

MINISTERIAL ALLIANCE HOLDS WEEKLY MEETING

The Ministerial Alliance held its regular weekly meeting in the parlors of St. John's A. M. E. church, Tuesday morning with its president, the Rev. J. H. Ellis in the chair. In the unavoidable absence of the appointed speaker, the Rev. J. P. Jackson, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, Council Bluffs, a round table talk on plans for making the association more effective constituted the program after the dispatch of routine business. At the meeting next week a demonstration of a Bible instruction will be given by a lady who has had large experience in such work in the South. The session begins at 10:30 a. m.

"WHERE SHALL NEGRO LIVE?" ASKS CHRISTIAN WORK MAGAZINE

A symposium on "Where Shall the Negro Live?" is published in the Nov. 14th issue of Christian Work, a religious weekly review, (70 Fifth Avenue, New York) with answers to the question ranging from James Weldon Johnson, secretary of the Association for the Advancement of Colored People to H. W. Evans, head of the Ku Klux Klan. The Klan point of view, is also that of Senator Coleman L. Blease of South Carolina, and Governor Thomas G. McLeod of South Carolina, is that Negroes should be segregated from whites.

Christian Work introduces as follows the letter of the N. A. A. C. P. secretary: James Weldon Johnson, the distinguished Negro poet and secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, which is helping to bring a defender to the defense among the Negroes and doing us all a service by calling our attention to the wrongs from which we suffer, answered as follows:

"The only suggestion I have to make is that if a colored family legally purchases a house in any neighborhood and conducts itself in accordance with the laws of the community and of decency, it has a right to stay there and to be accorded the decencies of a civilized, Christian community. I cannot see any other course that can be pursued which would not contradict and stultify all our claims to democracy and Christianity. A city street is not in any way a social rendezvous. The fact that a man lives next door or in the same block places no social obligations upon his neighbors. In this city families live in the same house and do not know each other or seek to know each other. If we can set apart certain streets or sections in a city for Negroes why is it not logical, in fact why is it not then compulsory, to set aside separate cities, or communities, in which they should live? I do not see how we could take one step and not follow it through without being illogical and foolish.

Among those in substantial agreement with Mr. Johnson's position are: W. E. B. Du Bois; Eugene Kinckle Jones, secretary of the National Urban League; Thomas Jesse Jones; Roger N. Baldwin of the Civil Liberties Union; Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, head of the Federal Council of Churches; Father John A. Ryan, representing the Catholic Church, and Ellsworth Huntington.
