E. F. Morearty, Lawyer, 700 Peters Trust building, Jackson 3841 or Harney 2156.

Louis LaCour left Tuesday for Lincoln where he will enter the University of Nebraska.

Miss Leona Brown who has been spending the summer here with her aunt left Sunday for Lawrence, Kans., to resume her studies in the Kansas University.

Mrs. Elizabeth Buford having sold her home, 3510 Blondo street, has moved to 2618 Binney street, where she will reside temporarily with her sister, Mrs. Bert Johnson. She expects to build soon.

Mrs. William Rogers has gone to Moberly to visit her parents. Upon her return she will go to Chicago to reside. Her husband has secured a position there in the postal service.

The Nay Bros., Harry and Hurl, formerly with the Georgia Minstrels, but now known as the Nay Brothers Troubadors are in the city visiting their sister, Mrs. C. J. Phelps, 2433 Franklin street.

Mr. B. Brewer, 3010 V street, South Side, is reported as quite ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. S. C. Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Phelps, 2433 Franklin street, returned home this week from a trip with her brothers, Harry and Hurl Nay, to Winner and Fairfax, S. D.

Mrs. Delbert V. Gordon and her infant daughter have left the Methodist hospital and are now at the family residence, 2862 Miami street.

"Mother" Howard, as she is affectionately called, entertained at a delightful luncheon at her home, 2429 Maple street, Wednesday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. Elmira Owens of DuQuoin, Ill. Covers were laid for ten.

Miss Hazel Campbell of Kansas City, Mo., is the house guest of Mrs. B. Phoenix, 1412 North Twentieth street. She will remain in the city indefinitely.

Mr. B. G. Johnson of Mobile, Ala., has joined his wife and baby who have been in the city several months. Mrs. Johnson was one of the vocational teachers at Pilgrim Baptist church. They are contemplating making Omaha their home.

Rev. A. B. Lennox of Detroit, Tex., moderator of the North East Texas Baptist association, and his son-in-law, Rev. J. H. Herrington of Kaufmann, Tex., enroute home from the National Baptist convention in Los Angeles, spent Friday night and Saturday here, visiting Dr. G. B. Lennox, who is the son of the former.

Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Metcalfe who motored over to Kansas City to attend the Methodist conference, accompanied by Mrs. Hanger, Mrs. Anna Burton and Mrs. Robinette returned Monday and report a pleasant time.

Mrs. J. W. Pinkston entertained at breakfast Saturday morning at the residence of her mother, Mrs. John Crawford, 2505 Maple street; the Rev. A. H. Lennox of Detroit, Tex.; the Rev. J. H. Herrington of Kaufmann, Tex., and Rev. Robert W. Bagnall of New York. A previous engagement prevented the presence of Father Williams who was also invited.

The Rev. Z. E. McGee, pastor of Pleasant Green Baptist church, returned Saturday from Los Angeles where he attended the National Baptist convention. He was accompanied by the Rev. Dr. E. L. Twine of Jackson, Miss., who is his guest and will preach for him Sunday. Dr. Twine has a great reputation as a pulpit orator.

George W. Gamble of Minneapolis, Minn., brother of Mrs. John Albert Williams, was an Omaha visitor Thursday. It was his first visit here in eleven years and he was astonished at the marvelous growth of the city.

Rev. M. H. Wilkinson, state missionary for Colored Baptists, attended the National Baptist Convention in Los Angeles, Cal., and will visit Sag Francisco, Pasadena, Cal.; Salt Lake City, Utah, and Denver, Colo., before his return.

Mrs. W. G. Haynes, 2859 Corby street, entertained at a delightful reception from 3 to 6 Wednesday afternoon complimentary to her mother, Mrs. Belle Pulpress of Pittsburg, Pa.

The Helpers' Club gave a dinner Wednesday afternoon and evening at the North End "Y". It was some dinner, but unfortunately the almost torrential downpour of rain kept many away. Mrs. W. S. Metcalfe is president and Mrs. A. D. James, secretary, of this praiseworthy club.

