

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH
Rev. Frederick Divers, Pastor

There was quite an increase in the attendance at Sunday School, and interest continues to grow.

The attendance at Sunday morning service was good as usual. The pastor preached again after a few weeks' change. There was one addition. In the evening the services were good, the pastor preached again. Services in the evening start at 7:30 and at 9:30 they are over, but every minute of the time is used, Sunday night we had Rev. Mr. Ewing and Rev. Mr. Jones as visiting ministers.

There was an unusually nice meeting held Monday night at the parsonage where members of the Official board had been called in their initial meeting by the pastor. The board served with light refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting.

Sunday is to be a big day. Communion service in the morning and evening. Missionary meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Aaron Bowler, 2711 N. 28th Ave., at 2:30 p. m. Special features, addresses by Miss Laney from the City Mission and Miss Gertrude Lucas. Music by Mrs. Allen. Missionary News by Mrs. Eva People.

PILGRIM BAPTIST CHURCH
Sunday services were marked by large congregations. Special efforts are being put forth to acquaint the membership with the working and financial plans of the Church. The Alabama Club gave a masquerade entertainment Halloween at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Adams, 1313 North Twenty-sixth street. It was an enjoyable affair and a grand success. The Florida Club gave an entertainment at the church Wednesday night which was voted a success. The pastor spoke Sunday night on the Ku Klux Klan.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. Thos. Taggart, Pastor

The Sunday School superintendent was given a birthday present by the school for which, he expressed his gratitude. Mrs. Whidby read a paper on "Why We Have Birthdays."

The pastor was at his post again Sunday after a few weeks' absence in the South where he conducted a revival. Our financial drive is on to meet next annual payment on the pipe organ. It will continue until the 18th.

Men Easily Placed.
A man cannot utter two or three sentences without disclosing to intelligent ears precisely where he stands in life and thought, whether in the kingdom of the senses and the understanding, or in that of ideas and imagination, or in the realm of intuitions and duty.—Emerson.

When Knowledge is Real Power.
To succeed in whatever we undertake we must not only have knowledge but must use it at the right time and in the right way. Knowledge is power only when properly applied to what we have in hand.

Everybody Pleased.
A young lady at a crowded seaside resort was explaining to a circle of admirers: "Yes, it was dear mamma's birthday, yesterday. I gave her a crimson parasol, with broad white stripes. She is so pleased! And so am I. Mamma is pleased to have a new parasol, and I am pleased because now I can see her coming a long way off."

Perfection a Phantom.
There is no such thing as absolute perfection in this old vale of tears and laughter and, after a man with infinite toil and endeavor has got so that he can remember to butter only one bite of bread at a time, he is arraigned in the most severe terms as soon as the company's gone on account of the size of the bites.—Ohio State Journal.

Honey That Will Not Be Gathered.
Bees have presented the top of the Henry Clay statue in the cemetery at Lexington, Ky. This statue was struck by lightning a few years ago and the head dislodged, and a new head was fashioned by a sculptor, and it is in it that the bees have their hive.—Scientific American.

The Immortal Novel.
The surest mark of immortality in a novel is that, with due regard to form and substance, it exhibits the triumph of the good in its struggle with the bad, and proves that whatever the immorality and crime a man may pass through, he is never lost until his soul is lost.—Sir Hall Cairne.

Valuable Old Coin.
A Sheffield farmer, while digging in his fields recently found a silver coin of antique origin, but in a splendid state of preservation. He came up to London, had it appraised, and found it to be worth $1,250. The coin is a Charles I crown and was minted at the time when silver was very scarce in England.

In the Nature of a Hint.
On a train recently I tried to make the acquaintance of a little girl. "Are you a good little girl?" I asked. "Oh, yes," answered the child. "I'm the good little girl who always says 'thank you' when one gives me something."—Exchange.

Actual Meaning of Names.
Ethel should be noble, Freda peaceful, and Leonora lion-hearted. Ulf is the warrior-maiden, and if you add Mat to her name you give her strength, for Matilda, often shortened to Maud, means the maiden strong in battle.
