PROGRESSIVE STEP HAS BEEN TAKEN ALONG LEGAL LINES

News has reached Omaha of the death at Denver Tuesday of Mrs. Daniels, aged mother of Mrs. John W. Bell of this city. Mrs. Daniels had gone to Denver, her former home, to visit another daughter who resides there.

Nebraska's First Law Firm, Composed of Attorneys of the Colored Race, Formed.

Miss Teresa Jones left Sunday night for Kansas City, Mo., for an indefinite visit with relatives and friends.

A progressive departure has been made in legal lines by the formation of the first and only law firm composed of colored men in the history of Nebraska. The members of the firm are Messrs. H. J. Pinkett, W. G. Morgan and W. B. Bryant.

The Rev. A. Rayford left Wednesday night for Wichita, Kans., to assume his duties as pastor of the Grant Memorial chapel to which he was assigned by the recent conference of the Methodist church. His family will join him later.

Mr. Pinkett, the senior member of the firm, received his academic and legal education at Howard University. Later he took some special work at Columbia. He has been in active practice of law in Omaha and surrounding country for sixteen years, except the two years he was in military service with combat troops in America and France, where he was battalion adjutant, judge advocate, instructor in officer's training school and member of a general court martial. After the war he came back to Omaha and resumed his law practice.

Miss Fostoria Logan, A. B., Rust University, who has been visiting her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. G. G. Logan, has gone to Nashville, Tenn., to teach history in Waldron University.

Mr. Morgan is a product of Sam Houston College and George R. Smith College, both of which are M. E. Church schools; Creighton College of Law and the Minnesota College of Law. He is a member of the bar of the Supreme Court of Nebraska, the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia, the United States District Court for Nebraska and the Supreme Court of the United States.

Leonard C. Russell, son of Douglas G. Russell, is quite ill at the Paxton Memorial hospital where he recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Bryant received his academic education at the Kansas Educational and Industrial Institute, the University of Nebraska and the University of Omaha, from which latter school he holds the degree of LL. B. He is an ex-service man, having served as a sailor during the world war. He is prominent in Zion Baptist Church and lodge circles. His efforts have been noted as an advocate of racial and inter-racial co-operation. He is a member of the bar of the Supreme Court of the State of Nebraska and of the United States District Court of Nebraska.

Miss Sydney Janice Parks who has been visiting her sisters in Tulsa, Okla., and Kansas City, Mo., for the past three months returned home Sunday and will resume her studies at Technical High school.

The firm will engage in the general practice of law and will devote itself to handling the following kinds of law business: Real estate cases, damage suits, divorce and alimony cases, suits for the recovery of money on contracts and otherwise, drawing wills, contracts of all kinds, including real estate contracts, examining abstracts of title to real estate; legal matters in connection with estates and guardianships, corporations, insurance companies, legal consultations and law business in general. The firm is entitled to practice in all states, city, county, district and federal courts, including the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Rev. Griffin G. Logan, D. D., district superintendent of the M. E. church, after a week's sojourn here with his family left Saturday for Denver, Colo., to attend the Denver area convention.

For the present the firm will office in the Patterson Block, 17th and Farnam streets, where the members are ready to serve those needing their services.

Frank Edwards and wife of McGhee, Ark., arrived in the city Friday to visit his nephew William Paris and family, 2525 Hamilton street whom he had not seen for twenty-one years.

N. W. C. A. NOTES
 The regular monthly meeting of the N. W. C. A. will be held Wednesday, October 3, at 923 N. 25th street, the new home, at 10:30 o'clock. We ask all members to please be on time. Attorney John Adams and Mr. W. P. Wade have been added to the board of trustees.
 We are more than proud to say that Mrs. William Cruchfield has given the furniture to furnish the living room of the New Home. She gave this in memory of her late husband, William Cruchfield, who too, in his lifetime, did many things for the home, and at his death left a neat little sum of money for the home.
 Mrs. Jennie Robinson has purchased the Old Home, 2029 Pinkney street, as an investment.
 Mrs. Martha Taylor Smith, Pres. Elizabeth M. Reed, Corr.

Mrs. Jeanne Lattimore, who recently returned from California, where she went for her health, has received a back set and is quite ill at the family residence, 2215 North Twenty-fifth street. As soon as she is strong enough she expects to leave for Arizona.

Mrs. George A. Love and her infant son, Kenneth Albert, returned to her home, 2530 Grant street, from the University hospital last Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Ann Williams, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. G. G. Logan, left Saturday to visit friends at Peoria, Illinois.
