Mrs. Maud Gates is reported to be turned from the hospital the past week.

Mrs. Laura Blond has returned from Omaha where she was called on account of her daughter's illness. J. T. Wright has returned to work after several days sickness.

Mrs. Hayme left for her old home in Oklahoma last Monday where she visits her mother and kin.

Mrs. Vashti Mosby is reported to be gaining in strength again.

Mrs. W. L. Todd left for her old home in New Brunswick, Mo. last Sunday where she will spend some weeks with her mother and friends.

The supper, given at the A. M. E. Church last Thursday night by the Ladies Aid, was largely patronized and a success financially.

The party given by Islam Temple No. 65 in German Hall last Thursday night is said to have been well attended. The hall was neatly decorated in Valentine colors. Those present expressed themselves as having enjoyed themselves immensely.

Mrs. May Morris is able to be about after a siege of sickness.

E. J. Griffin was confined with illness the past week.

The Mary Magdalene Mission held a meeting with Mrs. Ida Todd last Tuesday night—owing to scarcity of attendance, the President called to meet at same address 665 So. 20th Street Tuesday night, February 26. Election of officers.

The executive board of the State Federation of Woman's Clubs met here last Friday after their routine of business. The women inspected the property which they have purchased here for old folks home, and is said to be well pleased with the progress. Visiting members from Beatrice and Omaha were present.

Mrs. P. S. Stovall of Omaha, and her sister, Mrs. L. Johnson of Kansas City were visitors this week, worshipped at Mt. Zion Baptist Church Sunday morning and visited with her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Williams.

Services at Mt. Zion Baptist Church last Sunday was conducted by the pastor, who preached two practical sermons to his folks, all being well taken. The Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. had excellent lessons. The Saturday nights serving clubs are increasing in interest, they are serving fine meals. A number of clubs have been organized and are giving series of entertainments, looking forward to a thousand dollar rally about May 1. Help them.

Rev. G. W. Carter of the Newman M. E. Church is striving to get in readiness to attend his annual conference in March. His services were held as usual last Sunday. The members attending fairly well.

"NIFTIES" WILL PACK 'EM

Ben Meroff's Band Greatest Organization Ever to Play Omaha

"Nifties of 1924," which comes to the popular Gayety theatre week starting Saturday matinee, under the management of Joe Hurtig, is said to be appropriately named. Advance reports indicate that it is one of the "niftiest" spoken in this season's Columbia "wheel."

Ben Meroff's Entertainers are one of the big features of the organization. They came to "Nifties of 1924" direct from a tour of Keith Vaudeville, where they were an accredited sensation. In every city they played for Keith, their stay was extended from six to eight weeks, so popular were they with vaudeville audiences.

Frank and Milt Britton are the featured players among the "jazzmaniacs," although every member of the band is a soloist. Meroff himself is credited with playing six different musical instruments in a skillful manner and doing some sensational dancing as well.

Sunday's matinee starts at 3:00.

MISTAKEN FOR COLORED WOMAN, GETS DAMAGES
Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 22—Street car conductors will have to keep their eyes clear in handling passengers on the Jim-Crow cars here in the future or it will cost them not only their jobs, but some real kale besides. Mrs. Dora Brown, quite brown in complexion, last Tuesday got a consent judgment against the street car company here for $400. She sued on the ground that a conductor had "mistaken her for a Negress" and forced her to emerge from the rear instead of the front door.
