FAMOUS COLORED COMEDIAN

George McClennon Comes to Gayety Next Week with the Harry Steppe Company

The Gayety theatre at Sixteenth and Harney offers a real treat to its pa- trons next week in George McClennon and his laughing clarinet, who will be the feature of Harry Steppe and his big show.

McClennon, who has long been a favorite in Keith vaudeville and who makes records for the O-Keh Grapho- phone company, has just joined the ranks of Columbia burlesque. He is one of the most entertaining perform- ers on the American stage. He is a comedian, musician, singer and dancer. Mr. McClennon is assisted by Miss Maude DeForrest, a blues singer who has appeared in several of the big Broadway colored revues recently.

It is doubtful if any other colored performer in burlesque is as popular as McClennon. He is a finished com- edian and his antics are sure to please the patrons of the popular Gayety.

McClennon is surrounded by a big burlesque show; Harry Steppe, the Hebrew comedian, needs no introduc- tion to Omaha audiences as he has played here several times before and has proved to be a very clever fun maker. Others in the company are Harry O'Neal, Vic Casmore, Rose Duf- fin, Lola Pierce Rube Walman, Geo. Rose, Carmin Sisters and the greatest singing and dancing chorus ever offer- ed in burlesque.

Special Mention

The Harry Steppe show has just been awarded the summer run at the Columbia theatre, New York City, opening there on Saturday night, May 2nd, so this is your chance to see this great show before its New York open- ing. Two performances will be given daily all week. Tuesday will be "Sur- prise Nite", a big new laugh being as- sured. Friday is "Hosiery Nite", dozens of pairs of fine silk hosiery be- ing given free to lucky feminine pa- trons.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON

The Lenten services are being well attended and the outlook is bright for a large confirmation class to be pre- sented to Bishop Shaylor on Palm Sunday. Confirmation instruction is given for adults Friday and Sunday nights and for children Friday after- noons at 4 o'clock. Special Mission services with short sermon, popular hymns, instruction and intercessions are being held Sunday nights at 8 o'clock during Lent. Public invited.
