KEEP A GOOD MAN ON THE JOB

EX-KAISER IS PEEVED AT HIS ELDEST SON

Activity in Political Circles Annoys Father.

Doorn.—Life at the Chateau of Doorn has become, particularly during the last few months, extremely animated.

Every day, almost, sees the arrival of fine automobiles bringing princes, ex-ambassadors, former ministers and generals who had served under the old monarchical regime in Germany.

Some of the visitors leave after a day or two, but others prolong their stay, residing for the time being in expensive "pensions," where they make an ostentatious display of their war decorations, and pay almost daily visits in full dress uniform to the ex-kaiser.

The former emperor appears to be doing everything possible to entertain and attract to himself the sympathies of all German monarchist and military circles. His consort, Hermine, who burns with the desire and hope of one day becoming empress of Germany, seconds her husband in these efforts in the most active manner, and with all the grace at her command, by holding grand receptions and entertainments.

All these activities have for their principal object, according to what is related in the best-informed quarters, to counteract similar ambitious projects entertained by the former crown prince. It is even said that the rivalry between father and son has developed recently into a state of latent warfare, pursued mercilessly on both sides.

The activity displayed since his return to Germany by the former crown prince in political circles, especially among the nationalists and monarchists and the younger generation of militarists, rumors of which reach the ex-kaiser from Berlin, serve to render the latter furious against his son. The prince, on his side, is said to show but little of either respect or admiration for the personages of the old regime and its time-honored traditions.

The ex-crown prince would seem to be desirous of breaking definitely with the ideas and personages of the past, and even to be willing to find himself at the head of a regime purely democratic, provided that it was at the same time nationalist. The former emperor, on the contrary, clings desperately to the ideas and persons of the past, and shows himself a bitter and unchangeable enemy to all democratic sentiments.

Officer Rewarded for Bravery He's Forgotten

Fargo, N. D.—That rewards although sometimes long in coming, inevitably find their way home, is proved by the experience of Lieut. Col. F. M. Steele of Fargo, who has just received a citation for gallantry in action in the Spanish-American war. He says the incident is so far in the past that he cannot recall it.

"For gallantry in action against the Spanish forces at Santiago, Cuba, July 1, 1898, is the only explanation the citation gives. Colonel Steele was then first lieutenant, 1st cavalry brigade, U. S. A. The citation entitles him to wear "one silver citation star on the ribbon of your Spanish campaign medal or service ribbon pertinent thereto."

Ancient Prayer Swindle Revived $325 Worth

St. Louis, Mo.—The time honored "prayer" swindle has come to life here. The basic idea is that the victim will receive a large sum of money if he will pray each night for a certain dead person. But he must prove he is responsible by displaying some money. Joe Morell was to receive $5,000. He proved his solvency by donating $325. It's missing and Joe wants the police to find two gentlemen of glib tongue who identified themselves as Frank Catando and Louis Prizzl.

New York Court Puts Curb on Mother-in-Law

White Plains, N. Y.—Supreme Court Justice A. H. F. Seeger here signed an order restraining Mrs. Ida K. Greenwood of Mount Vernon from interfering with her son-in-law, Ferdinand Hoffman, in his attempts to see his three children and also restraining her from crossing the street in front of her home in Mount Vernon to the homes of Hoffman's sisters and from talking to them or to neighbors of either regarding the marital affairs of the Hoffmans.

Hoffman in his complaint petition said that his mother-in-law did everything she could to keep the children from his sight. "She is spluttering her mother-in-law spite in Mount Vernon," he said. Hoffman and his wife were recently estranged, but have not been legally separated. Mrs. Hoffman lives with her mother and the three Hoffman children, John, fourteen; Edward, eight, and Anna, six years old. Hoffman recently applied for a writ of habeas corpus to permit him to get the custody of the children, and Justice Seeger's order made provision for the father to see his children on certain days of the week.
