NOT LEFT ALONE

FORTUNATELY for our people there are many right-thinking, broad-minded and justice-loving white people in every community who have the courage to stand up for the right. Omaha has some of this type. They do not covet the limelight, but they are willing to take a stand and demanding action arise. This has been demonstrated recently in the Howard Kennedy school affair where the janitor was vindicated by a committee of school officials for his unwarranted interference with Troop 23, Boy Scouts, the facts of which were given in The Monitor. One gentleman was present at the inverstigation who is deeply interested in social work and the welfare of our people He is a prominent and influential business man. The injustice of the action was so glaring that he could not permit it to pase unchallenged. He felt, and riviltly sc, because he is closely in touch with the thought of our people, that to do so would seriously jeopardize the good will which largely prevails in our community. To condone injustice is always a serious mistake. He, like some others, believes this to to true. And so he got got busy. The result was that letters were written to Superintendent Beveridge and the School Board by representatives of welfare organizations respectfully calling attention to what was considered an unfair attitude. Suffice it to say that another janitor is now employed at the school. This shows that when our cause is just and we conduct ourselves so as to win confidence and respect we will not be left to fight our battles alone. Men with moral courage still survive, willing to espouse a just cause.

> The increase of Negro voters in Detroit has made them considerable of a political force in the city and state. Aaron C. Toodle, executive secretary of the United Civic League, holds that John Smith, who received the largest number of votes as a candidate for mayor, was successful altogether because of the influence of > the Negro vote. The city's Negro population has grown so rapidly that there has been a big job in lining up the voters, but there are five political organizations in the city the chief of whose objects seems to be the getting out of the Negro vote, and bringing it into the Republican fold.

Kansas City, Mo., is one of the cities thought to be safely Republican. Not as many migrants have come into it as to Detroit and St. Louis, due largely to the fact that it is very little advanced over most southern cities in the advantages it offers to Negroes. Out of its total population of 2731 Q Street 350,000, however, 33,000 are Negroes and 20,000 of these vote. The colored additions to the population have been arriving at the rate of about 1,000 a year during the last four years, according to F. T. Lane, secretary of the Urban league. Duane B. Mason, one of the leading lawyers of the city, is of the opinion that, although there are many Negro Democrats in municipal and state affairs, the Negro vote this year is going to be of material help n putting the state into the column for Coolidge and Dawes. 'Negroes are not thinking of the La Follette ticket," he remarks.

Of the 20,000 Negro voters in Kansas City, seventy per cent will vote the Republican ticket, is the opinion of W. H. Harrison, principal of the Attucks school. Twenty-five per cent will be Democratic and five per cent will go to La Follette.

Mr. Lane of the Urban League expresses the belief that "the Negroes are almost evenly divided between Republicans and Democrats. At the sent time the Republicans seems to have the majority, according to past state and municipal election of the records of the office destroyed | The coming election will most likely result in the same way since many las county court house, in September, Negroes who vote the Democratic ticket locally will vote Republican on account of the presidential election."

Milwaukee is not as good a barometer of Negro sentiment in Wisconsin for La Follette as some other cities in the state, due to the fact that there are few Negroes in the city, ust completed covering a number of less than in any large American city the key sections into which Negro and to the further fact of most of aborers from the South have moved these Negroes being of a special sort.
