NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENT DEFENDANT.

To Samuel S. Wells, Non-Resident Defendant:

You will take notice that on the 16th day of October, 1926, Arthur E. Baldwin, a Judge of the Municipal Court of the City of Omaha, Douglas county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment and garnishment for the sum of $114.50 in an action pending before him in said court, wherein Herman Friedlander is plaintiff and Samuel S. Wells is defendant; that property of the defendant, consisting of $94.70 in the hands of the Union Pacific Railroad Company has been attached and garnished under said order. Said cause has been continued to the 10th day of December, 1926, at 9 o'clock A. M.

HERMAN FRIEDLANDER, Plaintiff.
By H. J. Pinkett, His Attorney.

"CALL" EDITOR AND WIFE ARE OMAHA VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Franklin and Mrs. Clyde Williams of Kansas City, were the week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy C. Bloomfield. Accompanied by Messrs. Watkins and Hanks they had attended the Nebraska-Kaggies football game at Lincoln, Saturday, motoring over from Lincoln Sunday. Messrs. Watkins and Hanks left Sunday night by train for Kansas City. The others remained over until Wednesday. Mr. Franklin is editor of the Kansas City "Call", an influential newspaper which in its six years' existence has had a phenomenal growth and is destined within a few years to outdistance all competitors. Mrs. Franklin was formerly Miss Ada Croghan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Croghan of Philadelphia, the talented author and producer of the great race pageant "Milestones", which it is hoped will be presented in Omaha sometime within the coming year.

FAMILY DAY AT ST. PHILIP'S EPICOPAL CHURCH

Sunday is to be observed as "Family Day" at the Episcopal Church of St. Philip the Deacon, Twenty-first street near Paul. An effort is to be made to have all the families of the parish present at the 11 o'clock service, children in the pews with their parents, where there are children. Individuals, not included in families, are urged to be present. A mobilization of all the members of the parish is sought at the 11 o'clock service. Any who cannot attend this service are urged to attend the early service or the night service. At the close of the morning service a social hour will be held in the Guild Room.

The services on Thanksgiving Day will be Holy Communion at 7 a. m. and special Thanksgiving service at 10:30, the offering being for Clarkson Memorial hospital.

PARTNERSHIP OF TWENTY-FIVE YEARS DISSOLVED

Messrs. Jewell and Phannix, who have conducted the Elite Pool and Billiard hall at 105 South Fourteenth street for the past twenty-five years have dissolved partnership. Mr. Jewell has sold his interests to Mr. Phannix. It is rather a unique record among our people to successfully conduct a partnership business in one place for a quarter of a century. Mr. Jewell will devote his time to his interests in the Jewell building at Twenty-fourth and Grant streets and Mr. Phannix will continue business at the old stand.

LINCOLN NEWS

Mrs. Richard Houston has returned home from the hospital, where she recently went through an operation, and is much improved.

The Mission society of Mount Zion Baptist church was snicely entertained at the home of Mrs. P. L. Moore, last Tuesday night by Mesdames Belle Collins and Katherine Moore. A good attendance was had.

Mrs. Magige Johnson, aged 72, passed away last Friday at 3:50 o'clock at the home of her son, John Johnson, 1848 North 25th, after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Johnson was the widow of the late Harrison Johnson, who passed away in 1900. She was a pioneer of Lincoln, coming to the city in 1872 and was the mother of seven children, six of whom died in infancy; leaving John as the only one surviving, and the one who has cared for his mother since the death of his father. She was a charter member of the A. M. E. Church, but owing to sickness of late, was unable to attend. The deceased leaves as only survivors, her son, John, a daughter-in-law and friends.

Hence, we feel that the community has lost a good citizen and a kind mother. The funeral was held in Alba Brown's undertaking parlors on Monday at 2:00 p. m. Rev. M. C. Knight preached a most impressive sermon, which was listened to by a good number of friends. Mrs. C. C. Christiman sang. Sympathy goes out to the bereaved son and wife.

Mr. C. A. Franklin, editor of the Kansas City Call and Mrs. Franklin, Mrs. Clyde Williams, Messrs. Watkins and Berry of Kansas City, Mo., motored over Saturday to witness the Nebraska-Kansas Aggies football game, which everybody says was a great game in spite of the rain.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Franklin and Mrs. Clyde Williams were the house guests of Mr and Mrs. W. W. Mosley over Saturday night, leaving for Omaha Sunday morning.

The student group of Quinn chapel rendered a very interesting program last Friday night. It was in the form of a mock trial, which was carried out in a real court style and was greatly enjoyed by the big crowd.

Thanksgiving services will be held by all churches on Thursday morning, November 25. All-day programs and dinners in the evening.
