

CHARLES W. POOL

Secretary of State
OF NEBRASKA

Democratic Candidate FOR RE-ELECTION

Election November 2nd

Charles W. Pool was born on a farm in Henry County, Illinois, and reared on a Nebraska farm. As a young man he learned the printer's trade, and later became owner and editor of a Nebraska newspaper, which was successfully published for more than thirty years. He affiliated with the democratic party, and has been frequently honored by election to office. Was speaker of the House of Representatives of the Nebraska Legislature in 1909, and assisted in formulating and passing many splendid measures, among them the Guaranty of Bank Deposits Law; a law taxing corporations; a law permitting the people to elect their precinct assessors; a law granting to the people the privilege of expressing their preference for United States Senators, and many other acts of which the people of this state are justly proud.

While performing the duties of Secretary of State, his watchword has always been "Efficiency, Economy and Courtesy." If elected, it will be his ambition to conduct the office in the future along the same high plane that has prevailed in the past. He will be grateful for your support.

A Vote for Charles W. Pool Means Efficiency,
Economy and Courtesy in the Office
