IMPORTANT NOTICE

A large number of subscriptions are now due. I will be greatly appreciated if you will pay promptly when the bill is presented. Our collector now and then runs across people who say they ordered the paper stopped, but have continued to receive it, and in some cases they decline to pay. The law is explicit. If you do not want the paper when it has been ordered stopped and it continues to come, return it to the postman marked "refused." If, however, you do not do this and continue to receive the paper you MUST PAY FOR IT. In cases of this kind where refusal to pay is made, The Monitor will take legal action to collect. We hope this will be unnecessary.

Above are but a few of the hundreds of beauties from the Atlantic to the Pacific who are entered in Madame Hightower's Great National Beauty Contest, at the conclusion of which will be chosen Miss Golden Brown of America, the loveliest race girl of the United States.

Interest has been very keen not only among the contestants themselves, but also among their friends in every walk of life and in every nook and cranny of the nation.

Among the contestants are lovely school teachers, beautiful business women, alert young matrons, young high school girls, and a host of other women of every type of beauty.

By means of thousands of dollars of alluring prizes, Madame Hightower, long a beauty culturist of national repute, has determined to crown her career by having members of our race themselves choose the fairest flowers of our womanhood, and cast their votes for them.

The girl receiving the most votes in the entire contest, which closes at midnight September 15th, will be given a magnificent Hudson Super-Six Coach, and a $100 trousseau, and a free trip to Atlantic City in October, with all expenses paid. To the next four girls, a free trip to Atlantic City will also be given, and each will be presented with a free $100 trousseau. To the next 48 girls (the leader in each state) will be given a dazzling diamond ring.

In celebration of the elaborate conclusive event—the grand reception of Atlantic City in October—a committee of nationally important business and professional figures of our group has been chosen by Madame Hightower to receive the charming girls chosen as the true scions of our noble race. Included in the list of judges on this rare: Tallis Q. Brown, teacher, writer, scholar, of Wilberforce College, and Robt. L. Vann, editor of the Pittsburgh Courier; Edward Scott, the Rembrandt of race artists, with several other equally notable men and women.

With each of the famous Golden Brown Beauty Preparations, from 50 to 100 free vote coupons are packed, and Madame Hightower advises that all girls of our group urge all their friends and acquaintances to save these coupons, fill in the names of their favorite friends, and mail the votes to Madame Hightower, in her office at the Golden Brown Chemical Co., of Memphis, Tenn.

Many photographs have been received too late for this week's issue, but they will be published in the next few days. "I want every girl of our group who has entered in the contest, be she rich or poor, from North or South, East or West, teacher or scholar, married or single, to know that she has a remarkable opportunity not only to achieve honor and distinction, but also the long sought chance to win one of the gorgeous prizes by merely saving free vote coupons which go with all my Golden Brown Beauty Preparations," said Madame Hightower, in an interview today.

Every girl must get busy and set to work in earnest at once if they would reap a full harvest of their opportunity. "I shall be glad to hear from any of them, and to help all of them," concluded Madame Hightower, as she turned to step back into her office.

Some dealers appeal to Racial Sentiment, sometimes you buy wrong accordingly, sometimes we make monkeys out of ourselves. Look at your dollar, examine both sides, anything racial there? Measure it by how hard to get and buy accordingly. These properties will measure, cent for cent, with any hard earned dollar you possess.

5 rooms—we are going over this property pretty thoroughly. Modern but heat. Consider its location, high ground, sightly, right on the carline, paving paid except about $65, big lot. We ask $2650 and believe it is more than reasonable. We can all tear value to pieces. The house isn't perfect, don't pretend to be, but you must be taken for what you are; you have a real value whether I like you or not, so it is with the house. We sell a lot of houses in that locality, and we know there are a lot of them not so good that cannot be bought for our price, $2650, $100 cash, $25 monthly. It is vacant.

2608 WIRT ST.

You will find this an all modern house, no shack, a good substantial home, excellent location, has a garage and street is paved. We will give you no argument in its favor for good sense assumes that any house with a garage in that location is worth $2750. These folk have purchased in Benson, we took it in as part payment. We have put on it the low terms of $2750, $200 cash.
