

VIOLIN PUPILS IN RECITAL AT ST. JOHN'S A. M. E. CHURCH

Clarence Desdunes presented his violin pupils in recital at St. John's A. M. E. church before a well-pleased audience Wednesday night. A varied program was given which included simple numbers by the younger pupils to classical selections by the older and more advanced ones. Taken all in all, the age of the participants and the time of their studying being taken into consideration, the recital was most creditable and deserves warm commendation. Many of the numbers were excellently rendered. The orchestral selections were especially good. One criticism to be made of some of the solo work is that the selections were too advanced for the pupils attempting them. The pupils participating were Harry Anderson, Olive Jackson, Harold Washington, Archie Ray, Sidney Rucker, Leonard Britt, Bill Peebles, Eugene Smith Verney Johnson, Forest Perkins, Basil Vann, Margaret Dallas and Louis Burnette. The pianists, and there were good, were Hazel Roullette, Gretchen Cash, Juanita Cook, Inez Battles, Elaine Smith, Lucy May Allen, Charlotte Maddox and Aline Burnette.

EDITORIAL IN "THE NATION" QUOTES MONITOR.

News that a group of "leading citizens" resent President Harding's order that Negro doctors, dietitians, dentists and X-ray specialists attend the Negro ex-service men to be cared for in the new Federal hospital at Tuskegee, Alabama, is surprising. In another mood these Southerners bade the Negro serve himself and passed a law prohibiting the attendance of white nurses upon Negro patients. Can it be that the hysterical delicacy of the white man has been calmed by the dollar sign? The United States Treasury allotted $2,250,000 to the hospital. The physician in charge is to receive $10,000 per year, according to the Omaha, Nebraska, Monitor, and will supervise a yearly budget of $1,250,000. The Atlanta Independent (colored) says: "In every matter pertaining to the hospital, the white man has had only one point in view, the economic end." He is also consumed with fear—not physical fear of shell-shocked Negroes, but fear of any change in the status of the races, fear of the spectacle of trained Negroes successfully treating 600 Negro patients. On July 3rd hooded Klansmen paraded the streets of Tuskegee as a silent threat. The Montgomery Advertiser helped fan the flames by announcing, as if it were predicting, that "there has been no overt act, no clash as yet, between the races." The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has telegraphed President Harding asking that troops be sent to protect the colored doctors and Major R. R. Moton, successor to Booker T. Washington, whose life has been threatened by masked mobs. Some members of the Tuskegee staff have already fled North. Will the South still deny its own responsibility for the northward exodus of self-respecting Negroes?—The Nation, July 17.

Not Really a Pine Tree.
Although the kauri tree is often called kauri pine, it is a native of New Zealand and is not of the family to which spruce, hemlock and pine belong. The trees sometimes attain a height of 150 feet and are often used for masts for British ships. The timber is close-grained, durable and flexible, and used for nearly all kinds of building. While kauri resin or gum is valued for its use in making varnishes.

Wealth in the Mind.
It is the mind that makes us rich and happy, in what condition we are, and money signifies no more to it than it does to the gods.—Seneca.

PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. Wm. Franklin, Pastor.

Sunday morning there was a large congregation present and the services were most inspiring. The evening was given over to the instructive pageant demonstrating the spirit of the Y. W. C. A. The pageant was written by Mrs. M. H. Wilkinson and was well presented by the respective characters which were as follows: "The Community," Miss Gertrude Lucas; "Y. W. C. A.," Mrs. Janie Johnson; "Membership," Mrs. S. L. Craig; "Indifference," Mrs. Mabel Johnson; "Criticism," Mrs. J. A. Newby; "Antagonism," Mrs. A. L. Hawkins; "Christianity," Mrs. Fay Bruce; "Fellowship," Mrs. Alberta Turner; "Appreciation," Mrs. M. H. Wilkinson. A capacity house witnessed the production and an offering was taken for the "Y." H. J. Pinkett was called upon to express the appreciation of the audience for the production. He urged co-operation with the "Y." Miss Edna M. Stratton, secretary, thanked the pastor and congregation for the hospitality extended and for the donation. The monthly conference Wednesday night was largely attended and was highly inspirational. It was decided to hold a rally Sunday, Aug. 19, at which time there will be a contest between the men and women of the congregation. Mr. A. R. Goodlett will be leader of the men and Mrs. A. W. Anderson of the women. Every member is asked to give $1.00 on that day, the goal being $7,500. Preparations are being perfected for our chautauqua which will open Tuesday, August 14. With much regret and sorrow letters of dismissal from the congregation were granted at their request to the following persons who have been among the most faithful members of the church: Mr. N. J. Winston, deacon, who has been clerk of the church for the past four years and governor of the Texas club; Mrs. Jessie M. Winston, organist for two years and active in the young people's auxiliaries; Mrs. Ida Winston, active in the Dorcus Mission; Mrs. Payne, daughter of Mrs. Ida Winston, one of the leading choir members, and Mrs. J. P. Winston, who was very active until the failure of his health some time ago. Friday night a reception was tendered them, addresses being made by J. W. Dacus, H. J. Ford and Rev. Russel Taylor. They left Sunday night for Los Angeles, Cal., the prayers and good wishes of the congregation following them to their new home.

ST. PAUL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Twenty-sixth and Seward Streets, Rev. Russel Taylor, Pastor.
Our evening services are still increasing in interest, may it so continue. There are times in the carnal warfare when the army must be satisfied in holding the front. It is also true in spiritual things. And this is largely the task of the faithful few in every church both during extremely cold or extremely hot weather. But the front must be held. "Faith is the victory that overcomes the world,"—therefore, let us have faith and continue faithful.
The pastor will have for his topic Sunday morning, "Comforting My People".
The Endeavor topic for the evening is, "A Nature Psalm". Psalm 104:1-35.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. E. H. McDonald, Pastor. — Services were well attended all day Sunday. The pastor's text for morning was: "He Died for Me," and in the evening, "Seeking Pleasure." Many visitors and friends were present.
Mrs. Winters and daughter, Beatrice Fay, have returned from an extended visit to Chicago.
The social given on the church lawn Friday night under the auspices of Ushers and Usherettes, met with wonderful success.
The public is cordially invited to come out and hear the pastor, who delivers excellent sermons every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Evening service 8:00 p. m. Sunday school 9:30 a. m. B. Y. P. U. 6:30 p. m. Wednesday night prayer service 8 p. m.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

Twenty-fifth and R St.; Market 3475; O. J. Burkhardt, Pastor. — Sunday the services were well attended both morning and evening. At 11 a. m. Rev. Mr. Rhononesse, the pastor of the A. M. E. church at Burlington, Iowa, preached. He also gave a historical sketch of the Negro race, proving that it has always played an important part in the religious world. At 7:30 Revs. Messrs. Grass and Davis had a lively praise meeting with many in attendance. At 8 p. m. the pastor preached a good sermon on "The Power of God Unto Salvation." Next Sunday Rev. Wm. Majors of Council Bluffs will speak at 11 a. m. At 8 p. m. Rev. Mr. Jones, recently from the South, will preach. The pastor will be leaving for Conference soon. He wants his friends to lay aside that dollar that he needs so badly to make his year's report complete.
