THE A. M. E. REVIEW OFFERS $100 IN PRIZES FOR ESSAYS

Race's Oldest Magazine Stimulates Study of Richard Allen. The A. M. E. Church Review, Rev. J. G. Robinson, editor, announces that prizes amounting to $100 will be given for the best essays on Richard Allen. Said Dr. Robinson, "The Country, outside of the A. M. E. Church, does not know enough about this remarkable man. He was born in 1760, and died in 1831. His work was almost exclusively among Negroes. He believed intensely in self-help. Hence, he refused to go to the white people, and is not, on that account, very well known among them. I hope by this means, to be able to stimulate the people to better knowledge of this great man."

The prizes will be awarded next February on Richard Allen's 167th birthday anniversary. These essays are to be presented not later than Dec. 31, 1926.

COLORED COMMERCIAL CLUB PRESS APPOINTMENT OF COLORED TEACHERS

The regular monthly meeting of the Executive Committee of the Colored Commercial Club was held Monday night in the club rooms, with Dr. D. W. Gooden presiding. Much important business was transacted. A resolution was unanimously adopted pledging the Club to work actively for the appointment of some colored teachers in the public schools of Omaha and a committee of three, headed by Dr. Gooden was appointed to bring this matter before the Board of Education and to cooperate with similar committees from other organizations which may be appointed for this purpose.

Members and officials of the Base Ball League sponsored by the club, meeting at the same time and place in another room, upon the adjournment of the meeting of the executive committee, were addressed by members of the Executive committee, who complimented them upon the good showing the League has thus far made and especially for its gentlemanly conduct on and off the diamond.

Most women make most of their looks, but it takes a great deal of time and material.

YOUTH AWARDED ART PRIZE.

Francis Syphax, a sophomore at Boston University, has been awarded the first prize in the annual midwinter contest of the Art School of that University. Young Syphax, who is a resident of Washington, D. C., and a former pupil of Dunbar High School, where he won a scholarship for proficiency in his studies, is the first colored boy to win distinction in Art at the University which has so signally honored him.

COLORED WOMAN ADDRESSED SENATE HEARING

Washington, D. C.—When the Women's National Law Enforcement Committee appeared before the United States Senate wet-and-dry hearings, one of the speakers was Mrs. M. Marshall, Vice-President of the Federal of Colored Women's Clubs, and a resident of the District of Columbia. Mrs. Marshall, who claimed to represent 15,000,000 colored people, was roundly applauded by the dries, when she said: "We stand absolutely for the enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment. Men when they can't buy liquor, buy clothes and medicine for the children. We don't want liquor back. It's a Christian duty to support prohibition. We stand against light wines and beer. I plead for 15,000,000 Negroes in this country."

NEGRO POET TO EDIT MAGAZINE

Washington, D. C.—In the March issue of "Palms," a magazine of poems, published in Guadalajara, Mex., the Editor, Miss Idella Purnell, made the interesting announcement that Contee Cullen will be the editor of the next volume, which will be published early next fall. "It will be an unusually good issue," states Miss Purnell, "with the added interest of being entirely written by Negro poets, from the leading article on "The Negro Renaissance" by Walter White, Assistant Secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Negroes, to the last poem and the notes on the contributors."

909-BAR-COL-909

The World's Greatest Tonic

The Climax of Scientific Skill

A PERMANENT AND ACTIVE AGENT

A purely vegetable preparation, positively free of all narcotics.

A tonic that makes the old feel young and keeps the young youthful.

To excite the glands without building up the body is almost criminal. The purpose of 909-Bar-Col-909 is to build up the whole body and then the glands will function as in days of youth; therefore it is a tonic that makes the old feel young and keeps the young youthful.

It strengthens the bronchial tubes and lungs against colds and pneumonia.

It stimulates the weak and palpitating heart and restores the organ to normal conditions.

The liver, feeling the impulse, becomes greatly more active.

It relieves constipation and the bowels perform regularly.

The kidneys are stimulated to perform their natural functions without pain or distress and regularly.

All of the glands are thoroughly washed out and restored to youthful activity; therefore a person of 60 years or more regains the pep and vigor of a person of 35 years, and a person of 40 years regains the pep, vigor and vitality of a person of 20 or 25 years of age. All of this is the purpose of 909-Bar-Col-909 and in its use its purpose is fulfilled to the letter.

909-Bar-Col-909 is an expensive and high class preparation. Some of the ingredients in these tablets cost $480 per pound, and other ingredients in proportion.

Agents wanted—male and female. Good money for agents.
