Washington .- A survey of foreign markets by the commerce department to develop the possibilities of further expanding this country's export trade in radio manufactures, which showed a remarkable growth in 1924 by reaching a total value of $6,030,914, has disclosed a varying prospect in the coun-tries covered in the first study, just completed. Some of them, such as Bulgaria, ab-solutely forbid broadcasting and the sale or use of receiving sets. In Bel-
