Mrs. Lessie Jackson, of Memphis, Tenn., after a several week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles Garrett, left for home last Thursday night.

Mrs. William Rouhlac, who has been a patient at the University hospital, where she gave birth to a baby girl, which lived only a short time, has been removed to her home, 2618 Charles street, where she is slowly recovering.

Levi McLemore, of Cheyenne, Wyo., son of Mrs. S. A. Brown, 1710 North Twenty-fifth street, was an Omaha visitor last Friday. He brought a number of Union Pacific officials here.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Philip's Church held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Smith, 2916 North Twenty-eighth street, Thursday afternoon, February 17. A report of the annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese of Nebraska, held at Trinity Cathedral, Tuesday, February 15, was given at that time.

Mrs. James Madden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Singleton, who was called to Omaha by the death of her sister, Mrs. Olin Prestidge, returned to her home in Chicago, Saturday night.

Charley Curry, 1520 North Twenty-sixth street, is back home from the hospital and is improving nicely.

Sunday, March 6, will be opening day for the Joseph D. Lewis new funeral home. Hours, 11 a. m. to 11 p. m. Public cordially invited.

Mrs. Florentine F. Pinkston entertained the members of the cast of the operetta "Snow Queen," their parents and friends, at a very delightful dancing party at Hanscom park pavilion Saturday night. Those taking the parts of the butterflies and the bee were entertained Saturday afternoon at a special party at the home of Mrs. Pinkston, where they had a most happy time.

Mrs. Leonard Owens entertained at luncheon, Friday, February 18th, at her home, 2403 North Twenty-ninth street, honoring Mrs. Samuel Greenfield of Atchison, who is a sister of Mrs. H. J. Kinney. Plates were laid for eight guests, Mrs. H. Leland, Mrs. Charles Bratcher, Mrs. David Smith, Sr., and Jr., Mrs. Leslie Webb and Mrs. Kinney.

After luncheon Mrs. Owens took her guests for a ride over the city and at four o'clock to the WOW radio station for a matinee and tea.

Machinist Will Grow Potatoes

Kaiser Dokes of Kansas City, Kansas, a machinist in the employ of the Santa Fe railroad, was on Omaha visitor Sunday, the guest of Dr. J. B. Hill. Mr. Dokes is leaving the employ of the railroad to engage in potato growing with his father in Oklahoma. The older Dokes last year did a $10,000 business in potatoes.

Kaiser Dokes informed The Monitor that the Santa Fe railroad is now apprenticing young Negroes as machinists in many of its shops.

ANNUAL COUNCIL ADMITS ST. PHILIP'S AS A PARISH

At the Sixtieth Annual Council of the Diocese of Nebraska, held in Trinity Cathedral last week, the Church of St. Philip the Deacon, was formally admitted as a parish and congratulatory remarks upon its elevation from the status of a mission to that of a parish were made by Mr. John S. Hedelund, an outstanding layman of the Diocese. The Council expressed its appreciation of the long and faithful services of Rev. John Albert Williams, not only to his congregation but to the Diocese, of which he is the senior active priest, by a rising vote. Father Williams, who has served the Diocese as assistant secretary, secretary, editor of The Crozier, the Diocesan journal, and in other capacities, was signally honored by the Council by being elected as one of the three clerical members of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, which acts as the ecclesiastical authority during a vacancy in the diocesan episcopate and also passes upon important matters in the Diocese and General Church.

"THE DANCING DEMONS"

George Stone and Etta Pillard, "The Dancing Demons", with their own company of selected talent, open at the Gayety theatre with a matinee today. Both have been seen on the same stage before and they have vaudeville and musical comedy experience to their credit, as well as burlesque.

While dancing always has been their specialty, Stone and Miss Pillard are capable singers and both have scored repeatedly in comedy work. Their show is said to include an attractive chorus of sixteen beauties and exceptional effects in scenery and costumes.

They are supported by an excellent cast of players, including Sylvia Pearl, Margie Austin, Minerva Marsh, Bert Bernard, Tom Phillips and Jimmie Burns. All of them have specialties and are offered in them during the revue.

Darling Germaine, dancing star, has been added to the bill at the Gayety this week by Manager Sam Reider. She is not a member of the Stone & Pillard company, but is offered as an extra attraction.

Feature night inaugurated at the Gayety last week, will be continued this week, beginning with the Black Bottom contests for the boys at the matinee and for girls in the evening.
