ENTERTAINS FOR MISS TOWN

Complimentary to Miss Lois Town, whose guest she was during her visit to Los Angeles, Miss Dorothy E. Williams, entertained at a delightful whist party at St. Philip's rectory, Saturday night. In Miss Williams' absence Miss Ireta Walker, graciously assisted Mrs. Williams as hostess. Twenty four young people spent a pleasant evening. The guest prize was awarded Miss Town. The first prize for the ladies was captured by Miss Bernice McCaw and the second by Miss Teressa Jones and those for the gentlemen were awarded Lovejoy Crawford and Cunningham Wilson, respectively. The booby prize went to Miss Ruth Collins. Miss Catherine Williams and Mrs. William G. Haynes also assisted the hostess.

Dan Desdunes, Omaha's popular bandmaster, has taken over the Lake Theatre at Twenty-fourth and Lake, and will endeavor to make this Movie House as popular as his famous band. The theatre will open Sunday afternoon at 2:30 and will be conducted in the first class manner which has characterized everything Mr. Desdunes has done during his long residence in the city. Entertainments of high character and the best pictures will be shown.

The Monitor believes that the venture will succeed and wishes the new proprietor success. All legitimate business ventures should receive the enthusiastic backing of our people.
