Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The Athletic Gems of the North Side Branch on June 21, 1927, met the South Side Cultural Center girls in a baseball game and received a thorough beating, but since the Athletic Gem Girls are such good losers, a return game has been arranged to be played on July 5, at the ground on Twenty-second and Burdette streets. The "Y" girls promise to thrash severely the South Side girls. On Thursday evening, June 23, the Board of Management of the North Side Branch, with Mrs. Baker's cooperation, gave a reception in honor of the race graduates of the various high schools and universities. An exceptionally fine program was rendered, and of such a nature that all enjoyed it. Some very remarkable points were conveyed to the graduates in the form of advice given by very able speakers having had experience. After refreshments were served, all left having declared themselves as having had a wonderful time.

The series of birthday parties given by the Membership Committee for the membership in general having birthdays in certain months, was continued on Monday evening, June 27, at the North Side Branch. All those of the present membership whose birthday falls in the months of April, May and June, were invited to be guests.

The House Committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Canty, gave a musical-tea Wednesday afternoon, June 29, from 2 to 5.

MRS. BRUCE WHITE DIES IN KANSAS CITY

Mrs. Viola White, wife of Bruce White, of Kansas City, Mo., and the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ellis of Omaha, died at her late residence, June 17. The remains, accompanied by her husband and daughter, Corrine, were brought to Omaha for burial. The funeral was held last Wednesday afternoon from Salem Baptist church, the Rev. E. A. Hilson officiating. Interment was at Forest Lawn. The deceased is survived by her husband and daughter, her father and mother, four sisters, Mrs. Blanche Shipman, Mrs. Maud Graves and Mrs. Myrtle Chambers of Omaha, and Mrs. Ada Thomas of Sioux City, Ia., and two brothers, Arthur and Frank Ellis of Omaha.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

Nebraska City, June 27, 1927.
Editor Monitor

Knowing that your paper is interested in racial and church work, we want to express our appreciation for the religious work done in our town by Rev. O. J. Burckhardt and Mrs. Anna Burton, both evangelists, of your city. We now have a new A. M. E. church membership, a splendid young people's choir and Christian Endeavor. The fact is, that the entire citizenry has been wonderfully helped.

MISS GEORGIA ROBINSON,
Church Clerk.
