NEWARK STAR IS PLACED ON ALL-NEW JERSEY FLOOR FIVE

(Preston News Service) Newark, N. J., April 18.—Ed. "Lan-ky" Jones, star center of the Orange High School quintet, has been placed on the first all-state team. This is probably the first time in the history of the state that a colored lad has won such honors.

Edwards is described as being one of the greatest centers in scholastic circles this year. He indicated repeatedly his right to be classed as the mainspring of the Orange Five.

A tall youth, he is easily able to outjump his adversary, and besides, is one of the shiftest and cleverest centers ever developed in the state. He is aggressive, is all over the floor and a remarkable shot.

EXPENSIVE TEETH

West Oakland, Cal., April 18.—Thomas Cheek has entered suit against a local white dentist charging him with removing three diamonds from his teeth left to be repaired.

H. L. JOHNSON AND B. J. DAVIS, G.O.P. DELEGATES FROM GEORGIA

(Preston News Service) Atlanta, Ga., April 18.—Four delegates-at-large to the Republican National Convention in Cleveland, Ohio, next June, were instructed to vote for the nomination of President Coolidge, in the election held Wednesday by the regular faction of the Republican party in Georgia, at the State convention.

Two race men and two whites compose the delegation. The delegates chosen were: Henry Lincoln Johnson, Benjamin J. Davis, Clarke Grier and Clint W. Hagar. The last two named are white. The convention indorsed the appointment of Johnson, who is the Republican National Committeeman from Georgia, and of Mrs. Mamie Williams, a prominent race woman as the Republican National Committeewoman from Georgia.

TUSKEGEE GETS $5,000

Advertising Talk

A hen is not supposed to have Much common sense or tact, Yet every time she lays an egg She cackles forth the fact.

A rooster hasn't got a lot Of intellect to show, But none the less most roosters have Enough good sense to crow.

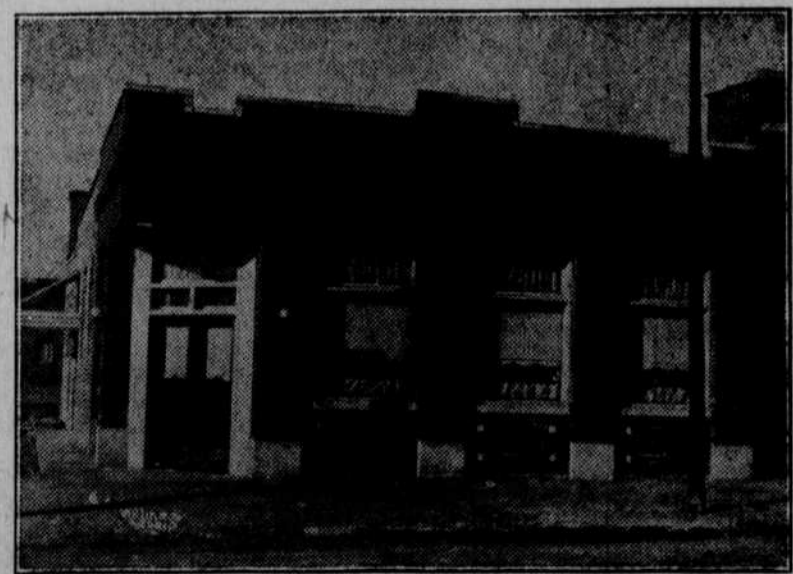

The mule, the most despised of beasts, Has a persistent way Of letting folks know he's around By his insistent bray.

The busy little bees they buzz, Bulls bellow and cows moo, The watch dogs bark, the ganders quack, The doves and pigeons coo.

The peacock spreads his tail and squawks, Pigs squeal and robins sing And even serpents know enough To hiss before they sting.

But man, the greatest masterpiece That nature could devise, Will often stop and hesitate Before he'll advertise.

Merchants who are wise And want our people's trade Use THE MONITOR to advertise And thus their fortune's made.

Our beautiful, modern funeral home provides every convenience and our experience qualifies us to render the service demanded when loved ones are called by death.
