BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH
O. J. Burkhardt, Pastor.

Last Sunday J. F. Smith of Lincoln, who has taught Sunday school class for many years in the state prison, was a welcome visitor. He taught the Bible-class and gave interesting talk to the school about his prison Sunday school work. At the well-attended service the pastor preached on "Christ's Ability to Save". At 7:30 p. m. Rev. M. Davis and S. E. Grass conducted a thirty-minute praise service. This was followed at eight o'clock by a helpful sermon by the Rev. M. Mitchell on "The Open Door". Mrs. Pinkie Bell has returned from an extended visit. Mrs. Taylor and daughter of Los Angeles were welcome visitors.

At the close of the service a telegram from the pastor was read announcing that Mrs. Franklin was worse and requesting the prayers of the congregation. Sunday night the Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, state missionary, was present and preached an interesting sermon, his subject being, "God's Ownership." The Rev. G. W. The picnic given July 4th by the church at Elmwood park was a delightful affair fully enjoyed by all who were present. The only incident that marred the occasion was during the baseball match between the Young Men's Club and Bethel Baptist boys, when Dewey Campbell was accidentally injured.
