

The Doom Trail

Arthur D. Howden Smith Author of PORTO BELLO GOLD, Etc.

THE STORY

CHAPTER I—Harry Ormerod, proscribed traitor to King George as a Stuart partisan, returning from France to London, rescues Alderman Robert Juggins from a band of assassins. Juggins proves to be the grandson of a former steward of Ormerod's father, to whom Juggins feels himself indebted. Ormerod tells Juggins he has abandoned the Stuarts...

of us. I felt a shudder pass through the slender figure in the mask. "Tis the altar of the False Faces," she murmured. "None but the Ga-ga-so will dare to follow us through the wood..."

"Thank you, Harry," she returned with a trill of elfin laughter. "And I do assure you I know other songs." With that she was gone. Yet I had a feeling I had never known before that she was still with me, and I stepped into the water with joy in my heart.

last scent. In a moment the ugly head was lifted, and a howl of satisfaction greeted the other monstrous shapes which joined it. The whole pack gave tongue and vanished up the trail after Marjory. Ta-wan-ne-ars waited to give the stragglers time to appear, then rose and led the way along the bed of the stream westward...

GARVEY STARTS THIRD YEAR OF IMPRISONMENT

Atlanta, Ga.—Marcus Garvey, founder and president-general of the Universal Negro Improvement association, last week completed the second year of his five year's sentence in the federal penitentiary on a charge of using the mails to defraud. It is possible that the former leader of the Garvey movement may receive a pardon before his term has been completed. Numerous appeals have been made for a pardon. Garvey, however, faces deportation upon his release from prison.

HARLEM HOSPITAL TO RECEIVE NEW INTERNES

New York, N. Y. — Five colored doctors passed a recent competitive examination for internship at Harlem hospital. They were Dr. Euclid P. Ghee, of Jersey City; Dr. James C. Whittaker, of Charleston, S. C.; Dr. Richard Laurence Harvey of New Rochelle; Dr. Robert Shaw Wilkerson, Jr., of Orangeburg, S. C.; and Dr. Albert F. Lynch of Newark.

PRINCIPAL SUES PAPER IN HOUSTON FOR LIBEL

Houston, Texas—William Leonard Davis, acting principal of Gregory school and prominent politician, has filed a libel suit against the Houston Informer, of which C. F. Richardson is editor. The case grew out of an editorial published in the paper recently. Davis charges that the article, which was entitled "Pusillanimous Pussfooting Principal," was malicious, affecting his reputation.

NAME 12 OUTSTANDING NEGROES IN AMERICA

Coatesville, Pa.—Twelve of the most outstanding American Negroes were named in a ballot taken at the Adams school in connection with Negro Industry Week. Those named were Booker T. Washington, Roland Hayes, Frederick Douglass, Paul Laurence Dunbar, Henry O. Tanner, Blanch K. Bruce, Carter Woodson, George Carver, DeHart Hubbard and James Weldon Johnson.

NEGROES' PETITION IS PRESENTED TO HOUSE

Washington, D. C.—Mr. Tincher of Kansas, recently, presented the petition of the National Douglass-Lincoln Colored American Conference to the House of Representatives. The petition urged the passage of legislation to stop disfranchisement of colored persons, segregation of races in interstate traffic and lynching, and urged that members of congress chosen through disfranchisement not be seated.

EIGHT-YEAR-OLD GIRL PUSHES MAN FROM THE PATH OF AN ONCOMING AUTO; IS STRUCK

Dallas, Texas—The heroic act of an eight-year-old colored girl saved a blind white man from death under the wheels of an automobile here last Friday. Frances Harper, the girl, was leading the blind man across the street as an act of kindness when a speeding automobile came rushing toward them. Little Frances had to think fast. She pushed the blind man from the path of the machine, but she could not get out of the way in time herself and was struck. The injured girl was picked up and rushed to a hospital, where she was found to be suffering a broken leg and severe body injuries. The automobile driver was charged with driving while intoxicated. It was said the automobile had been stolen.

INTER-RACIAL COMMISSION ENTERS ANTI-LYNCH PLEA

Atlanta, Ga.—A resolution asking that the people of South Carolina support the valiant stand of Governor John G. Richards on the lynching of three colored Americans at Aikens last fall has been drafted by the Executive Committee of Inter-racial Co-operation. Another resolution adopted by the body calls attention to the fact that in thirty lynchings on record for 1926, there were convictions in only one case.
