LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

One Hundred Per Cent Americanism.

What constitutes 100 per cent Americanism? This is indeed a momentous question in the minds of thinking people. In these days of unrest the individual is constantly reminded of his patriotic duties, civic responsibilities and his debt to the great underlying principles of true democracy; his duty is to adhere to the basic theory of a government by the people and for the people, where all men receive equality under the regime of justice the impartial judge.

The individual is allowed the pursuit of happiness according to his own ideas providing these ideas do not conflict with the existing laws. Each person has the unquestioned privilege of worshipping God according to the dictates of his own heart. Religion and law are not consolidated within the state.

Within the confines of this glorious nation, the great underlying principle is freedom. Opportunity stalks upon every highway and fortune awaits the effort of the worthy and the sincere. It is to be lamented that some high government officials have broken the trust reposed in them and let us sincerely hope there will not be a repetition of these offenses in the future. Justice has been meted out in no uncertain terms and the shaken confidence of the people has largely been restored. The president, together with his chosen assistants, has looked the issue squarely in the face and dealt with the situation to the satisfaction of all.

One hundred per cent Americanism means confidence in the institutions of our government, faith in the wisdom of our law makers and sincerity in the observance of all laws which have been inaugurated. No individual or group is entirely responsible for the fulfillment of the law and justice should be administered through regular channels in accordance with the severity of the offense. Civic authorities and servants of the law strive at all times to be impartial and fair and endeavor to interpret the law in an efficient manner. Should we not as 100 per cent American citizens cooperate with them in a worthy cause?

Let us be sincere in our appreciation of those who strive to live and let live; be content to dwell beneath the protection of the stars and stripes in the land of the free and the home of the brave. Let us be proud to observe the laws and strive to assist our fellow men in living happy, clean, progressive lives in the greatest country of all—America!

RALPH E. JOHNSON, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Are you self-conscious about the impression you make on people?

PERSONAL appearance has a lot to do with the way you feel. Clothes count, of course. But still there is one thing so many people overlook—something that at once brands them as either fastidious or careless—the teeth.

Notice today how you, yourself, watch another person's teeth when he or she is talking. If the teeth are not well kept they at once become a liability.

Listerine Tooth Paste cleans teeth a new way. At last our chemists have discovered a polishing ingredient that really cleans without scratching the enamel—a difficult problem finally solved.

A large tube of Listerine Tooth Paste is only 25 cents; at your drugist's—Lombard's Pharmacy, 312 West 10th, U. S. A.

IT PAID HIM TO ADVERTISE

One of the most persistent advertisers in the history of success was Robinson Crusoe. He knew what he wanted—and he put up an advertisement for one. He flung a shirt on a pole, at the top of his island, that, in the language of the sea, was plain to every sea-faring man.

The circulation was small—there was no other medium but Crusoe kept at it, despite the fact that he got no inquiries for a long time. He changed his copy—as one garment after another was frayed out—and in the end got what he wanted.

Suppose Crusoe had taken down that signal after a time and declared—"Advertising doesn't pay," where would he and his story be now?

Put up your signal and keep it there. Crusoe advertised under very discouraging circumstances. You've got a sure thing—it is only necessary to have the patience, persistence, and pluck of Robinson Crusoe—and the good ship "Better Business" will soon tie up 'longside your pier.—Baltimore Afro-American.

Advertising Talk

A hen is not supposed to have Much common sense or tact, Yet every time she lays an egg She cackles forth the fact.

A rooster hasn't got a lot Of intellect to show, But none the less most roosters have Enough good sense to crow.

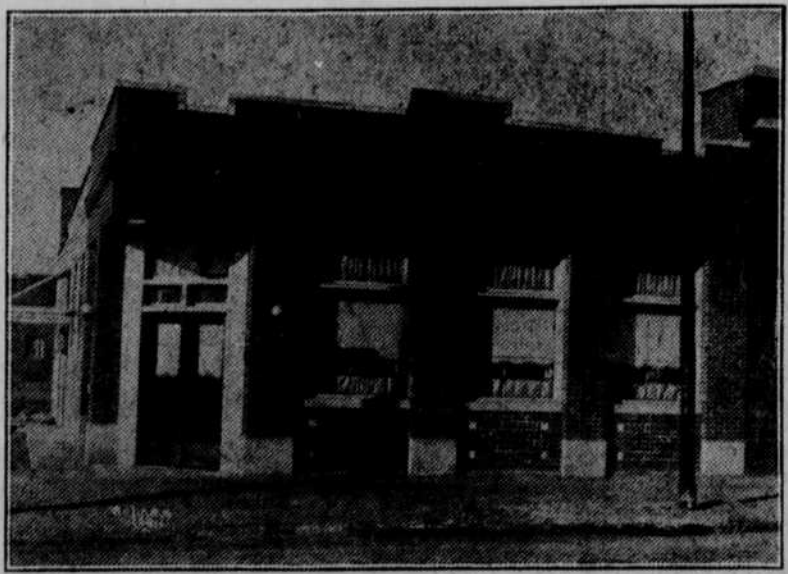

The mule, the most despised of beasts, Has a persistent way Of letting folks know he's around By his insistent bray.

The busy little bees they buzz, Bulls bellow and cows moo, The watch dogs bark, the ganders quack, The doves and pigeons coo.

The peacock spreads his tail and squawks, Pigs squeal and robins sing And even serpents know enough To hiss before they sting.

But man, the greatest masterpiece That nature could devise, Will often stop and hesitate Before he'll advertise.

Merchants who are wise And want our people's trade Use THE MONITOR to advertise And thus their fortune's made.

Our beautiful, modern funeral home provides every convenience and our experience qualifies us to render the service demanded when loved ones are called by death.
