ETHIOPIA. AN HISTORICAL PAGEANT AT AUDITORIUM

An unusual entertainment is promised in the great historical Race Pageant, "The Unveiling of Ethiopia" which is to be presented at the City Auditorium next Tuesday night. The pageant is built around the music of our great composers and shows the development of the race, in many of its most important aspects from its coming to America until the present time. A large chorus will render the music. The best local talent will take part. Lincoln's birthday could not be more appropriately observed than by attending this great pageant, which shows that the work of the great Emancipator in proclaiming freedom to the slave has been fully justified.

AN EXCLUSIVE AND DISTINCTIVE SHOP FOR WOMEN

Messrs. Leslie Burkenroad and Joseph Bonoff, two enterprising young men, who from boyhood have grown with growing Omaha, have opened an exclusive and distinctive shop for women at Sixteenth and Farnam, over the McCrory Ten Cent Store. This shop is the last word in elegant appointment. It features supplying everything for the ladies wardrobe from tip to toe on one floor. Each well-stocked department is conveniently arranged for customer and saleswoman. There are well-arranged fitting rooms and necessary accessories for the convenience of patrons. There is a handsome suite of beauty parlors said to be the most elegant and complete in the city. "Joe" and "Lee", as their large circle of friends call them, are Omaha boys, who know the business through and through. They are young men of delightful personality which is a good business asset. We urge our readers to visit this store when on a downtown shopping tour. The firm is known as Burbon & Co. This is a combination of the first three letters of each partner's name, "B-U-R" and "B-O-N." Miss Carita Herzog, formerly with the advertising department of the Brandeis store is in charge of the advertising for this enterprising new firm.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH

Rev. Frederick Divers, Pastor
Mid-winter weather has not daunted the boys and girls and the officers of Bethel's Sunday School. Everything is moving right on. The morning services were unusually good. There were many expressions of delight in the sermon—the fourth of a series that pastor is delivering on the Book of Revelation. There was one accession during the week, and one at the conclusion of the morning service.
Rev. R. B. Smith of Lincoln preached at the evening service, and there were two more accessions. Don't forget the pageant.

LINCOLN NEWS AND COMMENT

Rev. J. R. Williams preached to a good sized crowd at the A. M. E. Church last Tuesday night, and was accorded welcome by Rev. M. C. Knight and his congregation.

Rev. Williams left Tuesday night for his home in Richmond, Mo., feeling no doubt he had did what he could, and the people of Lincoln saw a warm spot in their hearts for him, for his personality, and the convincing messages he gave in the interest of saving souls and the spiritual awakening to all.

The M. Mission will meet at the home of Mrs. Ida Todd at 665 So. 20th Tuesday night, February 12.

Covenant and praise services were enjoyed by members at Mt. Zion Baptist Church last Sunday morning. At night, the Pastor preached a fine sermon. The Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. had nice services.

The Buds of Promise held their meeting in the Church Sunday afternoon, which was very fine for children.

The Saturday night serving club resumed their suppers last Saturday, which was profitable.

The baptizing services will be held in the Christian Church, 23rd and P streets next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Communion and fellowship at night.

Lebanon Lodge No. 3 regular meet Tuesday night February 12.

Messrs R. H. Young, C. T. Denton, and Wm. Woods were Omaha visitors last Sunday on business.

Rev. I. B. Smith was in Omaha Sunday and preached.

Rev. G. W. Carter of the Newman M. E. Church conducted his services last Sunday, and was attended by his members. Rev. Carter has begun to make ready for his annual conference in March.

Rev. M. C. Knight of the A. M. E. Church conducted his usual services last Sunday, preaching morning and night. The Sunday School and Aid Societies were well attended. The sick so far as we know are improving.
