"Miss Cherry Blossom," an operetta, was presented at St. John's A. M. E. church last Friday night by students from the University of Nebraska to a large and enthusiastic audience. It was a delightful affair and reflected credit upon the participants.

NOTICE

There has been a lot of talk about Joe Lewis' prices being so high. That is because the Grant street taxi has been impersonating my cars and drivers and overcharging the people and I have been getting the blame for it. Signed, J. D. Lewis.—Adv.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends for their kindness during the illness of our mother and grandmother, Mrs. Martha B. Turner and for the beautiful floral tributes sent at the time of our bereavement.

Mrs. Alfred Jones and family.
Mrs. Jno. Vinegar and family.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETIC CLUB

One will always find the High School Girls Athletic club of the Y. W. C. A. pushing forward with the times. Their first hike of the season was to have been Saturday morning at six o'clock on a tramp to Miller Park, but on the account of the rain, it was deferred and the girls enjoyed themselves at the recreation center of the Y. W. C. A., where they indulged in games of which Joe Goff was winner of two. After this the basket which had been prepared was partaken of.

CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON

Last Sunday a large congregation, 25 of whom were boys, was present at the 11 o'clock service. Two excellent addresses were delivered, one by Dr. Craig Morris on "Why the Church Needs the Boy" and one by Joseph Dorsey, a student in Central High school, on "Why the Boy Needs the Church." The offering was taken by John Horton and Arthur McCaw, acting for the wardens. The music was excellent.

Next Sunday the services will be as follows: Holy Communion 7:30 a. m., Church School, 10:00 a. m., sung eucharist with sermon 11 a. m., evening prayer and sermon 8 o'clock.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

O. J. Burckhardt, Pastor
Excellent services with good attendance was the rule Sunday. Sunday school and League were addressed by Rev. P. M. Harris and Supt. Gross. The Rev. Mr. Harris preached at night. Among the worshippers was the Rev. M. R. West of Topeka, a retired A. M. E. preacher over 100 years old. The usual services Sunday to which the public are cordially invited.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

CONDUCTING REVIVAL
Zion Baptist Church is the scene of unusual activities, being in the midst of a successful revival in which Rev. P. C. Pinkney has been assisting the pastor. Beginning next Tuesday evening the celebrated and eloquent Rev. Dr. Harper of Dallas, Tex., who made such a profound impression here a year ago, will conduct the services. Among the special services which he will conduct will be young people's service Friday, May 9; Mother's Day, Sunday, May 11, from 3 to 4 p. m.; and a sermon to men, Thursday night, May 15th. There will be preaching by Dr. Harper during the two weeks with these special sermons for the persons named.

There will be special Boys Service, next Sunday afternoon from 3 to 4 as it was not convenient to have this service last Sunday. There will be special speakers.

Advertising Talk

A hen is not supposed to have Much common sense or tact, Yet every time she lays an egg She cackles forth the fact.

A rooster hasn't got a lot Of intellect to show, But none the less most roosters have Enough good sense to crow.

The mule, the most despised of beasts, Has a persistent way Of letting folks know he's around By his insistent bray.

The busy little bees they buzz, Bulls bellow and cows moo, The watch dogs bark, the ganders quack, The doves and pigeons coo.

The peacock spreads his tail and squawks, Pigs squeal and robins sing And even serpents know enough To hiss before they sting.

But man, the greatest masterpiece That nature could devise, Will often stop and hesitate Before he'll advertise.

Merchants who are wise And want our people's trade Use THE MONITOR to advertise And thus their fortune's made.
