Clarence H. Roper, Imperial Potentate of Fezzan Temple of St. Paul, Minn., en route to the Imperial Council of the Shrines at Kansas City, arrived in Omaha Sunday morning, accompanied by his wife, spending the day here as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Scott. Mr. Roper is an old Omaha boy but it has been several years since he visited his boyhood home. He expressed pleasure at being able to attend services at St. Philip's Episcopal church, where he was baptized and was a choir boy. He left for Kansas City Monday morning.

MRS. PINKSTON ENTERTAINS AT A DELIGHTFUL MUSICAL

Mrs. Florentine Pinkston entertained at a very largely attended musicale at her home, 2417 No. 22nd street, last Monday evening. An excellent program of vocal and instrumental music was presented. Vocal numbers were rendered by Mrs. R. D. Allen, Mrs. Pearl Reese, Miss Dorcas Jones and Mr. Weldon Solomon. Mr. Perry gave the opening number, a B flat horn selection. Mr. Lacey delighted the audience with clarinet solos. Piano solos were admirably rendered by three advanced pupils of Mrs. Pinkston, Elaine Smith, Dorothy Allen and Catherine Williams. Other piano solos were given by Miss Otis Watson, Mrs. James Hill, Mr. Karl Tunchberg and Mrs. Pinkston. Violin solos were rendered by Margaret Dallas and Mr. Tilton. Mr. Tilton also gave a very pleasing whistling solo. Mrs. Pinkston was also assisted by Mrs. John Evans, who gave a brief paper on music, and several delightful readings. At the close of the much enjoyed program, delicious refreshments were served. The affair was unique in that it brought together a helpful way musicians of both races. Mrs. Pinkston, who is a cultivated and accomplished musician and teacher, has done much to encourage and develop musical talent among the youth of Omaha.

ST. BENEDICT'S SCHOOL TO OPEN

St. Benedict's School, 2423 Grant street, will re-open Tuesday, September 1. This is a select school taught by Sisters of Mercy. Children from the kindergarten to the seventh grade are accepted. As only a limited number of children can be accepted parents will do well to apply early. Morals and manners of children carefully looked after.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. J. H. Smith wishes to thank all of her friends who so beautifully entertained her house guest, Miss Sallie B. Brown, from Richmond, Va. Sorry space will not allow me to thank each and every one by name.

OLD FOLKS HOME NEWS

The regular monthly meeting will be held the first Wednesday morning in September at ten-thirty o'clock. Board meeting the first Thursday in September at the Home at 8:00 p. m. All members are asked to be present and also to attend the monthly meeting.

We want to thank the public for money raised from booth during the Elks carnival in July. It amounted to $41.10. Also for $15 raised at lawn social at Mrs. Tillie Simpson's.

Visitors are welcome to visit the Home Thursday and Sunday.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

A large number of subscriptions are now due. It will be greatly appreciated if you will pay promptly when the bill is presented. Our collector now and then runs across people who say they ordered the paper stopped, but have continued to receive it, and in some cases they decline to pay. The law is explicit. If you do not want the paper when it has been ordered stopped and it continues to come, return it to the postman marked "refused." If, however, you do not do this and continue to receive the paper you MUST PAY FOR IT. In cases of this kind where refusal to pay is made, The Monitor will take legal action to collect. We hope this will be unnecessary.

NO COLORED BAND FOR THE KLANSMEN'S PARADE

Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—Colored folk undaunted but cautious were interested spectators at the Ku Klux parade here on Saturday afternoon, August 8th. No overt acts were reported; they evidently viewing the spectacle with amusement as did others along the line of march.

No Colored Band
Klan officials after making desperate efforts to secure the services of white bands, and finding that the Musicians Union had forbidden the latter to participate, then asked Director J. E. Miller for the services of the Community Center band. The director refused.

CONFERENCE ON CONDITIONS IN AFRICA

(Associated Negro Press)
New York, Aug. 21.—The Africa committee of the Committee of Reference and Counsel has called an open conference on Africa to be held in Hartford, Conn., October 30 to November 1. The sessions of the conference will be held in the Kennedy School of Missions.

NO NEW PRESIDENT FOR LINCOLN UNIVERSITY YET

Lincoln, Pa., Aug. 21.—Rev. John M. Gaston, white, of Pittsburgh, head of the educational work among colored Presbyterians of the South, and former president of Biddle University, has been named president of Lincoln University here, but has not accepted.

STUDENT FINDS HIKING HEALTHFUL AND INSTRUCTIVE

Wickham Hunter, a fine looking, manly young man of nineteen, a student in the Normal and Industrial Institute of Bordentown, N. J., reached Omaha last Friday night homeward bound after a hiking trip which took him as far west as San Francisco, Cal. Leaving Bordentown June 27 young Hunter hiked through Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, Oregon, California and Nebraska, and will cover Iowa on his eastward trip. On the trip he received lifts by tourists, but covered a large stretch of territory on foot. He camped out most of the time. While in Omaha he was a guest at St. Philip's rectory. He left Tuesday morning homeward bound and hopes to reach his home at Southampton, L. I., about September 2.

ALLEN CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH

O. J. Burckhardt Pastor.
The fourth and last quarterly meeting of this conference year will be held Sunday. The Rev. J. C. Hicks will preach at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. The sacramental service will be preached at 3 p. m. by the Rev. C. W. Slater of Council Bluffs. Bishop Carey's visit last Sunday was highly appreciated by pastor and people.

BISHOP CAREY IS OMAHA VISITOR

Bishop A. J. Carey of Chicago spent two busy days in Omaha Sunday and Monday. In the morning he preached to a large congregation in St. John's A. M. E. church. In the afternoon he was greeted by a large congregation at Allen Chapel, South Side, and at night he preached at Bethel A. M. E. church to another good sized congregation.

PRESBYTERIANS TO WORSHIP IN NEW CHURCH SUNDAY

St. Paul Presbyterian church, the Rev. Charles H. Trusty, D. D., pastor, which recently purchased the Hillside Congregational church at Thirtieth and Ohio Sts., will take possession and hold their first service in their new church home Sunday morning. Proposed alterations and improvements have not yet been made, but the congregation deemed it best not to delay their occupancy further. Improvements will be completed as speedily as possible, but will not interfere with the holding of regular services.

ZION BAPTIST CHURCH

A large number attended the Sunday School and studied the lesson topic, "The Macedonian Call." Superintendent Lewis reviewed the lesson. Rev. C. T. Stamp, a member of the national Baptist publishing board, was a visitor at the Sunday School and delivered the eleven o'clock sermon. The B. Y. P. U. opened at 6:15, President H. Anderson presiding. The "Little Stars," Miss T. Norris directress, rendered the program with Miss R. O. Collins, Girl Reserve secretary, ending the program with a talk on the "Ideal Girl." A large congregation attended the evening service.

CHURCH OF ST. PHILIP THE DEACON

The usual service will be held next Sunday at 7:30, 10, 11 and 9 p. m., the morning sermon being the sixth in the series on "Some Facts from Genesis." "Man in God's Image", will be the sermon topic.

The largest institution of learning in the world owned and controlled by Negroes is said to be Morris Brown University, located in Atlanta, Ga.
