Stalworths, Willis Charles Wright, Charles Scott and Asa Dudley.

Incidentally, it was also Mr. and Mrs. Dudley's twentieth wedding anniversary.

McGILL FALSELY ACCUSED

It was stated by persons living in South Omaha that Eugene McGill, restaurant keeper, had made an agreement with another restaurant keeper (white) that McGill would not serve whites and the white restaurant keeper would not serve colored persons. Mr. McGill heard of the accusation and met Milton L. Hunter, vice president of the local branch of the N. A. A. C. P., who is also chairman of legal redress and legislative committee, and asked that Mr. Hunter go with him to the white restaurant proprietor and get the matter cleared up. The white restaurant keeper flatly denied that McGill had ever made such a proposal, and said that discrimination against colored persons grew out of white patrons objecting to eating with colored persons. Mr. Hunter stated that McGill served all races that entered his restaurant for service, and asked that the local branch of the N. A. A. C. P. make public the statement through the Monitor and clear the good name of McGill.

PRESENTS PUPILS IN RECITAL

ONE DAY'S PAY GOAL SET IN CHEST DRIVE

The goal of at least a day's pay from every worker in Omaha for the Community Chest, will be sought in campaign this year as in the past, but with the added endeavor to secure payment at once in cash and in full, it has been announced by W. W. Koller, chairman of the industrial division for the drive.

Mr. Koller points out that it will, in the end, be easier for the workers if the payment is made at once instead of in installments over a period of a year, and that it will also result in a considerable saving to the chest in cost of collection. By reducing the number of small items payable on the installment plan, the chest headquarters may be able to eliminate one clerk from the staff for the period of a year.

Mr. Koller's appointment to solicit the larger factories and business houses for employees' subscriptions, was announced by General Chairman J. E. Davidson along with that of A. W. Gordon, chairman of the committee on initial gifts and Frank Campbell, jr., and Harvey Millikin, joint chairman for solicitation of the business district from Twenty-fourth street to the river, Cuming and Leavenworth streets.

Harley G. Moorhead has already been named chairman of residence solicitation, and is at work preparing the card index list of 80,000, who will be solicited.

A chairman for the south side business district has not yet been named. The drive will commence November 15. The goal is $430,000.

SIR KAGWA, AFRICAN PRIME MINISTER, RESIGNS

Native Ruler Ends 35 Years of Christian Leadership.

Momasa, British East Africa—Pacific Coast News Bureau)—After 35 years of active leadership as head of the native cabinet of one of Great Britain's most thriving provinces in British East Africa, Sir Apolo Kagwa, prime minister of Uganda, has resigned.

Coming into prominence in 1886 when King Mwangi of Uganda decided to destroy the Christian faith there and to begin a massacre of Christians, Kagwa—then an obscure African chief—with a companion denounced the king. Kagwa's companion was killed, but Kagwa escaped.

As a native statesman, administrator and general, leading an army in many of the religious struggles which troubled the land, Kagwa was a great power in the maintenance of the Christian faith, and later took a leading part in the building of the present day Uganda.

Sir Apolo Kagwa, now 80 years old, went to England in 1902 at the coronation of King Edward as the official representative of Uganda. Sir Kagwa was also the first African native to be given the K. C. M. G. (Knight Commander of St. Michael and St. George.)

SIX PERSONS MEET DEATH IN NEW YORK TENEMENT FIRE

New York City—A fire starting on the lower floor of a five-story tenement at 420 St. Nicholas avenue, which housed ten colored families, was responsible for the death of six persons. The bodies were burned almost beyond recognition. Two women and a 2-year-old child were injured when they made a desperate leap from the top floor to a subway excavation, and are reported as dying in a Harlem hospital, having had their skulls fractured and suffering from internal injuries.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. Grace E. White of Kansas City, Mo., desires to thank the many friends for kindness shown her mother during her long and serious illness. Her mother is much improved.

Saturday, October 2, will be Tag Day for Grove M. E. church, Twenty-second and Seward street. Our first time on the public. Will be thankful for any help given.
