIS CLUB ORGANIZED

An enthusiastic meeting of young people interested in this exhilarating sport met Wednesday night at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Hawkins, 2220 North Twenty-fourth street and organized a Tennis club. The following officers were elected: O. Brown, president; Harold Bentley, vice-president; Mrs. W. H. Robinson, secretary; Mrs. Ada Brown, assistant secretary, and Dr. A. L. Hawkins, treasurer.

$1,000 for Hospital

Greensboro, N. C., April 27.—Chas. H. Ireland, white, started a campaign for a colored hospital here with a check for $1,000.

LINCOLN NEWS

Mrs. E. O. Saffold, of Omaha, was in the city Sunday and spent the day with her daughter at the State Hospital.

Dr. A. B. Moss left for his old home in Missouri last Saturday in answer to the sad news of the death of his mother.

Mrs. Flo Forbes entertained the Utopian Art Club at her cozy home last Thursday night. Some twenty members were present, the meeting being a profitable one. Delicious refreshments were served.

Prof. and Mrs. W. Robert B. Alexander entertained the Matron's Council at their home last Thursday afternoon. Much business was transacted, looking forward for the convening of the Grand Chapter here in July. Sumptuous refreshments were served.

Covenant and praise services were carried out at Mt. Zion Baptist church last Sunday. Owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. O. F. Adair spoke for the church in the evening. On account of the rain the attendance was only fair. The Saturday night Serving Club made a fine report.

Father Evans Corneal died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. O. L. Howard, Tuesday at 5:00 A. M., after a lingering illness, presumably old age and complicated diseases. The remains were taken to Hiawatha, Kansas, his old home, for burial. Accompanying the corpse were his daughters, Mrs. Zola Howard, Mrs. Fanny Young, and his son, Ben W. Corneal, and other relatives.

At the A. M. E. church last Sunday, Rev. M. C. Knight conducted his services at the morning and evening hours. The Sunday school and A. C. E. Society had fair meetings.

The membership drive is on in the N. A. A. C. P. and every person who can should join in this noble cause.

The Harvey Minstrel Show was well patronized by our people last Friday and Saturday, but the rain storm prevented many from attending.

The Newman M. E. church is still without a pastor.
