LINCOLN LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Gordon, Miss Gordon and Miss Pinkett of Beatrice motored over last Thursday, returning the same evening, after visiting friends.

On last Thursday evening Mrs. E. G. Huff was hostess at a miscellaneous shower at her home, 1830 North 19th street in honor of her sister, Miss Bernice Lyons, an intended bride of the week. A mock wedding was one of the features of the evening. The bride-to-be was seated in the dining room, where she drew in her gifts one by one with a string. The color schemes in decorations used, were pink and white. Refreshments in the same color were served. Out of town guests were: Misses Dorothy L. Page of Topeka, Kansas; Geraldine Bryant of Salina, Kansas; Mrs. Gladys Hill of Kansas City, Mo; Mr. and Mrs. Watkins, Kansas City, Kansas.

Mrs. Wm. Burden's mother, Mrs. Fears, and sister, Mrs. McDaniel Gates and Mr. Gates motored to Lincoln Thursday.

Mrs. W. M. Burden entertained Friday evening in honor of her mother, Mrs. Fears, her sister, Mrs. Daniels Gates, brother-in-law, Mr. Daniel Gates of Grand Island.

Lyons-Brown — The marriage of Miss Bernice Lyons and Mr. Ben Robt. Brown was solemnized Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lyons. Rev. M. C. Knight, pastor of A. M. E. church, officiated in the presence of relatives and close friends. The wedding march was played by Mrs. C. W. Malone. Miss Erma Brown, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and Mrs. Roy Wood, her attendant, was the first to come down the stairs, followed by Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Huff. Mrs. Huff, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and Mr. Huff served as best man. The attractive appointment was in pink and white. The ceremony took place in the double door-way. Following the ceremony, refreshments were served. After a short wedding trip, the young couple will be at home in Lincoln.

The following named persons attended the annual meet of Grand Lodge, Daughters of Bethel, at Omaha last week: Mesdames V. Lewis, J. Johnson, J. E. Jeltz, Alice Grant, F. Price, E. Hackson, E. Black, E. Cook. Rev. Mr. Thomas of Omaha is in the city. Mr. Jewel of Cherokee, Ia., is in the city on business. Mr. Jewell is an Iowa farmer.

A number of persons enjoyed a trip to Milford last Sunday. This was styled as an auto picnic, and was given in honor of visitors in the city.

The social given by Mt. Zion Sunday School last Tuesday night was a fine success.

The Utopian Art Club gave their wienie social in the church last Thursday, and was fairly patronized.

B. Y. P. U. will hold a picnic on the church lawn Labor Day night, September 3rd.

Last Sunday was quarterly meeting at the A. M. E. church. Presiding Elder Hicks was present, and conducted services, preaching twice during the day, and gave communion. Attendance only fair. The Sunday School and A. C. E. societies had interesting lessons. The banquet held in the basement last Thursday night was a fine success.

Sunday was a kind of rally day for the pastor's trip to California, at Mt. Zion Baptist church last Sunday. Union services were held in the afternoon. Rev. M. C. Knight preached one of his instructive sermons, which all enjoyed. Visiting pastors were: Presiding Elder Mr. Hicks, Rev. G. W. Carter of Newman M. E. church and a number of members, and Rev. Thomas of Omaha. Next Sunday morning communion will be served at the morning hour of worship, as the pastor, Rev. H. W. Batts, starts on his trip to California Sunday afternoon.

Services at the Newman M. E. church were conducted as usual last Sunday by the pastor, G. W. Carter, who seems to be a coming minister.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH Twenty-fifth and R Streets—Phone MA rket 3475—O. J. Burckhardt, Pastor. Sunday was another red letter day. The Sunday school started the day's interest. Mr. Day came as a representative from the Pilgrim Baptist church to visit our Sunday school and gave us some interesting remarks. At 11 a. m. the pastor preached on "Spiritual Infancy". At 7:30 p. m. a praise meeting was led by Rev. S. E. Gross in which the young people took a very active part. At 8 p. m. Rev. A. W. Jones preached on "Feast of Belshazzar", we were all stirred by the message. Sunday, September 2, will be a great day. The pastor is planning to preach at 11 a. m. and at 8 p. m. a minister from Cincinnati, O., is expected to fill the pulpit. The second Sunday in September will be our last quarterly meeting for the conference year.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH Rev. E. H. McDonald, Pastor. Sunday School was well attended as were all the services. The pastor's morning theme was "Tribulation;" evening, "Left Alone." Many visitors and friends were present. The pastor leaves Saturday for Los Angeles, Cal., to attend the National Baptist convention of which he has been the secretary for several years. Among the sick of the church are: Mrs. E. H. McDonald, Mrs. Hyland and Mr. Phinney. The entertainment given Tuesday night at the residence of Mrs. Lindsey, under the auspices of the Pastor's Aid was a decided success. Friday night is the regular church business meeting. The usual services Sunday. BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH Rev. Frederick Divers, Pastor. Conference approaches and we are preparing to make the second report for our church. We are very grateful for all who have contributed to the success, especially to the papers who have been kind in taking something from time and giving it to the public. Last Sunday was a high day, and special effort was made by the church to help the trustee department, and it was very encouraging indeed. The pastor preached at the morning service, and Rev. D. Phelps of Cincinnati, O., preached at the evening service. Sunday is communion day and we are looking forward to a great day. The big annual bazaar opens in full blast Monday evening with plenty of everything, and we are looking for you.
