OPERATION GIVES SIGHT TO CHILD BLIND SINCE BIRTH

Above is shown eight-year-old Lillian Palen of Indianapolis, who was blind since birth and who recently was given sight following a delicate operation performed by Dr. Joel Whitacre. The child was blind at birth, and when four years old was abandoned by her parents. Her pitiable case was brought to the attention of Doctor Whitacre who performed the operation, removing cataracts from the eyes and thus giving sight.

HARD TO GET WHALE EXPERT

England Unable to Find Leader for Expedition.
An offer of a thousand pounds a year, with free food and lodging and plenty of adventure thrown in, is going begging because England has no modern Jonah who knows whales intimately.
Last month the colonial office in London advertised for a "director of research" to take charge of a scientific expedition that is scheduled to start next spring for the Falkland Islands to study aquatic mammals and their habits. So far not a suitable applicant has been received.

The purpose of the expedition is to obtain data from which to frame legislation to prevent the disappearance of whales. The scientists will endeavor to learn whether they are polygamous, how long they live, where they spend the winter and what their annual migrations are.
It seems that the waters off the Falkland Islands are a fashionable summer whaling resort; but in winter the mammals disappear. Inasmuch as the islands are largely dependent upon the whaling industry, the British government would like to know where they go.
Scott's historic ship "Discovery" will carry the expedition, which will be gone two and a half years.

Fountain Pens Three Centuries Ago.
Fountain pens were used as far back as 1690, and reference to them is found in an advertisement in 1788. They did not come into anything approaching general use until fifty years ago. A patent was granted in 1830 to Joseph Bramah, the inventor, who gave his name to the Bramah lock and hydraulic press.
