Advertising Talk

A hen is not supposed to have
 Much common sense or tact,
 Yet every time she lays an egg
 She cackles forth the fact.

A rooster hasn't got a lot
 Of intellect to show,
 But none the less most roosters have Enough good sense to crow.

The mule, the most despised of beasts,
 Has a persistent way
 Of letting folks know he's around
 By his insistent bray.

The busy little bees they buzz,
 Bulls bellow and cows moo,
 The watch dogs bark, the ganders quack,
 The doves and pigeons coo.

The peacock spreads his tail and squawks,
 Pigs squeal and robins sing
 And even serpents know enough
 To hiss before they sting.

But man, the greatest masterpiece
 That nature could devise,
 Will often stop and hesitate
 Before he'll advertise.

Merchants who are wise
 And want our people's trade
 Use THE MONITOR to advertise
 And thus their fortune's made.
