NORTH SIDE BRANCH
GIVES PROGRAM
AT CENTRAL "Y"

Fellowship Week is being observed throughout the world by the Young Women's Christian Association. During this week the workers in every part of the world is being remembered in prayer and services and consideration of their work. This is a most inspiring and helpful idea. Monday, Africa was the field considered. It was quite fitting therefore that the exercises at the Central Branch should be conducted by Miss Edna M. Stratton of the North Side Branch, and that the evening should close with the artistic presentation of "A Garden of Flowers" by the Garden Club of the latter branch. A large and appreciative audience was present and thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful pageant. Musical numbers were given by Clarence Desdunes, Miss Lucy M. Allen and Mrs. Elizabeth Allen.

Dinner Day at the "Y"

Every Thursday is known as Dinner Day at the North Side Branch, Y. W. C. A., Twenty-second and Grant streets. You are urged to be the dinner guest of the Service Committee, of which Mrs. W. C. Ricks is 1923. Dinner will be served from 4 to 9 p. m. Price 39 cents.

International Vesper Service

In observance of the week of World Friendship and Prayer, all girls and women are cordially invited to attend the International Vesper Service to be held Sunday, November 18, at 4 p. m. in the Auditorium of the Central Building 17th Street and St. Marys Avenue. Miss Mabel Head of Chicago, who is a Regional Secretary of the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association, will be the speaker for the afternoon.

BILLY CUMBY—DAISY MARTIN

Colored Entertainers Who Are Famous as "The Black Spasm" and as a Blues Singer for Okeh Records

The Gayety week starting Saturday matinee will shelter in conjunction with the popular and well known Jack Reid "Record Breakers Co." a pair of the best liked and most versatile Negro artists on the American stage today.

They are Billy Cumby, known to thousands of theatre goers as the "Black Spasm" and Daisy Martin, the dainty miss whose clear sweet voice is familiar the country over through her singing for the Okeh phonograph records.

Billy Cumby's forte is rare comedy interspersed with speedy dancing and some original parodies. As a dancer Cumby is perhaps without a peer in Columbia burlesque. He attempts and executes steps that are original with him and his syncopated stepping is always enough to stop any show.

Daisy Martin can "jazz" a song as few of her race and sex and the way she sings "blues" numbers is always the signal for repeated encores. You have never heard the real typical "Negro Blues" until you have heard Miss Martin sing her latest songs.

In addition to these two colored entertainers Jack Reid has a bran new offering that is just chock full of novelties and vaudeville specialties who are making their first appearance with this splendid attraction. "The Record Breakers" opens its week engagement at the Gayety starting with a matinee performance on Saturday and there will be matinees every day at 2:15.

We know how good this show is from our correspondents in Cleveland, Dayton, Toledo, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Kansas City and we can recommend it in the terms of highest praise. Don't fail to see it. And just one other "don't", and that is, don't wait until the last minute to get your seats just as though you were going to a picture show as seats at the Gayety are reserved by coupon. So get your seats in advance and thus be assured of good ones.

Nebraska Civil Rights Bill

Chapter Thirteen of the Revised Statutes of Nebraska, Civil Rights. Enacted in 1898.

Sec. 1. Civil rights of persons. All persons within this state shall be entitled to a full and equal enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of inns, restaurants, public conveyances, barber shops, theatres and other places of amusement; subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law and applicable alike to every person.

Sec. 2. Penalty for Violation of Preceding Section. Any person who shall violate the foregoing section by denying to any person, except for reasons of law applicable to all persons, the full enjoyment of any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, or privileges enumerated in the foregoing section, or by aiding or inciting such denials, shall for each offense be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, and pay the costs of the prosecution.

"The original act was held valid as to citizens; barber shops can not discriminate against persons on account of color. Messenger vs State, 25 Nebr. page 677. N. W. 638."

"A restaurant keeper who refuses to serve a colored person with refreshments in a certain part of his restaurant, for no other reason than that he is colored, is civilly liable, though he offers to serve him by setting a table in amore private part of the house. Ferguson vs Gies, 82 Mich. 858; N. W. 718"