LINCOLN PERSONALS

The N. A. A. C. held a rousing meeting in the A. M. E. Church on Monday night, Sept. 17, the occasion being a visit by Mr. Robt. W. Bagnall of New York, director of the local branches of the association. Mrs. Gertrude Haynes, president of the local branch, presiding, who called the meeting to order. The program committee, Mrs. A. C. Stanley, came forward and took charge. Rev. G. W. Carter of Newman M. E. Church offered invocation. The N. A. A. C. P. hymn was sung by the audience and a vocal solo rendered by Miss Opal Ashford, after which Mrs. Haynes made a few remarks, and in turn, introduced Mr. P. L. Moore, who after making a brief but forcible talk, presented the speaker of the evening, Mr. Bagnall, who, after extending cordial greetings to the president, staff of officers, and the people of Lincoln, launched hurriedly on to his message, which he gave in a most effective manner, narrating the good work the association had done, and were doing, toward the advancement of our groups in all parts of this country, especially effective in parts where disturbances have arisen. Hence, it is strange more of our group are not interested in the association. Mr. Bagnall gave a number of deplorable incidents, which had been heaped upon the black man without a cause. All these things, we know, are true, but yet you find the majority of our folks unconcerned. Mr. Bagnall is a fine speaker, we would like to hear him again. Quite a number responded to $10, $5, $3, $2 and $1.50 memberships in the association. A banquet was given in the dining hall. Most of the fair sized audience went down and enjoyed the palatial eatables — manna, orange punch, chicken paddies, green peas, mashed potatoes, hot biscuits and butter, coffee, salad, ice cream and cake. This event should be long remembered and the association grow under it.

Mrs. W. L. Todd entertained the Progressive Twelve Club at her home last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Gladys Hill returned to her home in Kansas City, Mo., last Wednesday after spending some weeks with her father, Rev. H. W. Botts and children, here.

Thomas Tibbets of St. Joseph, Mo., has returned here for school.

Ed. Croft returned from the east Monday.

Mrs. Izzetta Malone returned home from Kansas City, Kansas, Monday after attending annual conference there, last week. Mrs. Malone announces that Rev. M. C. Knight has been reappointed to serve Lincoln another year.

Mr. Jeltz of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Jeltz, is visiting his mother here.

Mr. Guy Wiley entertained the Utopian Art Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Mosley last Thursday night. Quite a crowd of members were in attendance, and the meeting proved a profitable one.

Word comes from Los Angeles, California, this week that Rev. H. W. Botts will be home for the fifth Sunday, Sept. 30th.

Covenant and prayer services were carried out at Mt. Zion Baptist Church last Sunday. Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. had their meetings. Rev. O. F. Adair preached at night. Crowd fairly good.

Mrs. Helen Owens entertained the Mission at her home on University avenue last Tuesday night.

E. P. Graves is able to be out again after some illness.

Rev. T. J. Porter conducted services at the A. M. E. Church last Sunday in absence of the pastor at conference. The Sunday School and Aid Societies had services as usual.

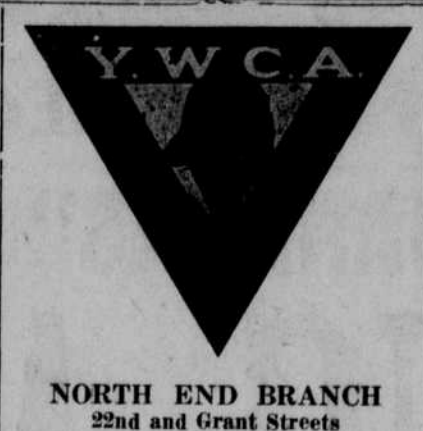

Rev. G. W. Carter held his services as usual at the Newman M. E. church last Sunday.

Members of Mt. Zion Baptist Church are busy arranging to celebrate their pastor's third anniversary as pastor of the Church.

The tuition and schedule will be announced next week. Don't fail to take advantage of these educational opportunities!

The First Epitaphs.
The custom of inscribing epitaphs among Christians dates from the Third century B. C. It was copied from an ancient Egyptian custom of hanging around the neck of a body a tablet inscribed, "May He Serve Osiris."

Australia's Plague of Rabbits.
It is estimated that there are now in Australia 30,000,000,000 rabbits, all descended from a few pairs of cottontails brought from America about seventy years ago.
